

In the time of my favour I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you. I tell you, now is the time of God's favour, now is the day of salvation. 2Cor. 6:2

Twelve loaves, Article four, the flood of knowledge:

All that, which were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Romans 15:4 (Hellenic text)

The above prophetic declaration speaks clearly and it was specifically written for our learning today, at the time when God's word of truth is being rightly interpreted, and by understanding and trusting the written, will give us great comfort. Instructing us, not to lose heart, but to exercise patience, the virtue which will give us hope and strength.

Up to now not many if any have actually questioned the very purpose for their temporary existence, and what is man doing on this planet all alone among the countless of stars inside an unsearchable and unreachable universe? Since everyman's destiny is to come out of the cradle and walk all the way to the crypt, which is a pointless existence to be born in corruption and to die in corruption.

No matter how many years' mankind carries on existing, man's every day routine way of life, will never change, day and night, work and rest, birth and death, leading to nowhere.

In the near future, everyman's biggest problem will be population growth, and the consequences will be dire.

Even if man "the wishful dream at the moment", was to travel into space and reached some distant habitable planet, which will most definitely be a one-way ticket, a journey without return, while the nearest assumed habitable planet is about two thousand light years away, which means that those travelling there will end up as corpses, long before they reach their destination.

Certain individual's dream is to leapfrog from planet to planet, but no matter where man goes, still, he will be hunted by corruption and mortality, inside the vastness of the inadvertent universe according to the assumptions of certain scientists.

Our planet is being polluted every minute that passes by, due the population growth, which no one is able to stop. Therefore, more houses, more skyscrapers, more factories, more power stations, more industries, more cars, more airplanes, more trains, more ships. More animals for food consumption, more deforestation to make room for extra farming, overfishing the oceans, polluting the oceans, polluting the rivers, polluting the air, exhausting all the earth's resources, killing the ecological system and all biological life, more global warming and rapid melting of the ice caps, therefore, devastating flooding.

Life has become so hectic; people have no time even to think, the corrupt system which governs this world is killing integrity, compassion, optimism and hope.

Today's slavery exploitation wears a different mask than that of yesterday's.

Up to now everyman has been forced to invest only for his own belly, but not many have even considered to invest also, for the sake of their soul. Invest in the word of life, invest on what the word of life promises, and needs no money, but only personal devotion: realizing that to be born and destined to die is completely pointless.

Whatever man achieves in this temporary and corrupt life at the end, all turns into dust and ashes.

God foretold that hard times will come. Today, the entire world is in turmoil, there is trouble everywhere, problems that cannot be solved even peacefully. The world is in a gridlock, in the middle of an unsolvable enigma, totally confused what the future holds.

The word of God, the word of life through the testimony of Jesus is the only light that we have to gives us comfort and hope in these times of uncertainty.

The hope and comfort of salvation, the hope and comfort to defeat death, to defy the laws of nature, are the adamant promises of God through Jesus Christ.

It is written:

Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved. Acts 4:12

I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. John 10:9

All things are subjected to vanity:

For the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. Romans 8:20-21

The Hellenic writings give evidence about the existence of God and the reality of eternal life:

Paul, the servant of God and apostle of Jesus Christ, in order to further the faith of God's elect by the acknowledgment of the truth which accords with godliness, in the hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised: before time began, has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Saviour. Titus 1:1-3

(Before space there was no time and before time, there was no space; God brought the natural into existence from nonexistence. The natural Universe "space" was created to be ruled by time, therefore, nature is subjected to time, to vanity and corruption. The entire universe and all things in it were created for signs and for times. Outside the natural space, there is no time, and where there is no time, there is no beginning and no ending, but where there is time, there was a beginning and therefore, it will have an ending.)

For over two thousand years now, the spiritual magnitude of the word of God has been kept under covers, firstly, because of lack of discernment and secondly, due to the confusion, which had been created by all the different religions and beliefs in the entire world.

Totally ignoring God's promises:

And they shall all be taught by God. Therefore, everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to Me. John 6:45

John's 6:45 prophetic declaration has been totally dismissed and swept under the carpet by the so-called lawyers, the religious hierarchs, the scribes and the Pharisees, who still, until this very day teach their followers to live according to their own invented religious and irrational laws, worshipping the creature and not the creator.

And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John 8:32

Two prophetic declarations that have been echoing right through the centuries and stand as solid promises, made by Jesus; directed to all the seekers of the truth, which yet again, they have never been explained, experienced or understood.

Due to the religious hypocrisy and unorthodox deeds, majority of the world today insist that there is no God.

By reciting the word without interpretation of its spiritual connotation, no one will ever learn, unless one is taught by God, the promise, from which most people have been and still are turning their faces away. The reason why there is total lack of understanding, while Jesus emphatically stresses that, you shall know the truth; and it is the truth which shall make you free.

Free from all the deceptions and dysfunctional beliefs. Free from all the manmade doctrines and cunningly devised fables, invented by the puffed up fleshy minded few.

Jesus' voice has been echoing through the ages, but no one has been listening, and for this reason not many have been asking, what is the truth? What is the truth and the reason for my existence?

Food for thought:

If all the Biblical, earthly stories were natural events, then, what are the mysteries and the kept secrets from the foundation of the world? And why do they need spiritual discernment to be interpreted?

Why, is the word of life sealed with seven seals and needs to be opened? What is hidden that needs to be revealed? What is the truth?

It was foretold that they who seek the truth, the truth shall be revealed to them.

Evidently this prophecy was pointing to a distant and advanced generation, like us today.

This means that the time has come; now that the seals of the Book are being opened according to the promises made by God through Jesus.

Wherefore, the truth is right now within the grasp of every seeker of the truth.

For this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love.

For if these qualities are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Peter 1:5-8

The prophetic declaration which was pointing to man:

In the beginning the earth was without form “barren” and void, it is the declaration which was directed to the natural man who lacked spiritual knowledge and wisdom, the natural man which already existed, the man who ascended from the natural evolution, the man who was already an inhabitant on the Planet.

God, therefore, was not talking to the planet Earth, but referring to man.

Natural credible evidence verifies, firstly: that when man had already evolved, the planet Earth was neither barren nor void, and secondly: that it took thousands of years for man to evolve, therefore, man was not created in just six natural days or in six thousand years according to the fictional beliefs of certain people.

Up to now due to the lack of spiritual discernment of the word majority of people are under the impression and the belief that the Genesis account refers to the natural creation of all mankind, through the man Adam.

When God said: Let us make man in our image and likeness, God was pointing to the man of the natural evolution, the man of the animal nature who existed and was already an inhabitant of the planet. Genesis means birth; therefore, it refers to the birth of the spiritual man and not of the natural, since it has been proven that all the species, including man, ascended through natural evolution. Genesis 1:26 it does not say Let us make a man, but Let us make man, the man who already existed. The Hebrew text says: Let us make Adam.

God did not create puppets, He used many evolutionary stages with different species of primates, and on different continents of the planet, yet to be discovered and perhaps not.

Let us make man was spoken in plural, which means that the creators were more than one.

If Adam was the first man, why does Jesus then, claim that He is the First and the Last and refers to Adam. He also claims that He is The Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

The Hellenic writings confirm that Jesus Christ is the First and the Last Adam.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

If Adam is the Alpha man, then, why does Jesus claim that He is the Alpha?

Now the intricate question: who were the ones, who said Let us make man in our image and likeness? One has to bear in mind that it was God, who said: Let us make man and in plural, But God is one...I expand on this issue down the pages.

I have already exposed that it is Jesus who portrays Adam, but I want the reader to see it from a different level of understanding and to prove that the word of God it is four dimensional. According to the written, God does things, twice and three times. This means that the word can be viewed upon three spiritual levels, against the one level, the earthly story.

Since the very beginning of time, with the exception of the certain inquisitive few and rational, God inspired individuals, the rest of the world despite of their religious labelling they were and still are spiritually barren. Although they see, they cannot see; and hearing, it goes in through one ear and comes out of the other.

The Lord always keeps a remnant of gifted individuals not only to be witnesses to His existence, but also to be protectors of the planet itself, for the sustenance of all biological life and ecological system. Individuals “elect” who devote their lives for these specific causes.

God works, but man is not aware of it.

Irrational and dysfunctional religious ideologies have led the entire world astray. Most people do not bother to study the scriptures, in order to be able to ask questions, majority they'd rather listen to religious sermons to tickle their ears.

The person who lives in darkness, in total ignorance without seeking knowledge and wisdom is always vulnerable.

Most people are afraid to search and to ask questions, they are afraid to face the truth, afraid of the light, even afraid what their next door neighbours will say.

Words of wisdom by Plato, a God inspired individual:

We can easily forgive a child who is afraid of the dark; the real tragedy of life is when men are afraid of the light.

Since the very beginning, only the certain "elect" visionary and rational individuals proclaimed that the Biblical literature was written in an allegorical language and needed to be rightly and spiritually interpreted, which includes the Torah and the Quran. The religious hierarchs turned a blind eye, refusing to listen.

But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 2Cor. 3:15

When Jesus said: bear your own cross He did not suggest to hang a toy cross around one's neck.

A toy cross does not teach anyone the hidden of the divine word and neither it protects one from vampires. Since the real vampires are those who are sucking the blood of the poor, whose tongue and teeth are sharper than a serpent's fangs.

Religious dysfunctional beliefs and superstitions still carry on, which means that the spiritual depths of the divine word, they have never been understood. Substantiating the fact that in order to work out and understand the spiritual depths of the word, one has to have divine inspiration, elevation and opening of the mind, the fact which is a far cry for most people.

There is no possible way that man, without the help of God has the ability to work out the scriptures. Four thousand years of Judaism and two thousand years of Christianity prove the point, nothing new under the Sun; and none the wiser.

The promise made by God: And they shall all be taught by God, applies to every man, despite one's status; and regardless one's nationality, colour or religious labelling, since God is personal and not a respecter of persons.

Evaluating things logically; if the scriptures were manmade, why should mere men advice other mere men that, they shall all be taught by God? It is a serious statement; therefore, it cannot be a lie and a false promise made by some unknown author, if he did not experience himself what he said.

The author therefore, proves that he is genuine, because to make such a prolific statement, is like saying: I dare you to try, because it is true, suggesting that, I have already experienced it myself, but the author is the Lord Himself and not a man; and the one who made the statement which stood a solid promise, since the beginning of time.

It is God who said:

I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Therefore, come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you. 2Cor. 6:16-17

The above quotes not only reveal that God will dwell in man, but also instructs that in order to be accepted by God one has to come out of the world's vanities.

Jesus continues to say:

And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. 2Cor. 6:16

Jesus makes it clear that the Temple of God is man, and since God has already said the He does not dwell in manmade buildings, but in the humble man's heart.

For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has the light with darkness? And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 2Cor. 6:14-15

The question is: when does, God come and dwells in man? Only when man conceives the spiritual seed, the indwelling, Living and powerful word of God, then the Lord becomes his personal teacher. Then and only then man is born above, has his mind elevated.

Imaginary theories and make believe are not credible evidence; therefore, it is about time that people, at least they who believe, took this aspect of the word seriously and be concerned about their human condition and face up to the reality of their temporary existence, not only theirs, but also of their children and loved ones, rather than to speculate.

God promises that He will teach the man who seeks His Kingdom and His righteousness, bearing in mind that God is personal.

Many good sincere people, join different religious groups, but they never advance in the spiritual knowledge of the word, because they always recite the letter. They are made to believe that there is nothing more beyond the literal and that their pastor, since he is the man ordained by God, they are afraid to ask him questions. They always listen to the same literal sermons, year after year and they become lame, never to leave behind them the first teachings and go forward and grow in spiritual knowledge.

Inside mainstream Christianity no one has a chance to learn anything, by watching theatrical rituals and staged sermons and worshipping the religious dead saints. The dead do not speak, but only the one who has risen from the dead and that is Jesus the Christ, who is the gate of the sheep and no one else. I speak from experience, I went through that stage myself, I have even tried different groups searching for the truth. Thinking that surely, someone must be able to interpret the word and give me a clear understanding. I was inquisitive, I was not satisfied just by reciting the letter of the word, I wanted to know more, I wanted to understand.

I remember when I was about six or seven years old, my gran took me to the so-called church building which was filled with icons of Christianity's dead saints. Being inquisitive, I looked all around inside the building and read every icon of every saint, when I realized that the picture of God was missing. I pulled my gran's hand and asked her; where is the picture of God? And my gran replied, there is no picture of God. That did puzzle me for a long time, why no one had the picture of God. But what stuck deeply in my mind since then, it was Jesus, I had always a warm loving feeling for Jesus, and I did not know why?

To cut a long story short, many years went by and something made me to buy the Book of the Bible. I paid fifteen English shillings in 1965, about 75 pence with today's money. From then on things begun to happen. However, I do not want to bore you with my life story.

All I want to say for now, all that I know, concerning the spiritual side of the word, were not given to me by some man, although in the beginning a good friend of mine helped me in my quest, who was also inquisitive, but for many years now, all I have learned, I learned by myself.

If I were to say that I was taught by God, perhaps will raise few eyebrows, but it is the truth, and I am of sound mind, my family and my friends can verify it, but mainly my knowledge and understanding of the divine Logos. It is written that only the Lord can lose the seals of the Book.

What is hard, is to put it fluently into writing, and since I am a Hellene through and through.

Perhaps I am a distant relative of Plato... Plato's DNA? only Kidding!!

Certain scientists due to the religious variability, confusion and insincerity they speculate and theorize that there is no God, therefore, are trying to discover our origins, which will be great news if they did, perhaps only then, they might discover that God does exist after all; and that He is our creator.

There is no way possible for evolution to have happened, without the evolutionist, without a creator, no creation, without the law designer and law giver, no laws can be set into motion.

The existence of God, cannot be proven neither theoretically nor mathematically, not even by man's wisdom, but only by the God given wisdom, which opens the way for spiritual discernment for perfect understanding and logical interpretation of His word.

God is personal to the man who seeks Him. God is Spirit, God is outside time and space, while mathematics "logic" is the method of man to solve man's problems. But the problem of our animal nature, mortal flesh, neither mathematics nor manmade equations will solve.

The chaotic state of the whole world today has become a millstone around every person's neck, our animal pride and unethical behaviours are the cause of our many problems. Our humanity is kept in captivity and it is ruled by our animal nature.

It is only the Spirit of God "Kolion-κωλύον" which at the moment "restrains" prevents things to become erratic, but when the Kolion is removed, the inevitable will happen, which will cause even a nuclear war, by the irrational war lords and war merchants.

For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. 2Thes. 2:7

Our biggest and gravest problem today is population growth, which is increasing rapidly; and the main culprits to blame are all the manmade religions and their dysfunctional doctrines worldwide.

It is a chaotic situation, unthinkable, hard to grasp that intelligent men in the twenty first century, believe such rubbish, such as, polygamy and uncontrolled childbirth, persuading people to live by such illogical beliefs. Majority of people today who live in big cities cannot afford to support even one child, but we see people who live in poverty in poor counties to bear five and six children, because of their religious and irrational beliefs.

It seems that common sense has abandoned a good majority of the human race.

Through the following passages, God illustrates that many people do not use common sense, especially the religious.

A man plants a pine tree, and the rain nourishes it. It is used as fuel for burning; some of it he takes and warms himself, he kindles a fire and bakes bread. But he also fashions a god and worships it; he makes an idol and bows down to it.

He burns half of it in the fire; with the other half, he eats meat; He roasts a roast, and is satisfied. He even warms himself and says, Ah! I am warm, I have seen the fire. And the rest of it he makes into a god, a carved image. He falls down before it and worships it, prays to it and says: deliver me, for you are my god! Isaiah 44:14-17

No one stops to think, no one has the knowledge or understanding to say: half of it I used for fuel; I even baked bread over its coals, I roasted meat and I ate. Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left? Shall I bow down to a block of wood? Isiah 44:19

The worshipping of wooden and stone objects “idols” it has never ceased, still carries on today and in most manmade religions, especially inside counterfeit Christianity, who are fooling themselves to believe that even tap water is holy.

The person who speaks and prays to the dead “apsycha” images, such as a lump of wood, a stone statue and a wooden icon and asks for healing and salvation; it is a dysfunctional behaviour which surpasses all the boundaries of logic.

The future of this planet for the survival of all mankind it is the responsibility of every person who dwells on it, despite nationality, colour or creed, since we are all members of the same integral and mixed society and travelers onboard the same ship.

Therefore, it is about time that everyone faced the truth that there is no escape from the jaws of mortality and the grave, despite everyone’s religion and so-called beliefs, despite everyone’s nationality. Despite everyone’s colour and looks, despite everyone’s stature, and finally accept that the only way out of valley of the shadow of death, out of the house of clay, is through the preordained way of the Lord, which He left it to us in writing.

Until we all, are united in the same spirit, the spirit of the mind, while the written instructions and for all mankind, is to pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ may give to you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of Him.

It is very clear that morality today is not exercised, especially by the religious hierarchs who still carry on, after all the horrific events of the past, they still remain the same stiff necks, and still take the scriptures literally, still performing theatrical rituals.

One good example why the scriptures cannot be taken literally.

The man who actually believes that one man could marry 700 wives, 700 queens with another 300 women outside his marriage, 1000 women in total; that man is prone to believe anything.

This is why we cannot take the scriptures literally, without understanding their spiritual concept, and ignorantly follow the letter.

Not many people are inclined to ask rational questions; for instance: why did Solomon in all his God given wisdom needed 700 wives? Firstly, how long did it take King Solomon to marry 700 queens? Secondly, where did King Solomon accommodate and kept all his 700 queens? The biggest seraglio in man’s history if it were true. Thirdly, how many children, princes and princesses did he have, with so many wives?

The scripture mentions that he had only one son from the Ammonite princess.

Also, how did he remember the names of each one of his 1000 women? How much was the cost to support and to feed 1000 women each and every day and all their servants? What method did he use in order to approach one of his queens, out of the 700? Perhaps he drew lots; and what about his precious woman, the queen of Sheba?

The truth is, physically no man would do such a thing, not only is impractical, but also impossible. We read that God blessed and enriched Solomon with abundant wisdom; marrying 700 wives though, it was not such a wise decision.

Solomon, the wisest of his generation, a man of God who was destined to build the Temple of God, entangled himself with the cares of this temporary life, contra to the will of God?

The final and logical conclusion is this: any man today who has the desire to love 1000 women, he will be called a sex maniac and a pervert and perhaps a superman.

All the rumours about Solomon's treasures and gold mines have never materialized, as also his elaborate palace and his house which measured 100x50x30 cubits, the exact measurements of the Tabernacle in the wilderness. The truth is, none of the Old Testament relics, were ever found, which is something to ponder on, and why?

The point being made, is to establish that the scriptures cannot and must not be taken literally, the issue which Jesus makes very clear that, although He speaks about earthly things "in an allegorical language", their true concept is spiritual. The numbers 700 and 300 refer to spiritual knowledge as fragments of wisdom. 700+300=1000 refers to the Holiest of the Tabernacle in the wilderness, and that Solomon entered the Holiest, the presence of God. That is why Solomon's house, referring to his own self, measured 100x50x30. Solomon had already built the Tabernacle, which later on it increases into a Temple and in Jerusalem. The Tabernacle which is built only with knowledge, skill and wisdom.

Solomon, in reality is portrayed by Jesus, walking through the entire scriptures, the one who prophetically revealed the two sides of man, by taking a sword, the word of God, sharp enough to divide "the male child in two", the mortal soul from the spirit of the mind, the outward from the inward man.

The two mothers: the one represents the free woman Sarah and the other, the slave woman Agar, whose child died, denoting the death of the fleshy seed, she wanted to divide the child in two, but the free woman as "Sarah" refused, denoting that is only one man, and that only the word of God can divide him. The two seeds in one man, are the continuation of the two seeds of Abraham, first, of Ishmael, as the seed of the flesh and second, of Isaac, the seed of the promise, the spiritual and incorruptible seed, descending from the third heaven.

Yet again revealing that the Biblical woman symbolically signifies not only the flesh, but also the wisdom.

Also, revealing, first, that both the son of the slave woman and the son of the free woman, is one man, and second, that the two mothers are also one, as the flesh and as the wisdom.

God separates the two, the slave woman Agar from Egypt, referring to the world, and the free woman, Sarah who came from the East, the daughter of Haran, which literally means Mountaineer, and given as a cryptic clue, while the biblical East symbolically points to the future.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings glad tidings of good things, who proclaims salvation, who says to Zion. "Your God reigns". Isaiah 52:7

Prophetically announcing the coming of the Saviour, the birth of the spiritual seed, Jesus descending from Zion, the spiritual Jerusalem. Which is what the Mountain of metamorphosis truly represents.

These are the mysteries of the word of God, the word of life.

Once again it has to be stressed that to work out the hidden of the word, one's mind has to be snatched, elevated onto the three heavens, which is the work of the Holy Spirit, because when He comes "the comforter", He shall teach you all things.

Yet again, it takes us to the written that, angels ascend and descend on the son of man. The spirit of the mind ascends and descends.

Jesus fulfills Moses and the Prophets, saying: I do not come to give peace, but rather division...

In the tome of the book it is written about me... I am the way... I am the truth... I am the life.

Jesus, comes to create division and not to establish peace between the two seeds, but after the reconciliation, when the enmity is put to death, death of the flesh, by the renewal of the mind and purification of the heart, the two become one, into one body, as a new man, then He establishes peace.

Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Psalm 85:11

The Gospel of Christ give evidence about eternal life, and that after our natural existence, our most important triumph, our greatest achievement will be, when we obtain the mind of Christ which is the very purpose for our existence and also to defy death, by the resurrection of our mortal soul, into living souls.

God, prophetically through His word made a covenant signed and sealed to all those who shall truly call upon His name, that they shall drink of the living waters.

Adding: Keep the word of prophecy until I come, and living waters shall flow from your bellies.

Debauchery of the flesh is decaying the essence of our existence:

The web of the corrupt system that rules the entire world today, clearly illustrates the wickedness of the flesh.

This also proves that the scriptures and the existence of God have never been taken seriously, especially by the greedy generation who practices austerity for the poor and prosperity for the rich, which is not something new, old habits die hard.

Those who have divided the entire human race into different categories of high and low classes, masters and slaves, lords and paupers, privileged and non-privileged. Division and inequality, was on the horizon since the very beginning, which today, is falsely called democracy instead of being called plutocracy by the oligarchy.

The true essence of democracy is for the privileged to be fair to the non-privileged, a just system for all. In reality though, only few are the countries in the world today which exercise, proportional democracy, fragmented democracy.

In our times, it is the theme of the wealthy to tell the poor to help the poor, while, the one poor man's money collected, most times does not even reach the other poor man's pocket.

It is the working man who is hired in order to manipulate the other working man and for the benefit of the rich. The rich man's excuse is: be happy that you have a job.

This inhumane charade has been performed and for many years now. The poor are still poor, they still suffer from malnutrition, and still, they have no clean water to drink; but neither a decent dwelling to live in.

Jesus makes a rational comment concerning inequality:

Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head (Matthew 8:20) and how hard it is for a rich man to depart with his money.

For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. Luke 18:25 (A statement with dual connotation, spiritual and natural, God killing two birds with the one stone.)

Since the very beginning, from the foundation of the world, when man stood upright onto his own two feet and begun to speak, God sent His instructions to man, not only in spoken form, but also in written form; therefore, it is not a new thing for us today.

A new thing for most people today is the correct and spiritual interpretation of God's four-dimensional word, which they find hard to understand, because it requires to be opened minded and diligence to learn and not by make believe.

The will of God is for man to learn that God does exist and to accept Him and ask to be taught by Him; and that God in Jesus Christ is the only way out of the valley of the shadow of death, out of the natural and inadvertent universe and outside time and space.

God makes a covenant signed and sealed to all those who accept Him, the pledge to obtain eternal life in His Kingdom.

God is God of knowledge and of wisdom, for this reason, He demands that His creation, also to be knowledgeable and wise and furthermore to become holy. The word holy up to now it seems that it hasn't been understood. Holiness is to depart from evil, a personal choice, a chosen way of life, and not going around smiling hypocritically and pretending to be holy.

Holiness is achieved when one defeats evil, the evil in one's flesh. People when they hear the word holy, immediately they connect it with religion, but being religious has nothing to do with holiness. Any man who conquers his soul and defeats his evil nature, his mortal flesh, becomes holy and not because one is labelled as religious.

God's word contains the instructions to follow and to obey in order to reach and to achieve that goal.

God has made an oath and a promise:

Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us.

This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil, where the forerunner “πρόδρομος-pioneer” Jesus, has entered for us, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek. Hebrews 6:17-20 (Original Hellenic text; Melchizedek=King of righteousness.)

The very purpose why, the Lord begins with the tree of knowledge of good and evil and of wisdom, that is why, good and evil, are the symmetry of reason; and it is by reason morality is born, while morality is the equilibrium which weighs up and separates right from wrong.

Only when we taste and experience evil, we begin to seek the good, condemning evil and give preference to the good.

Jesus, substantiates this realism and reveals that all things lead for the good. And for the clean all things are clean.

Based upon fact and experience, when people are in danger, threatened by a disaster, people forget their differences and unite in harmony, doing their best to help one another, some even disregard, endanger and sacrifice their life to save others, somehow evil no longer exists, but love and compassion.

Majority of people consider that it is man's brain that does all the thinking, but they are wrong, because it is the soul, the core, the heart, which controls the brain. The brain controls all the movements of the body, and it is the memory bank, while the heart is the hard drive, the cabinet where all the files are kept. Man, created the computer, the electronic brain, but without a soul, cannot think by itself, it feels neither sorrow nor joy.

Many people suffer brain damage, and although it restrains and limits their body movements, it does not stop their rational thinking.

The Lord, who knows man, always talks about the heart-soul, expressed as the spirit of the mind.

Sadness and joy are experienced within one's heart-soul and not within one's brains.

We talk to our brain, but our brain does not talk back. It is through the brain that we talk, we sense, we see, we hear and smell, therefore, the brain is the transmitter and the receiver of the soul.

Jesus confirms that all things, all thoughts are born within the heart and out of the heart they come and transmitted through the brain.

Man, is divided into three, body, soul and spirit, the natural body as the shell of the soul, while the soul and the spirit, refer to the spirit of the mind, and suspend between the two seeds of good and evil. The animal nature and the human nature; and only the human nature is capable to put on the divine nature.

Science has not yet worked out what we are made of.

Doctors call themselves Psychologists, but they cannot work out the depths of the soul, some even do not believe that man has a soul. Sadness and anxiety is of the soul. Deep sorrow, melancholy, are expressed, as a broken heart-soul and not as a broken brain.

Behold, God works all these things, twice, in fact, three times with a man, to bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of life. Job 33:29-30

My soul is greatly troubled; but You, O Lord; how long? Psalm 6:3

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. Psalm 19:7

He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Psalm 23:3

Keep my soul, and deliver me; let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You. Psalm 25:20

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come, and appear before God? Psalm 42:2

Most of the book of Psalms is devoted to the soul and not the brain; and it is the soul which receives enlightenment.

I, the Lord, search the heart, I test the mind...Jeremiah 17:10

God has left His word and has allowed man to carry on with his natural way of life, He did not interfere in man's affairs, through so many calamities, wars and slaughter, but waiting for man to come to the realization of what he is made of; and to see that evil breeds only evil.

Although man has suffered and experienced what evil can do, and after so many centuries of suffering, man is none the wiser, still carries on the same, two world wars in one century, millions were slaughtered and only because of one man's dysfunctional mind. Who himself was brainwashed by others, because of greed, power and racism, dragging behind him the whole world, turning them into killers.

This means that the majority of people are not capable to withstand evil, they cannot discern evil, although they know what evil is capable of, still, they become easily persuaded "brainwashed" to commit evil. Totally ignoring the good, which is in captivity, some of them they even behave like wild beasts, ready to shed blood. This is why the number of the beast is the number of man.

Evil shows no compassion and no mercy.

The only way to defeat evil is through knowledge and wisdom...Jesus' words: it is written Satan... revealing that victory over evil can be found within the word of God; words that are spirit and life.

God wants us to learn, to know good and evil, He wants us to taste the difference between the two.

This is substantiated by the written: Behold! Adam has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, after Adam ate from the tree of knowledge, which was a prophetic proclamation.

The above proclamation reveals that, only the one man in Adam, and who eats of the tree of knowledge, is the one who learns and understands good and evil.

It is clearly evident that every earthy man, from nature has the two seeds implanted in him, but to discern between the two, has to receive spiritual enlightenment, the reason why he has to eat of the tree of knowledge, like Adam. Bearing his image.

Evil is what sin is towards God, expressed as sinful nature; and Jesus as the forerunner, the pioneer, manifests in the likeness of the sinful flesh, but without sin, because He has no evil in Him. Jesus bears the human nature, which is caring and compassionate, willing to put His life down for others. It is the human, humble and obedient which is one's inward man, but he is only raised by the power of the law, confirming the written: when I am weak, I am strong. Denoting that when my flesh, when my outward man is weak, my "humane", inward man is strong. Illustrating the wrestle between the two seeds.

If one eats from the tree of knowledge one becomes knowledgeable, one receives spiritual enlightenment, the only way to defeat evil, the only way to defeat the sinful flesh, if you touch or eat of the tree you shall die, its knowledge which will kills your flesh.

It is written that: the perfect; that is, the perfect in knowledge and wisdom, they are in the habit, having their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Illustrating that one needs to conceive the spiritual seed (the true essence of the parable of the sower) in order for Jesus to be born in him, for the spiritual knowledge and wisdom to dwell in him, to receive, to conceive enlightenment. Thus, to fulfill the written: that God manifests in the flesh; the God of knowledge and of wisdom manifests in the man who truly seeks God's Kingdom and His righteousness. Establishing the fact that God in Jesus can be born in man spiritually.

And they shall all be taught by God.

The prophetic word: Let us make man in our image and likeness, referred to the earthy man who already existed, our predecessors who ascended through the natural evolution.

The prophetic declaration:

Let us make man in our image and likeness, firstly, illustrates that the creators are more than one and secondly, that it was prophetic.

The creation process begins only when the Gospel of Christ is rightly interpreted and understood, when one accepts the existence of God and agrees to conceive the spiritual seed by following Jesus' instructions... come to Me... I am the way... Lose your life for to find your life, for My sake...

It is essential to prove who are the creators, since God is one?

The Hebrew and the Hellenic writings confirm that God is one, naming Him, as Elohim the creator and the existent one, the Lord of hosts, the King of glory and as the Mono-Sophos, the "only wise" Theos.

Judaism believe that God is one, so does Christianity and also Islam. Then who are the creators, and since it is God who said: Let us make man?

It is more that evident that the creators are: Jesus, the one who is, and was the Alpha Adam; and Christ, the Omega Adam, and the one who is coming, the Lord from heaven.

As I have already mentioned, it is the one God who empties Himself, first in the face of Jesus and second, in the face of Christ.

I am the Lord, and there is no one else besides me... I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create evil, I the Lord, do all these things... Isaiah 45:7

Blessed is the man who does not get scandalized in Him...

The declaration: Let us make man in our image and likeness, can also be viewed from another angle, by referring to the primate. Let us make the primate into the man of God.

The truth is, we do bear the stigmas, the characteristics of the primate, which is the one part of our animal side through the natural evolution, but also, we bear the intelligent characteristics of our human side. This means that we are half primate and half human, expressed as the twain; and also, as the outward and inward man, observable when the division occurs.

Therefore, the aim and the will of God is to make the twain into one new man, by undressing the old man of the animal nature into a unique man, into a spiritual man for to gain access, able and worthy to enter the citizenship of the eternal Kingdom.

Wherefore, the creation process into a living soul and the adoption process, begin from the earthy man and only through spiritual knowledge and wisdom he can be conformed in the image of the firstborn of God and pointing to Jesus Christ, in His image and likeness, and not by make believe.

To reach and to achieve the goal set by God, finally to be transformed into a living Spirit, and in the image and likeness of God, which gives reason for our temporary and earthly existence and inside an environment which is subjected to vanity and to corruption. Contra to the Godly, eternal, and heavenly incorruptible environment of the spiritual Kingdom.

This reveals that we are not accidents, products of an inadvertent universe; and we were not created by chance and neither was the natural universe, but only by the knowledge and wisdom of God, the fact which He reveals through His word of truth, in the face and testimony of Jesus the Christ.

He who has knowledge (of the word) let him understand. Matthew 24:15

Never before, was the divine word rightly interpreted in order to be understood, not until now.

Today is explicitly revealed and for any man who wants to hear it and learn it.

To hear the inexpressible words of the Spirit, which are right now, expressible.

It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. John 6:63

Jesus reveals that all life was created by God who is the Living Spirit, the unquenchable light and the consuming fire.

Revealing that it was the spiritual which created the natural.

According to the Hellenic writings though:

However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual. The first man was of the earth, earthy; the second Man is the Lord from heaven. 1Cor. 15:46-47

The above quote refers to the spiritual creation, the adoption and transformation process from the natural to the Spiritual, because the natural is mortal and subjected to vanity and to corruption and needs to be created into a living soul in order to be transformed into a living and eternal Spirit.

After all, it was God who created the natural man in the first place, wherefore, the Spiritual comes first, and the natural after.

The natural has to be sown in dishonour for to be raised in glory, with reference to the death of the mortal flesh, the death of man's carnality, the death of his animal nature. No flesh and blood shall inherit the Spiritual Kingdom.

The whole objective of the divine word and the solo mission of Jesus Christ is to educate man, by revealing to him that he can defy nature, the laws of nature, defy death (death where is your sting) and only through Him, by being created into a living soul. In order to be dressed immortality and incorruptibility, and as an adopted son of the Living God and in the full measure and stature of Christ. A co-heir of Christ and an heir of God.

All flesh expires:

For, all flesh is like grass, and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls off, but the word of the Lord abides forever; and this is the word which was (and it is) preached to you. 1 Peter 1:24-25

The above quote compares and likens man's temporary life in the flesh, as a blade of grass and the glory of the flesh, He likens to the flower (mortal soul) of the grass.

All natural things and all natural life are temporary and subjected to corruption, hunted by mortality, while walking in the valley of the shadow of death. This, reveals that all the natural creatures are mortal and are stamped with expiry dates. Not only inside the boundaries of our galaxy, but also within the boundaries of the entire universe.

Even if we did manage to survive for another one hundred thousand years more, our existence without God, still, will be pointless, since we will always be hunted by mortality and corruption.

If I wait for the grave as my house, if I make my bed in the darkness.

If I say to corruption: you are my father and to the worm, you are my mother and my sister.

Will they go down to the gates of Hades? Shall we have rest together in the dust?

And where is now my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it? Job 17:13-15

God declares: Vanity of vanities, all is vanity, nothing new under the Sun, the voice of God which has been echoing right through the eons, in order to open the eyes of man and make him face the reality of his human condition and fate. Revealing that whatever man achieves in this temporary life, at the end of the day, all is vanity, if one does not invest for one's soul and for the riches in heaven, the riches which are prepared for him in the eternal Kingdom.

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither worm nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. Matthew 6:19-20

Eternal life is spiritual, and outside any natural sphere, outside time and space. Outside corruption and death.

For the creation was subjected to vanity, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

For we know that the whole creation groans and laments in agony until now.

Not only nature, but we also who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. Rom. 8:20-23

For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the manifestation, of the sons of God. Romans 8:19 (Original Hellenic text)

They who shall obey the divine message and accept God through Christ Jesus, they shall be given the authority to be called children "Sons" of God.

Please Note:

The reader must understand that coherent criticism concerning the corrupt state and frame of mind of our animal nature, it is neither malevolence nor condemnation towards any man. Clear understanding of our human condition and purpose for our existence, will open the door to healthy debate:

Through lack of spiritual discernment, disbelief and dismissal of the word of God, the conclusion of the modern man, is that he has no soul, man just closes his eyes and dies and that's it, dying is like going to sleep.

The expression "man has no soul" refers to the selfish man who has an uncompassionate stone heart, which illustrates the evil in the flesh.

This is why God accentuates the fact that the flesh profits nothing. Even, if one was to gain the whole world and conquered the entire Universe, and loses his soul, it profits nothing, since everything is temporary and man's glory is short lived.

Today, more than ever before, the majority give no value to their soul, which is ungodly and therefore antichrist.

Brainwashed by the certain few greedy individuals, who have been deceived by the deceitfulness of riches themselves; and whose desire is to turn their fellow humans into robots and who have no soul.

The relevance of the law:

For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. Romans 7:5

The above quote not only reveals the importance and purpose of the laws of God, but also establishes that every man must come under the power of the law "aroused by the law". Wherefore, the man who rejects the divine word and abolishes the laws of God, he shall never be aroused by the law, his animal nature shall never be exposed, he cannot crucify his mortal flesh.

The main objective of the laws of God through the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ is to "regenerate" man's mortal soul.

Regeneration of the soul, renewal of the mind, purification of heart, a complete change of character, a new way of thinking, a new and living way.

The reason why, one needs to bear the image of the two Adams, who simultaneously are still, voicing: Let us make man in our image and likeness. Let us make you in our image and likeness. Let us create you into a living soul and into a living spirit.

Jesus, the one who is, refers to the earthy man and Christ the one who is coming, refers to the spiritual man, and as the Lord from heaven. This illustrates that man must suspend between the two Adams. To follow first, the footsteps of the earthy and after to follow the footsteps of the heavenly. God gives the spiritual man a title, He makes him a Lord, as in God's image and likeness.

The man who shall bear the image of the first Adam, shall also be created into a living soul; and the same man shall also bear the image of the last Adam who is the Living Spirit.

Who did not consider it robbery to empty Himself while equal with God, robbery of His former glory as God, which means that it was God who emptied Himself in the face of Jesus and as the earthy Adam, in order to serve man.

These are the mysteries of the Kingdom of God and it is pointless saying that God works in mysterious ways, without understanding the mysteries of His word and works, His mysterious ways.

The carnal old man must pass away for the new spiritual man to manifest and to take the carnal man's place, to steal his birthright. The case scenario of Esau and Jacob.

Unless the serpent "the animal nature" is raised, the son of man cannot be raised.

Born above, born from water and born from the Spirit.

Let us make man in our image and likeness; was a floating and prophetic announcement spoken by the two Adams; which was directed to the man who already existed and lived on the planet. And they who shall bear the image of the earthy, they shall also bear the image of the heavenly. This is the reason why, Jesus portrays the earthy man, the Alpha Adam; and Christ portrays the heavenly man, the Omega Adam.

The mystery of God revealed: God can be at two places at the same time. He can be in many places, He is omnipotent He can be everywhere, in heaven and on earth, specifically within the one man in Adam. Let your will be done as in heaven so on earth. (Hellenic text)

If God was not omnipotent, He would have never created mankind. The Lord's prayer substantiates the very fact.

Jesus declares:

My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life that I may take it again.

No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This command I have received from My Father. John 10:17-18

Jesus' command prayer: Matthew 6:10: Father... let your will be done, as it was ordained in heaven, so on earth. This is to unite the two Adams into one.

Remark: Matthew 6:10 the Hellenic text says: Father let your will be done, as in heaven so on earth, pointing first to the heaven and then to the earth; and not as it has been translated in reverse order. Relevant to mention, because the will of God was decided first in heaven for to be fulfilled on earth, which still awaits fulfillment.

In order to understand the role of the two Adams, it is important to put a time lapse between the two Adams: Jesus portrays the earthy man Adam and after the death of the flesh He is risen as the Christ and who portrays the heavenly man Adam. Jesus, the Saviour, the one who is at the present in a man as a man "born in a man", the man who has conceived the spiritual seed and who descends from heaven. Jesus as the first Adam; and Christ as the Anointed Saviour, the one who is coming, the last Adam. The reason why it is written: until Christ is formed in you, until you become a spiritual being, denoting image and likeness.

Jesus is born in a man for Christ to be formed; until one is able to utter:

I no longer live but Christ lives in me.

Every true disciple suspends between the two Adams; the mystery of God from the foundation of the world.

The true disciple stands as the Ecclesia on earth and as the Ecclesia in heaven.

Jesus symbolically fulfils this, by suspending between two Josephs, the first one poor and the second one very rich, denoting that although one's beginnings are poor, sown in dishonour by the death of the flesh, one's endings will be rich, raised in glory.

Jesus, as the earthy man also suspends between two thieves, who portray the two seeds of good and evil.

Everything written that Jesus did, within the Biblical idiom, prophetically, He did it purposely for instruction, because He portrays the earthy man Himself; this is why, He is the way, the way from the third heaven and onto Bethlehem.

Angels ascending and descending on the son of man, denotes the elevation of the mind of the true disciple "the elect" on earth. Mind ascends and descends, receiving spiritual messages, spiritual knowledge, while on earth.

God took Adam "the earthy man" and placed him inside the Paradise Garden and the third heaven, designating the elevation of the mind.

Jesus on earth and Christ in heaven, both voicing at the same time.

Let us make the earthy man into a living soul and into a living spirit...

The Lord's commandment is to ask, to seek and to knock persistently, for the food that does not perish, promising that living waters shall flow from your bellies. The word of life, as living waters shall resurrect your mortal soul. When we cry, when we feel pain and anxiety, or joy and happiness, we don't feel them in our heads, we feel them in our inner conscience, in our soul.

Majority of the religious are always praying and asking for the food that perishes.

As our body needs natural food "fuel" to stay alive, just the same, our mortal soul needs the spiritual food to become alive, expressed as raising the dead, resurrection by regeneration, resurrection of the mortal soul. Loneliness is the expression of our soul when is empty, when is idle.

The Lord reveals that the spiritual food is unperishable, therefore, more essential "more rewarding" than all the natural food, which perishes and ends up in the cesspit.

Only by Spiritual discernment, one's mind becomes spiritually enlightened, elevated, therefore, one begins to see the things which he could not see before; the substance, the evidence of things hoped for. One, hopes only for the future, and for the things he cannot yet see.

No one hopes for the present things he sees. One only desires the things he sees.

Optimism, hope and faith are of the soul and mind; and they are invisible.

This is the declaration of the man with spiritual discernment after he conceives the spiritual seed:

For I know that in me that is in my flesh, nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. Romans 7:18

The above statement clearly refers to the two opposing seeds within one man, the two seeds of good and evil, of honour and dishonour, and as two laws, purposely designed for teaching, for reproof and for correction.

The two seeds which are in everyman from birth; and only when the spiritual seed is conceived, becomes the cause of division. Only then the recognition of characters begins to emerge as one's members, thus, causing the raising of the two seeds, which begin to wrestle each other.

As Moses raised the serpent in the wilderness so must the son of man be raised.

The above passage refers to the outward and inward man and reveals the necessity for both to be raised, but only when the spiritual seed is conceived.

Jesus illustrates the fact; saying that He does not come to set peace, but rather division.

However, the majority of people today invest for the future of their flesh. The future is always unknown, no one can foresee one's own future, and what the morrow might bring, therefore, the future is based only upon optimism, faith and hope.

All the things that we do in our mortal life, are based upon temporary optimism, temporary faith and hope. Only the living soul is enriched with living hope, living optimism and living faith, upon the everlasting things which at a time he could not see with the naked eye, but only with the eyes of his mind-soul-heart. Spiritual Faith opens the heavenly door, faith "trust" based upon the word of the creator and the life giver.

For instance: Travelling by air, land or Sea, one hopes that will reach one's destination safe and sound. One hopes to reach one's work place safe and sound, the same with the return journey home. One hopes to see his children grow and hopes for their best.

All things are based upon optimism, hope and faith, because the future is unknown, we go forward and not backward in time. And everything we do, we have to work hard at it, we have to earn it.

Most people profess that they are perfectionists or they wished they were perfectionists of the natural and temporary, but not many want to receive the perfect "excellent" knowledge of God and His word in order to become perfectionists in the Spirit of their mind.

The counterfeit advice of all the religious hierarchs is for man to confess his sins, mumble few words, as punishment and everything will be okay. No need for spiritual food, no need for spiritual enlightenment.

Breaking the bread "symbolically" is revealing the spiritual knowledge of the word; and not eating natural bread, which perishes.

On the other hand, certain scientists claim that they are at the brink of discovering the eternal nectar, the elixir "the Ambrosia" of the imaginary gods, aiming to slow down the ageing process, but one wonders, who shall be able to afford the price of this miraculous nectar, apart from the very rich?

This means that the poor will be abandoned and left to grow old much quicker and die, especially the very poor who cannot afford to buy even their own burial place. Slowing down ageing, it will not prolong life by much, just because one's face looks younger it will not stop the death process. People still, will be dying looking ever so young?

Certain people do not think what dire consequences prolonged life will bring, if it did happen, and no man can alter the laws of natural, but only the One who set the laws into motion in the first place. If the Lord wanted us to live longer, He would have given us a much bigger planet.

This proves beyond doubt that the fleshy seed, only cares and invests for his own belly.

The deeds of the flesh, of the stone heart will always be immoral and therefore, canny and evil. The flesh is full of vanities which is the trade mark of the mortal world, who will step even over corpses to achieve its own and to satisfy its ego. The world loves only its own, but also, at the same time hates its own. Weapons of mass destruction, religious and patriotic fanaticism prove the very point.

The religious invention of an eternal hell, is an ironic and sadistic brainwashing, made up by men who love to see their fellow humans to be tortured and suffer forever. Proving beyond doubt, how much evil is hidden within the animal nature. Other religious radicals want to kill their fellow humans, because they do not accept their dysfunctional doctrines.

Religious organizations not only they have license to kill, but also, they hand out license to kill, and no law can touch them.

Only the spiritual man, the living soul is gifted and enriched with refined characteristics, peaceful and compassionate; and stands as a bright light shining in darkness.

Two thirds of the population on our planet today are experiencing poverty; a far cry to the ears of the corrupt politicians who never fulfill their promises, they never do anything about this human tragedy. There is no hope for redemption or recompense. The future of all mankind looks very bleak and frightening.

The selfish gene has always been active. The strange thing is, no one speaks about the evil gene.

The truth cannot be hidden forever, that most of the religious despots up to now have built their vast wealth by oppression, based upon the toil, blood and sweat of human slavery. Historical records do not lie.

We live on planet earth, the place where we originated from, but scientists are looking somewhere else to find our footprints.

The evidence of the divine word is not enough which clearly reveals that it is God the intelligent and the wise one who brought into existence the things which did not exist before.

The scriptures allegorically describe the corrupt and confused system of this world as Babylon the harlot, governed by her intoxicated rich merchants and money changers, including her corrupt warlords, her religious hierarchs, her land barons and drug barons, her human traffickers, even her unethical and dishonest government leaders and all those corrupt minded individuals who fornicate with her.

The corrupt system began since man invented money which can be seen in action today more than ever before: practicing austerity for the poor and prosperity for the rich.

Through the Hellenic writings which have been around for over two thousand years now, God warns that the love of money “philargyria” is the root of all evil.

The rich merchants who run the financial markets and control governments, which has now become a game of ego and only for personal gain. These money merchants do not need a heavenly paradise; they have already created their own paradise heaven here on earth, called tax haven.

They do not need God and His spiritual environment and eternal life, instead, they prefer the corrupt, the temporary which only leads to oblivion.

God promises eternal life, as eternal spirits; and not as corrupt flesh which is stamped with an expiry date, therefore, it profits nothing.

Truly, truly, how ignorant is our society to allow such a corrupt system to evolve, only to suit the very few manipulators, they who sleep with their eyes open, always scheming how to manipulate others, practicing inequality and who are degrading the rest of the world to be of lower ranks?

The question now is this, while we have a little bit of time left: who will bring this corrupt system to face the sword of justice in order to uproot phylargyria that rules this carnal world?

The scripture warns about the god of this world, as the one who has blinded them all; but who is the god of this world?

Evidently, the first two culprits are avarice and envy, the deceitfulness of riches; by those who walk over corpses for the love of money, because it gives access to power.

Evidently, the god of this world is not just one single factor, but many factors put together.

Seeing, they may not see; and hearing, they may not understand.

Short sighted, hard of hearing and above all, too lazy to ask questions and do something about it, expressed as being lame.

Ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

I come to give sight to the blind, to open the ears of the deaf, to make the lame walk and to raise the dead:

Jesus' statement taken literally by the religious ignorant, pretending that they believe in miracles.

Many people today blame God, but God has left us His word, His divine gospel, as our guide.

Therefore, there is no need for Him to interfere in our natural every day routine life. It is the divine word which will stand as the witness and to judge everyman's good and bad deeds.

God's laws are Holy and Spiritual, and only apply and only concern the one man in Adam.

Counterfeit's Christianity motto: Jesus died for me and I have nothing to do. Then why, does He command everyone to bear his own cross and to become co-planted with Him?

No man can crucify his flesh, unless he touches and eats from the tree of knowledge and of wisdom, which means that the crucifixion of the flesh can only be achieved through knowledge and wisdom and not by physical nailing on a cross. Jesus does not ask anyone to commit suicide.

How can a man be crucified with Jesus today, since Jesus suffered the cross, over two thousand years ago, in order to become co-planted with Him? If taken the scriptures literally.

However, if God was to interfere in our natural everyday life, He would have left a set of direct commandments and they who do not abide in the them, be punished; but at the end of the day, there is no greater punishment than permanent death and oblivion; completely missing the opportunity to gain eternal life in the spiritual dimension.

We do not see murderers, rapists, child abusers, manipulators, religious radicals, terrorists, racists, con men, ruthless dictators; and all those who commit crimes to be punished by God.

God does not interfere:

The truth of the matter is this: God does not interfere in our affairs, evil men commit evil, and good men obligate good, and both seeds, (both genes of good and evil) as two forces, prove that they are within every man. The bad seed within the animal side of man and the good seed within his human side.

There are so many cunning loopholes in manmade laws, intentionally designed to favour the very rich, as also the criminal and the guilty and not the innocent. Criminals hire the best lawyer's money can buy, and although they are guilty, the manmade laws cannot touch them.

In all sincerity, I write all these, but in reality, they are already written in the scriptures to remind and to prove what is hidden behind the mask of the flesh, behind man's carnality, man's animal nature.

Two world wars in the twentieth century because of greed, racism and hatred and no lessons learnt; and all those who condemned the dictator today, today some of them wear his boots.

Love your neighbour as you love you own self, it is a far cry.

Most people already know that we were worms and evolved into primates; and isn't about time that the majority of people got rid of the primate, took the mask off and faced the reality of our temporary existence? If God exists or not, only they who truly seek Him, are the ones who experience His presence and truly know His existence, fact and not fiction.

Only the truth shall free all mankind, providing that they are willing to hear and learn the truth, which is described in the Gospel of Christ.

The Spiritual interpretation of the scriptures it is God inspired, God given revelation, and it is a fact and not fiction.

God's promises:

And they shall all be taught by God, and you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free. Refers to all those who truly seek Him.

Born above, born from water and born from the spirit:

Denotes the three stages of the spiritual creation, adoption and regeneration into a living soul and the transformation into a living spirit.

Born above: denotes the elevation and opening of the mind to all spiritual knowledge, expressed as the renewal of the mind.

Born from water: denotes the baptism into death, the death of the flesh by the judgements of the laws of God, for the purification of the heart, expressed as the washing and the cleansing.

Born of the Spirit, denotes the death of the old man and the birth of the new man, the new creation in God's image and likeness, worthy to put on Christ, worthy to put on the spiritual body, the immortal and incorruptible body, one's riches in heaven, the riches in Christ.

They who are born above, born from water and spirit, become sons "children" of God through the creation and adoption process.

Fulfilling the written:

For you were bought at a price, "by honour", therefore, glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's. 1Cor. 6:20

You were bought at a price; "by honour", do not become slaves of men. 1Cor. 7:23

Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul. 1Peter 2:11

They who accept to be adopted by God; and be named sons of God, become strangers and pilgrims “migrants” on this earth, because the world considers them to be peculiar.

For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland.

And truly, if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. Heb. 11:14-15

They who are bought by Godly honour, are freed from the sentence, the sting of death, and they do not look back, they had already cleansed their house, they left nothing behind, they have no excuse to return, figuratively speaking of course.

The true “new” homeland of the sons of God, is the New Jerusalem, the city from above, the promised spiritual body to be dressed with.

Jesus emphatically stresses: anyone who does not bear his cross, cannot be my disciple.

Now the questions: Does Jesus want us to carry physically a wooden cross?

The answer:

Obviously not. Since the death of the flesh has nothing to do with the demise of our natural body.

Such a command cannot be carried out physically, since such a violent act cannot be accepted or be executed by any man of sound mind; because it will be suicide, but refers to the undressing of our old man, the flesh. Therefore, it requires Spiritual interpretation. It is on the disciple’s own cross where Jesus is crucified. Jesus is crucified together co-planted with the fleshy side of the disciple, which is expressed as undressing the old man.

This aspect, is revealed and only within the Hellenic writings.

For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. For he who has died has been freed from sin. Romans 6:5-7

The above statements were made by a man who was alive, which clearly reveals that the death of the flesh “the death of the old man”, happens while man is still alive and breathing and not after he descends into the grave.

This paramount issue has to be clarified, that death of the flesh does not apply to one’s natural body. One’s fleshy man is one’s animal nature, who from nature carries the evil seed.

Furthermore:

For I, through the law died to the law that I might live to God.

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. Gal 2:19-20

Paul, as the true and living disciple and Apostle reveals that God is personal, just as personal is the crucifixion, testifying that the son of God gave His life explicitly for him. The crucifixion therefore, is personal, co-planted with Jesus on the same cross, which refers to the two branches of the tree of knowledge and of wisdom, for Christ to be formed. Christ is the one risen from the dead.

Who shall descend to bring Christ up from the dead or who shall ascend to bring Christ down from above? From the living. Yet again, is pointing to the two Adams.

I am the living one who became dead and now I live forevermore. I am the Alpha and the Omega.

Christ as the living one, as God who empties Himself and takes on the form of man and enters the House of clay, as Jesus “the Saviour”, and walks in the valley of the shadow of death; and offers Himself as a living sacrifice, He puts His life down with every true disciple, He tastes death with every disciple and every disciple tastes death with Him and also tastes His resurrection, by becoming a living soul. Jesus puts His life down and rises as the Christ, the Saviour Anointed. This is why Paul title’s Him, as Christ Jesus.

The symbolic reason and purpose why Jesus is crucified on a hill called Golgotha, which literally means Skull, and refers to man’s head. Designating death of the flesh by the renewal of the mind and not natural death by physical crucifixion.

However, Jesus was condemned by the scribes and the Pharisees and was sentenced to be crucified by the Romans, which is somewhat justifiable, but what about all His followers, the whole of Christianity? No one condemns or persecutes them, but on the contrary they are the ones who in the past persecuted others, condemned and sentenced them to death.

We do not see Christianity counterfeit or not to be crucified, since Jesus commandment to all His followers was, to bear, to carry their own cross, and become partakers not only of His sufferings, but also of His death, in order to become also partakers of His resurrection.

The commandment which puts the cat among the pigeons, or perhaps the other way around.

Make believe crucifixion is nothing more than a fantasy. Dipped in water, does one taste the death of Jesus? Not really! One just gets soaked externally.

What everyone has to understand is that, the crucifixion of the flesh, does not happen in an instant of time, but gradually, in order to get rid of one's animal stubborn nature. It takes a long time and only through spiritual knowledge and understanding. Until one passes through the three tabernacles (reaches the three tavern-as) of assembly and of testimony, expressed as "the tabernacle of witness" and pointing to the teaching of Moses, the Prophets and of Jesus Christ, ingathering as a witness the testimony of Jesus.

Come to me... because the scriptures are they which testify of me...

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. Rom. 8:16

The Spirit of God bears witness with our spirit... they who have willingly accepted the high calling and were born above and had endured the creation and adoption process, through scourging and chastisement, only to them, is given the authority to be called children of God.

The testimony of the man under the chastisements of God:

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Romans 7:23

Paul's advice is Jesus' commandment, while Paul uses his own self as the example to teach us, to be mimickers of Paul, but much more than that, to be mimickers of Jesus.

The knowledge of the laws of God, sharper than a two-edged sword divides the two seeds of good and evil within the true disciple and only when he conceives the spiritual seed. This also reveals that the law has two sides. Expressed as the written law, the law of ordinances and as the oral law, the prophetic word, the law of faith in Christ.

Yet again it has to be repeated that Jesus, the spiritual seed of God does not come to establish peace, but on the contrary, He comes to divide the two opposing seeds which are implanted in every man, from nature, from birth. Man, from nature is a child of wrath, by saying from nature, points to the animal side of man, which must suffer the wrath of God, through scourging and chastisement.

It is ever so hard for the natural man to let go of his old beliefs and set traditions; hard to deny himself, hard to undress his old natural man.

The Lord clearly testifies: that the door is narrow and the way much sorrowful that leads onto eternal life; and for this reason, few are they who find it; and more the religious corruption and atheism increases, fewer still, are they who shall find it and perhaps not.

The Lord as always gives us food for thought.

Most people refuse to accept the reality of our human condition and that we live in corruption and our days are numbered, which makes our natural existence to be completely pointless, no matter how long the human race lives and continues to exist. Death will always be present.

Our existence therefore, is pointless without God, because from the day that we are born we are hunted by mortality until our last breath.

Even our technology combined with our animal nature, it has become and it will become another one of our nemesis.

The oxygen that we breathe as soon as we leave our mother's womb to give us life, it is that same oxygen which at the end kills us, which is contrary to the Spirit of God, because the Spirit's aim is to kills us first (kill our mortal flesh) and then gives us life.

To be conformed in the image of Jesus "the firstborn" it means that we have to put our life down in order bring it up again. Lose one's life for to gain one's life. Sown in dishonour for to be raised in glory.

Those who say that they believe in God; whether religious or not, at some time in their life, voluntarily they have to do the sacrifice, by offering time and effort to learn, in order to be taught by God and for the salvation of their soul.

This is why the Lord's commandment is: give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and give to God, what belongs to God.

A good majority of people are under the impression that in order to read the scriptures and seek God, one has to be a labelled a religious person, a church pew potato, but God is personal, whether one carries a religious label or not.

The reason, God begins with the tree of knowledge having two branches, bearing two seeds, one good and the other evil, it is because the two opposing seeds are in every man from nature, which today, manifest more than ever before, disturbing and dividing the whole world, as a seismic tremor.

It is God who commands the light to shine in our hearts, it is God who gives enlightenment about the two forces of good and evil; and it is the discernment of these two opposing forces which give birth to reason.

It is these two forces which divide opinions, whether to choose the one or reject the other.

No man can serve two masters; and at the same time.

Wherefore, good and evil become a two-edged sword, sharp enough to divide the light from darkness and the right from the wrong.

It is by reason and partiality, by optimism, faith and hope we move forward and create our life.

The very purpose of the laws of God "made up of positive and negative precepts", are to expose man's animal nature, man's inner thoughts, to reproof man's inner conscience, as the accuser and as the defender, which point to the battle between the two seeds which every man inherits from nature.

God's commandment is to do good to all men; adding: And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. Luke 6:31

Scientists are trying to discover the moral molecule within someone else's brain; ignoring that the moral molecule is in man's heart-soul and not in his brain, and those who do not use it their moral molecule must be dead.

Jesus thousands of years ago, gave the answer:

And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye? Luke 6:41 (the eye is the window of the soul)

In other words, in order to discover the moral molecule, the moral gene, one has to look deep into one's own self first, reproof one's own inner conscience. The so-called moral molecule is invisible, is of the soul, is psychological, is spiritual.

The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is "sincere-pure" good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body also is full of darkness. Luke 11:34 So, shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; If you have found it, there is a prospect, and your hope will not be cut off. Pro 24:14

For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12

The Lord always speaks and refers to the soul-heart rather than to the brain.

The Hellenic word for marrow is "Myelon-Μυελον, which is the same fat substance that the brain is made of. The Hellenic word for brains is also Myela in plural; and Myelon in singular.

Wherefore, the Spirit of the mind, refers to man's intelligence and not to man's brain.

Man's brain acts as the receiver and transmitter of the heart-soul. The eyes are the windows of man's soul. The eye and the brain, can be deceived easily, which has been proven by so many illusionists. The scriptures testify that, although people see they cannot see and hearing they cannot understand. Most people say that seeing is believing, but it is not true, since the eyes can be deceived, which means that to believe, one has to understand and very clearly with the eyes of his mind-soul.

For instance: if we knew exactly how the illusionist performed his trick, we will not be fooled.

The same applies with the literal of the divine word, although we read the word and also speak it, whether in silence or aloud, but because we do not understand its prophetic and spiritual connotation, we are deceived.

The scripture expresses the understanding of the word, as the renewal of the mind. It does not say the renewal of the brain, but renewal of the mind, which is of the soul-heart.

The Lord's advice: do not live by sight, but by faith, the substance, the evidence of things not seen, that is, within the word, but the things hoped for, the spiritual things within the word, which for a time are invisible to be recognized, not until we obtain perfect understanding. Wherefore, believing "trusting" is achieved through perfect understanding.

The word reveals:

For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Mat 15:19

(It does not say that all evil thoughts proceed out of the brain, they are only expressed by the brain).

This is a principal issue which scientists should investigate and perhaps they will discover what is our mortal flesh, what is in our animal nature, which has deceived all up to now. But above all, is to discover that man, has a soul, and the solo aim of the divine word is to create man's mortal soul into a living soul, by the renewal of the mind, in order to save man's soul from permanent death. Yet again, it does not say, salvation of the brain, which in reality is controlled by the soul.

However: although Luke 6:41 refers to the enmity between the twain; the Lord, as always kills two birds with the one stone. Everyman has to look inside his own self for to discover his morality, because morality is the essential law which must be put into use.

All things were made by Him and without Him, nothing was made that was made, with the aim to educate man, the crown of His natural creation.

Therefore, God did not abandon man, but chose to offer him the gift of eternal life "the crown of glory", in all obedience according to His laws by the testimony of Jesus Christ in order to become worthy of God's priceless offering.

Not by make believe, but by reason and knowledge; given to man as a solid promise and in writing, confirmed by His word of truth.

Good and evil, right and wrong, positive and negative are the symmetry of reason and every man suspends between these two principles, between these two laws; expressed as two seeds and as two branches of knowledge.

Every positive thought has its rival, which is the negative thought; and every negative thought has its rival, which is the positive thought.

When the Psalmist is crying to God to deliver him from his enemies, his enemies referred to his evil thoughts and not against people.

It is written that God has put enmity between the two seeds, until reconciliation; until perfect understanding. This is why the law becomes the schoolmaster and that through its positive and negative precepts one learns obedience and self-control.

Man's mortal soul has to go through the divine regeneration process, a rebirth of the mortal soul into a living soul, leading to a total transformation according the adoption promise in order to undress the old man and to put on the new man, according to Christ and in the image and likeness of God.

The only way out of the valley of the shadow of death, and the valley of the dead bones.

It is beyond the human imagination what lies beyond the natural universe, but for all those who have partly tasted the heavenly touch, they can see the spiritual kingdom "the Promised Land" as from afar, seeing the invisible things, expressed as: looking in a mirror enigmatically, having the assurance of the word by the God given faith and living hope.

The Gospel of Christ:

And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. Mark 13:10

Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth, to every nation, tribe, tongue and people. Rev. 14:6

And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come. Matthew 24:14

The question is: has the everlasting Gospel been preached yet?

The answer: is no.

The truth is: Two thousand years of religious Christianity; and the spiritual magnitude of the Gospel of Christ hasn't even been understood, let alone preached.

Over the years, billions of books of the Bible have been sold and read worldwide. It is only common sense that no one needs someone else to recite the Book to him, one can recite it by one's own self, unless that someone, is incapable to interpret its spiritual magnitude, then he asks for help and that help is now at hand.

The Gospel of Christ includes both, the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings:

Within the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings, God conceals His divine and prophetic instructions in an allegorical language, made up of many earthly stories, strictly concerning the spiritual creation of the one man in Adam into a living soul and when of spiritual age and maturity will be transformed into a living spirit.

God has given to man this hard task, knowing that man will never figure it out, this is why prophetically He put it in writing: And they shall all be taught by God. By this, God proves His existence.

For the first time, the spiritual magnitude of the Gospel of Christ is now being preached to all nations, and it will stand as the true witness, so that no man will say, I did not hear it. The "Logos" will be everyone's personal judge.

Man, without a doubt is the crown of God's natural creation and the intelligent one. Therefore, he is the only one who can receive and absorb the instructions of the Gospel and the only one who can bear God's image and likeness, achieved through spiritual enlightenment.

Given inspirationally and received inspirationally by the elevation, the stretching and opening of the mind into all the heavenly understanding of God's word and will.

The Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, conceals the mysteries and the kept secrets of the Kingdom of God, and its main concern is the salvation of man's soul, and was prearranged and preordained from the foundation of the cosmos.

The man who receives and understands the Excellent knowledge of Christ, stores for himself riches in heaven, the riches in Christ, his precious investment is safe with God.

The tragedy is that the religious hierarchy has given the impression that God is a tyrant, do not take, do not touch and do not taste. Everything is bad and nothing is good for us, while God says the opposite.

He so loved the world that He emptied Himself taking the form of a man in order to serve man by grace and truth made possible by Jesus the Christ.

Grace neither accuses nor condemns, but opens the door to freedom, while the truth lays the foundations of honesty and realism.

Grace and truth are made possible by Christ and the faith in Christ is the substance, the evidence of things not seen, but hoped for, according to His grace and His truth. Spiritual things can be seen only spiritually inspirationally by the eyes of the mind, witnessed and accepted by the inner conscience, (Synaesthesia-synesthesia) by the inward man, who instinctively knows and understands the very purpose of the laws and works of God.

God from above inspires and works with the mind, which is one way to describe how He does it.

I delight in the laws of God with my inward man.

While my outward man wrestles, opposes the laws of God, the necessity for scourging and chastisement, expressed as the things of the Spirit of God, but on the contrary, my inward man accepts them and delights in them.

This is the peculiar way, how God operates, which sets a division between the two opposing seeds, the two opposing "forces" within man and why the Lord nominates one man, as the twain, because he carries the two opposing seeds, which only manifest when the spiritual seed is conceived, is accepted.

It is evident that up to now the role of the Biblical twain has not been understood; and why God demands the sacrifice of the firstborn.

Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. James 4:8

The above quote applies to every man, expressed as double minded; referring to the two seeds, and that man serves two masters. The man, who from birth has been baptized "brainwashed" by all the lies, deceptions and vanities of the corrupt and confused system of this world, expressed as Babylon the harlot.

For one to learn from God, one must draw near to God, one has to accept God's invitation, expressed as the high calling, which is personal, because God is a personal to each and every individual who seeks His Kingdom and His righteousness. God is Spirit and only in Spirit and in truth can be approached, accepted and be worshipped.

God, promises that if we approach Him, He will do the same and approach us.

Jesus calls Himself the son of man:

The question is: why does Jesus call Himself the son of man?

Firstly, He refers to that very same seed from Adam, descending all the way to Bethlehem and secondly; to prove that He is that very same seed, which when conceived is born in man, therefore, He becomes the son of man, since that man had accepted to bear the image of Adam.

Once the spiritual seed is conceived, the seed of the promise (the seed of the sower) accepted and "believed", enters the heart and mind and begins to grow roots. Then and only then the division process begins. Division through spiritual knowledge, born above.

This correlates the written: When I was an infant, I behaved like an infant, but when I grew up into a man, I behaved like a man.

It is the law through the Gospel, the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ which exposes the carnal old man, expressed as the man of lawlessness.

Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division. Luke 12:51

If we take the above declaration literally, it makes Jesus to be a trouble maker and that He came to create confusion and to cause conflict, but the conflict which Jesus causes is spiritual within the synaesthesia, inner conscience of man and not causing a physical conflict against others.

On this basis, Jesus is named as the rock of scandal and the stumbling block; and blessed is the man who shall not be scandalized in Him.

Jesus: the rock and the chief cornerstone.

A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense. They stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which they also were appointed. 1Peter 2:8

The above quote clearly reveals the rejection and disobedience towards the word of God, and the misunderstanding concerning the very purpose of man's existence.

Only when the division process begins the serpent is raised, the animal nature is raised, irrational and full of apathy, stealthy and crafty, ready to strike and to kill, full of venomous talk. Wherefore, only by the laws of God can be disciplined to reform man's feral nature.

By the raising of the animal nature, the evil seed, also, the son of man "the inward man, is raised, the good seed. Then the wrestle begins, and it is the good seed which begins to teach his brother, his outward man. Behold! Adam has become as one of us knowing good and evil, said after Adam ate from the tree of knowledge.

Therefore, the inward man forgives his outward brother, until the purification of the heart and the renewal of the mind; until the enmity is put to death through reconciliation "by the grace" made possible by Jesus then the two "the twain" become one man into one body as a new creation and in His image and likeness.

And that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. Eph. 2:16

The enmity which is the evil seed “the sinful nature” within every man that keeps the good “the spiritual seed” in captivity. No man can serve two masters...

Salvation is achieved only through the cross, confirmed by Jesus; he who does not bear his cross cannot be my disciple, cannot become co-planted with Jesus, neither in His death nor in his resurrection. Jesus is crucified with the disciple and the disciple is crucified with Jesus, this means that Jesus is crucified with each and every true disciple. This is why Jesus has to become one’s personal teacher, commanding not to call anyone else teacher.

The Hellenic writings clearly reveal the two seeds within one man:

For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will, not to do, that I practice. Rom. 7:18-19

Esau and Jacob, the continuation of Cain and Abel, of Ishmael and Isaac. Esau and Jacob, as the two opposing seeds were warring against one another, while in their mother’s womb. Denoting the enmity between the flesh and the spirit.

Majority of people take the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings as the historical records of actual events, totally ignoring that the word of God is allegorical, prophetic and spiritual and only spiritually can be discerned.

Passages from the original Quran:

God, there is no God but He, the living, the eternal. He sent down to you the book with the truth, confirming what came before it; and He sent down the Torah and the Gospel.

It is He who revealed to you the book...but no one knows its interpretation except God and those firmly rooted in Knowledge, say: We believe in it; all is from our Lord. But no one recollects except those with understanding.

Allah, has begotten a son be He glorified. Rather, He is everything in the heavens and the earth, all are obedient to Him.

The above passages of the Quran clearly reveal that they are the words spoken by a man who believed in God and was learning passages of the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings and he refers to Moses, the law “Torah” and the Prophetic word; the book sent from above; and above all, the begotten Son refers to Jesus Christ.

Passages which coincide precisely with the Hellenic writings, which testify that Jesus is the only name given, the name which is above every other name in heaven and on earth and that only through Him salvation of the soul becomes possible. This also, fulfils the written, that they shall all be taught by God, meaning that only God is the only one who can open the mind of man, in order to understand the spiritual magnitude of the book sent down from heaven.

Revealing that no one knows the interpretation of the book, except God, referring to the book of the Bible, which is, the Gospel of Christ and good news sent from heaven, therefore spiritual.

This also reveals that all scripture is prophetic and written by the hand of God and not by the hand of man. Man, only copied the scripture. Up to this day, it is still debatable, exactly when, the Gospels were written.

Where Jesus says that Moses wrote about me, Jesus refers to the law. Testifying that, in the tome of the Book it is written about me; and the scriptures are they which testify of me.

Jesus also testifies:

I and the Father are one.

And only the man who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me; and no man comes to the Father except through me.

Jesus is Lord to the glory of the Father. He who holds the keys of Hades and of death, and also the one who holds the keys of life.

Now the question is this:

How is it possible for Islam to miss out and to reject these passages of the book sent down from heaven and copied by the Quran? While themselves profess that they live according to the Quran; and truly believe, what the Quran says. The question is: do they understand what the Quran says?

This means that the Quran, has to be correlated with the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings, since the Quran is made up of a good number of the literal fragments of the Old and New Testaments.

Wherefore, only when the spiritual concepts of the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings are being rightly interpreted, the Quran also, will be understood.

For instance: men such as: Ibn Rushd, known as Averroes, a twelfth century Islamic philosopher, said that an allegorical meaning of the scriptures, is required, referring to a higher interpretation of the divine word which also includes the Quran.

Islam should take into consideration the fact that, the descendant of Abraham “the Seed of the Promise”, was pointing to Jesus Christ and no one else. The name which is above every other name in heaven and on earth and all should be obedient to Him. The fact which is confirmed by the messenger Mohammed, taken from the Hellenic writings.

God is gracious and only because grace and truth are made possible by Jesus Christ to lead man to righteousness. This is why, it is written that man shall not live by bread alone; meaning that man cannot be justified by the law of ordinances, but by the law of faith in Christ. The word that proceeded from the mouth of God.

In the Quran, it is also written that God revealed to Adam all the secrets of heaven and earth. Jesus is the one who portrays Adam. Jesus in the likeness of Adam. God who emptied Himself from His former glory and took the form of man, to serve and to educate man.

God in Jesus Christ, God in Spirit; and God the Father, and God is one.
God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit; and God is one.

Many people ask what is the truth? The truth is: Jesus Christ, the only way unto eternal life; and the only gate of the sheep.

Male and female:

Male and female were created to serve God's purposes according to His will. Male and female as one unit, and as a unique person, as one flesh and one soul into one body.

The earthy outward man as “the flesh” and as the female; and the heavenly inward man, as the “living soul, and the spirit of the mind”. First the earthly and after the heavenly.

From within the male the female is formed, but only in the spiritual creation, this is why in the Lord there is neither male nor female, but one man in Christ, until both, through knowledge and wisdom unite as one new man.

Male and female created He them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created. Genesis 5:2

God prophetically reveals the completion of the creation, uniting the two Adams as one, the very reason why one must bear the image of both Adams; and who portray the earthy and the heavenly man, as the example to be followed by man, he who has ears and wants to hear, let him hear.

Since the above quote was prophetic, designates that only after the spiritual creation, the two are named Adam, since in the Lord there is neither male nor female, but the spiritual man, the living soul, as a bride dressed with her Spiritual body. Eve, she is the living soul, she is the Ecclesia.

The tree of knowledge of good and evil and the tree of life are next to each other, this means that the beginning and the end are fulfilled within the Paradise Garden and the third heaven. This is why, one's mind must be elevated “snatched” onto the Paradise Garden and the third heaven, in order to see, to hear, to absorb and to experience both, the beginning and the end.

This reveals that spiritual things become possible to be achieved through spiritual knowledge and wisdom. God is God of knowledge and of wisdom and only through knowledge and wisdom His word can be worked out in order to be understood.

The question is:

What else a man can do physically? Apart from learning and meditating on that, which he is given to him in writing. This means that the only way for man to change his views, his character, his behaviours and come to understand the purpose of his existence, is only through knowledge and wisdom.

Taught by God...

Observation:

If our torso was the evil flesh, the same will apply and to all the rest of the species, especially to all the mammals; but we do not see animals committing evil, they only kill for survival. Man, is the only species that kills with intention and out of spite.

Many people might say, then it is God's fault because He created us in this way, but God's commandment is very clear; you shall not kill. Many people blame God for everything, instead of blaming their own evil mortal flesh.

The only way to reach a rational deduction is with an open mind, questioning, discerning and learning the depths and essence of all things, which will give us the elevation, able to stand on the podium of logic and sanity, to guide us onto the right pathway of all understanding.

God in the beginning created us as animals destined to die, but God knowing and understanding our human condition and since we are the crown of His natural creation, He did not abandon us. Confirmed by the written that God so loved the world... which He fulfills by offering Himself in the face of Jesus to take us one step further and on a higher level, which is spiritual and eternal.

The reason He gave us His word of life. God did not make it compulsory, as a tyrant holding a whip, but with a trembling voice full of sorrow and compassion He cried out; he who has ears and wants to hear, let him hear.

And since we have tasted the bitterness "bitter cup" of the natural life; God now, wants us to taste the sweetness "the matured wine" of the spiritual life, offering us the gift of His eternal self; and it is up to each individual whether he wants to accept it or not. God never imposes Himself on any one.

Man, should do the same and never force any man to believe the doctrines of any religion and ideology, it should be up to one's free will and personal choice.

However, according to man's theory of evolution, no evidence and no explanation is given up to now, whether, it was the male or the female which evolved first. Whether it was the chicken or the egg? According to various theories, all mankind ascended through the African woman called Lucy, but who was the husband of Lucy? The Australopithecus Lucius? Whose skeleton was never found. I say ascended, referring to increase.

The diversity of the different races clearly illustrates that there were several and various species of primates that evolved and in different parts of the planet, which is yet to be discovered. The question is: who decided to separate mankind into different races and into nations?

According to scientific concepts black people turned white, due to the lack of vitamin D, but it is only a theoretical concept and not a fact, this means that certain scientists are scraping the barrel.

Nothing happens without set laws, without a law giver and without the evolutionist. God filled the entire planet with life and each and every species where they belonged and for the sustenance of the ecological system.

For instance: Lions and tigers two of the most ferocious beasts and most admirable, never lived on the same continent, but thousands of miles apart, the point being made is this; who decided, who goes where and why?

Scientists claim that the DNA are the building blocks of all life; and then they go and spoil it with imaginary statements, not wanting to admit that the DNA are the set laws of God, the structure for the human Geno and for all the species. The inadvertent universe cannot create DNA.

For instance:

Comparing the Chinese nation to the Indian nation, the Chinese are of yellow skin pigment and the Indians of brown skin pigment, two nations that live next door to each other.

Did the Indians gain brown skin because they had more sunshine than the Chinese? Or did the Chinese gain yellow skin, because they saw the sun before the Indians?

It is written that the natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, because he considers them to be foolishness. But who is fooling who?

Millions of books have been written, mostly theoretical about evolution, about God, about religion, about sorcery and so forth, apart from the few genuine scientific books proven to be factual, the rest of them, they are neither exact nor factual, therefore, not accurate.

The scriptures give good account concerning non-factual books:

And many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all... Acts 19:19

It is about time that most of the nonfactual theoretical books written over the years, especially all the nonfactual books concerning the spiritual concept and understanding of the scriptures, which in reality most of them are nothing more than fairy tales. It will be good to do the same, and throw them all into the fire, which are the books that have deviated and caused the division of beliefs in the whole world.

The word magic refers to trickery and not actually producing nonexistent things out of thin air. The deceptions and delusions in the world, concocted over the years by the dysfunctional minded are inconceivable.

The word of God stands and will stand, as a two-edged sword and for years to come.

The word of God as a two-edged sword divides and sets aside the truth from the lies, fact from fiction. When the spiritual knowledge of the word of God, is accepted and conceived and enters the heart and mind of man, creates a disturbance, creates a division by manifesting the two opposing seeds. Then man becomes aware of his two opposite sides, as another law in his members.

Man's inner conscience and subconscious mind become aroused.

But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. Therefore, He says: Awake, you who sleep, arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light. Eph. 5:13-14 (Light refers to knowledge).

The above quote does not refer to a dead and buried person, but to the man who is alive, but dead to the spiritual knowledge "light" of God. This is why intentionally He says; Awake you who sleep, denoting the unawareness of man towards the things of God.

For this reason, Jesus intentionally says; let the dead bury their own dead, illustrating that man without God, not only he is completely unaware of his human condition, but also dead towards the spiritual knowledge of the word of life.

It is inconceivable to believe that Jesus is talking to the dead and buried.

According to the written; one has to learn the depths of Satan.

The questions are:

How does one learn the depths of Satan? Must one meet the Devil in person and have a chat with him in order to learn his depths?

Obviously not!

Taking the scriptures literally and believe that Satan exists in the natural; and if he did exist and was to appear to a man as a person, it will be to his disadvantage, because he will expose the existence of God. Therefore, that man will turn to God instead. What comes against the doctrine of Christ concerning the salvation of his soul, is nominated, as the antichrist and as the devil?

It is within one's inner conscience and subconscious mind the battle "the struggle" begins and stands as the holy war, once the spiritual seed has been conceived.

But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile a man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. These are the things which defile a man...Matthew 15:18-20

The heart refers to the mortal flesh, the mortal soul, this is why it is a necessity for the mortal soul to be created into a living soul, as a new birth, expressed as the renewal of the mind and purification of the heart. and it does not refer to the natural heart organ which pumps and circulates blood through one's arteries.

Yet again, the question is this: does the devil live in every man's heart?

Definitely not!

But the evil-carnal seed does; and keeps the good seed in captivity, which is the very purpose for the laws of God to be accepted.

For what I am doing, I do not understand. For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. Romans 7:15-17

The above quote clearly reveals what sin is towards God. It is the evil-carnal seed within man, which becomes convicted and expresses the guilt of death; and Paul, as “the small seed” and as the teacher reveals the irrational behaviour of the natural man. Using himself as the example of the irrational man, by referring to his sinful flesh.

Jesus makes it clear, that man cannot serve two masters, revealing he two seeds within man.

What is a must, which every reader, every Christian and every true believer have to understand; is that the scriptures only apply and concern the man who is already under the laws of God.

The man who accepts the sentence of death “to lose one’s life for to find one’s life” and seeks the salvation of his mortal soul knowing that it will only be achieved by the death of his flesh. Therefore, the only one who is given to understand the spiritual magnitude of God’s word and not everyone who recites the book in a parrot fashion way; and says Lord, Lord.

Or do you not know, brothers, for I speak to those who know the law, that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? Romans 7:1

It becomes very clear that it is the law which is the accuser, it is the law which raises the evil seed within man, which he inherits from nature.

This is why Jesus Christ is nominated “the advocate, the redeemer” the one who frees the one man under the law, through His grace and truth. He reconciles the two “the twain” thereby putting to death the enmity.

Therefore, Jesus fulfills the purpose of the law, He is the end of the law. And where there is no law, there is no law breaker and no sin.

Jesus fulfills the law and the Prophets; adding that, not one iota of the law and the Prophets shall pass away...

The evil seed, the so-called devil cannot touch the inward man. He can touch the mortal flesh, because the evil is of the flesh, but he cannot touch man’s life, meaning that he cannot kill a man physically, which is the promise of God, but, to eliminate the evil seed.

After the disciple suffers temptation, God intervenes, temptation shall not exceed one’s competence, one’s strength.

Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. James 1:12

The law is symbolically presented as the husband of a woman, that is, the husband of the flesh, which convicts and at the same time, teaches the flesh, as a schoolmaster.

We are guarded by the law until faith comes.

Paul in order to illustrate the purpose of the law; and that the law forces the carnal man and puts him under subjection, he makes up a symbolic story using, as an example, a man and a woman and as a married couple.

First, he refers to the man that he is under the dominion of the law; and second, he refers to the woman that she cannot marry another not until her husband has passed away; man, and a woman in depth, portray one man.

Wherefore, after one has been delivered from the power of the law by the renewal of the mind and the purification of the heart, through the instructions and testimony of Jesus, the redeemer, only then one is free to marry another, referring to the marriage of the Ecclesia with Christ.

In the natural, according to moral laws, if a man marries two women is called a bigamist and it is illegal to do so.

The biblical woman-female, portrays a dual role, first as the mortal flesh of man and second as his God given wisdom, man’s living soul. This is why Eve the woman, is created from within Adam, bone from his bones and flesh from his flesh, Eve as the living soul.

It will be foolish to believe that naturally and physically the female was created from the bones and the flesh of the male.

As it has been mentioned many times, the Lord wants us to use logic and scrutinize the literal of His word and break open all the enigmas of His allegorical language.

If the creation of Adam was natural, it would have been more conceivable if the woman was created first; and then, from the woman, the male was formed.

Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit and she was found pregnant, God could have done exactly the same with Eve, if she was created first instead of Adam. This reveals that neither the creation of Adam nor the birth of Jesus were natural events, but spiritual.

Of His own will He gave birth to us, by the word of truth, that we might be the first-fruits of all that He created. So then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; James 1:18-19 (Original Hellenic text)

The above quote clearly reveals that the birth of the spiritual man is by the word of truth, is by conceiving the Living and powerful word and planted into one's heart and mind.

The Lord reveals that there is no else besides Him, God is one:

That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is none besides Me. I am the Lord, and there is no other;

I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things. Isaiah 45:6-7

The above prophetic statement that God is one, it has been completely disregarded by Christianity, therefore, making God a threesome entity, naming God, as the holy trinity.

Religious Christianity has totally misinterpreted the scriptures and that God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, are the three stages of learning, the three levels of the spiritual knowledge and magnitude of the word of God, expressed as three heavens.

The teaching of the Father as the first Baptism, the teaching of the Son as the second Baptism and the teaching of the Holy Spirit as the third Baptism. In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Three levels of spiritual knowledge. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. The Logos of God, which in the beginning was with God, is symbolically expressed as the begotten of the Father. God manifests in the flesh, to be the example for everyman that, He calls out of the world, and God the Holy Spirit, the teacher of the Logos, and who reveals the existence of God.

Jesus confirms this: saying to His disciples to wait in Jerusalem for the Holy Spirit to come, to descend; and that He, will teach them all things.

The written reveals that the Lord is the Spirit.

The reason why, the disciple has to go through three Tabernacles, which Simon-Peter reveals on the Mountain of metamorphosis; and by Paul who uses three ships and reaches the three Taverns. Jesus confirms: this is the third time I come to you. God the Living Spirit, God of the heavens is one. The Ancient of the days, and the Lord of Hosts.

I am the Lord, and there is no other besides me:

Paul as the example, he was shipwrecked three times and three times he was saved, denoting the depths and the height of the Logos, as ascending and descending. One's mind has to ascend, elevated first onto the spiritual knowledge of God, before he descends, with reference to Hades. God forms the light and creates darkness, and purposely He separates the light from the darkness, He separates the truth from the lies, the spiritual from the natural and the good from evil.

However, many people might say that this process is hard to absorb, but what seems impossible by man, God makes it possible. After all: you shall all be taught by God.

God uses good and evil as the symmetry of reason and as the equilibrium of morality.

I make peace, and create evil:

God calls the good as peace and the evil as calamity, illustrating the purpose of the two opposing seeds.

Now, the question is this: who is Satan and where did come from, when God emphatically reveals that besides Him there is no one else?

God made this statement, proving that He is one entity and not three persons and that He is the one who does all things in order to teach us.

It is obvious what Christianity's answer will be: But Lucifer was a good angel and fell from grace.

Firstly, the Kingdom of God is without corruption and secondly, God is the unquenchable light and the consuming fire, Holy and dressed with immortality and incorruptibility. Then, where did the corruption, from within the incorruptible environment of God, manifest?

Through the discernment and spiritual understanding of God's word, Lucifer is an abstract entity, and portrays the evil seed of the tree of knowledge and also the example of the defile man; and for this, God, refers to him as the wicked King of Tyrus, portraying a man, who exalted himself as a god.

For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. All these evil things come from within and defile a man. Mark 7:21-23

God proves that the evil seed does exist inside everyman's heart, implanted inside his mortal flesh.

God gave His law a name, called Moses, His prophetic word, He named the Prophets; and His word "the Logos", He named Jesus, the one who is and was with God, the Spiritual seed; and Christ the one who is coming and who at end surrenders all to the Father, God taking back His Former Glory, as the Father once again. As He testifies: I and the Father are one. God is one.

It is essential for the reader to understand the works of the Lord. Let's say that Lucifer or Satan was a real entity and he was with God when suddenly iniquity was found in him.

The questions are:

Was it man's fault that the so-called Satan is evil, and why should man be held responsible and pay the price, so that he needs redemption, because of Satan?

Then, why, God did not destroy him, before He began the evolution process, before He created the human race, so that evil will not exist?

But as it has been said: good and evil, right and wrong are the symmetry of reason, which eventually give birth to wisdom, the very purpose for the tree of knowledge of good and evil, because if you touch the tree of spiritual enlightenment or eat from it, you shall die.

Jesus, the voice and the word of God, declares that all things lead for the good.

It is written that Adam has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, this means that good and evil are essential for the natural world, they are branches of knowledge, which when experienced and understood, give birth to wisdom. They are the two masters and everyman suspends between the two. Until one becomes capable to refuse the one and love the other.

But indeed, O man, who are you to talk back to God? Shall, what is formed say to him who formed it; why have you made me like this?

Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honour and another for dishonour? Romans 9:20-21

It is written:

Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God. 1John 3:9

All things were made by Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. John 1:3

For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created by Him and for Him. Col. 1:16

The above quotes clearly reveal that there is no other power than that of God, testifying that all things were created by Him and for Him, and for His purposes alone.

It is about time that people came to the realization that, sermons, eloquent speeches and theatrical rituals, do not interpret the spiritual magnitude of God's word, or do they explain God's will.

God gave us the gift of intelligence and the majority of people do not use their intellect, but instead, they prefer, like sheep led to the slaughter, be carried away by every wind of doctrine from dysfunctional minded men. Men who are hungry for power and greedy for money; and who have been dividing and ruling this world for many centuries now.

However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory.

1Cor. 2:6-7

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him. James 1:5

But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth. James 3:14

Since the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. James 3:17

The above passages make it very clearer, that what is from above is pure and not evil, bearing in mind that all scripture is God inspired and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction into righteousness.

The good seed:

Jesus portrays the good spiritual seed within the heart of man, the humane side of man, while Lucifer or Satan portrays the carnal evil seed within the animal side of man, man's mortal flesh.

Lucifer or Satan portrays the evil cherub, as one of the two guardians of the tree of life and as the roaring lion, while Jesus portrays the good and the other anointed cherub and also guardian of the tree of life, expressed as the Lion of Judah.

On top of the Ark of the Covenant, inside the Holiest which symbolically represents the heart and mind of the adopted son of God; were placed two cherubs, who are also the guardians of the tree of life, and whose wings were touching and represent good and evil. In the midst of the them, the high priest sprinkled the sacrificial blood, as the atonement for sin. Denoting that man's "heart and mind" walks between good and evil, until he is able to discern and to separate the two, capable to refuse the evil, when he achieves perfect discernment.

Jesus intentionally commands Satan to go behind Him, meaning that after one receives the spiritual teaching of God, mind ascended, taught by God; and pointing to Moses "law" and the Prophets, Satan follows, denoting that, temptation and test of faith follows. Satan stands as the sifter of the true disciple. Satan as the accuser, uses the laws of God in order to convict and to test the faith and the knowledge of the disciple in order to sift his mortal flesh, for purification purposes.

The Ark of the Covenant as from another level of understanding, also represents the tree of knowledge of good and evil. Because if you touch the tree you shall die.

This is why, it was forbidden to touch the Ark, and if anyone touched it, he died, which is only symbolic, but people by taking the scriptures literally believe that it was physically true.

(Except of Indiana Jones who closed his eyes and did not look when his nemesis opened the Ark and therefore, he avoided death? only kidding.)

God purposely uses the evil, as the accuser to test any son that He accepts, expressed as scourging and chastisement, which eventually vanishes through the renewal of the mind and the purification of the heart. The evil seed, the stubborn stiff neck and enemy of the good, expressed as the man of lawlessness, who cannot surrender because he is debased minded.

This means that only through knowledge and wisdom the man of God, can be built into the spiritual temple of God and as the Son of God. Co-heir of Christ and Heir of God.

If man, was to reach the understanding concerning the purpose for his existence; and what privilege "honour" God is offering to him, he would have begged for it.

To defy death, to defy the laws of nature, it is more than a miracle, and only possible through Christ.

The disciple has to learn, become fully acquainted with the spiritual knowledge of the word; by drinking first the milk of the word and through spiritual growth, age and maturity able to drink the new wine having his mind renewed. Quoting that: no man puts new wine into an old wineskin, no man can absorb the spiritual magnitude of the word, because like the new wine, which is sharp and acidic (the new spiritual knowledge sharper than a two edged-sword) will burst the old wineskin. Referring to a man's head and man's mind. Wherefore, until the mind is renewed, one suffers perplexity of the mind, test of faith and also, test of integrity and sanity.

We live in a world which is spiritually barren, and totally ignorant to the hidden of the divine word, and when one begins to receive the spiritual teaching, which is new to him, one immediately is confused and comes under attack. One is barraged by many doubts and from within his inner conscience, questioning his own integrity and even his sanity, since everyone around him believes differently; since the majority of people have taken the scriptures literally. For many centuries now, everyone's needle got stuck on the literal, repeating the same old tune, over and over.

Jesus, nearing to be crucified, to crucify the flesh, He purposely gave us food for thought. Saying that the Spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. This means that it is our fleshy man which becomes the main obstacle for us to increase spiritually. Paul on the other hand, claims that: when I am weak, I am strong, meaning that when my fleshy man is weak, my spiritual man is strong.

The case scenario of Paul verses Festus:

This is exactly the case scenario of Paul and Festus, who accused Paul that too much learning had driven Paul insane, but Paul replied and said to Festus that, he was of sound mind and that he was following the healthy doctrine of Christ. Paul as the example of every true disciple suffered perplexity of the mind, doubting, what he had actually received, when all began, while on his way to Damascus, which is symbolically expressed as blindness. Paul, as the true disciple, was testing his own self, testing his faith and his own sanity, since he was brought up to believe it was opposite to that of the teaching of Christ.

When reading the literal, one has to study it and very carefully, remembering the words of Jesus that, although He speaks to us of earthly stories, their true connotation is spiritual. After all, the entire scriptures apply and concern only to the one man in Adam concerning the salvation of his soul. As God is personal, so it is His divine word. As God is infinite, so it is His word. The entire scripture is God inspired and it is therefore, personal. And they shall all be taught by God, is personal, until many reach the same knowledge and understanding and can unite by the same Spirit and as one body, the true Ecclesia.

For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.
Hebrews 2:18

For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Hebrews 4:15

The man without sin is the man who has no evil in his heart, the man who overcomes evil. Jesus testifies, that He overcame all the evil in the world and Satan had nothing to accuse Him.

The role of Satan:

Satan is stepping stone of knowledge which in reality is one's bad thoughts and stone heart which is within every man from birth, and he grows up according to the world's rudiments, the evil manifests, although man does not admit it, it is hidden, and can be unleashed in a moment of fury. For this very reason, the Lord advises:

Be angry, and do not sin: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil.
Ephesians. 4:26-27

Every Bible reader must understand that everything that the Lord does within the scriptures, it does it to teach us, He does it for our admonition, Jesus doesn't need salvation, He does it for man.

Jesus, as the example of the earthy man, in order to prove what actually happens to the man under the creation and adoption process, while receiving the spiritual knowledge, paints a picture, as being tested by Satan, the adversary of good and the negative side of man.

Wherefore, Jesus as a man, was tested by His own inner conscience, by His own thoughts and doubts. Jesus, wrestles with His own conscience, and if He is the Son of God, to tell the stones to become bread, testing His own spiritual level of understanding about the law, which was written on stone tablets while in the wilderness fasting and hungry for the spiritual bread, the bread that does not perish, while under affliction and perplexity of the mind.

The Hellenic writings clearly reveal that during learning, one sees things as in a mirror enigmatically, understanding things only in part.

For now, we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know fully, just as I am also known. 1Cor. 13:12

This reveals that learning comes in stages, fragmentary, until the disciple puts all things together, until he is fully furnished and fully prepared.

Jesus, simultaneously, He is fulfilling Moses and the Prophets, He walks for forty days to fulfill the symbolic forty years of Israel in the wilderness and the forty days and nights of the flood. Denoting the receiving of the law, the judgements of the law and all the tribulations that the man Israel, the man of God has to go through.

As I have already mentioned, in order to absorb a better understanding of the word, we have to see Israel as one man. Jesus in the wilderness as one man.

Israel as the one man who struggles “wrestles” with God for the Kingdom, the good example of Jacob.

Remark:

(By taking the scriptures literally, certain individuals are looking to find the so-called stone of Jacob, still looking for relics thinking that they can prove God’s existence through a piece of rock in order to give them the belief which is missing from their heart.

The Israelites were willing to carry a boulder right through the wilderness and for forty years, but not the body of Moses into the Promised Land.)

Jesus by knowing the written, and that He was the true Son of God, He knew how to turn the stones “the written law” into bread, referring to the spiritual interpretation and purpose of the law. Jesus as the example and as the instruction to man, tests Himself, to see and to feel how does an ordinary man feels, when under affliction, under scourging and chastisement and under weakness and temptation.

This is what the term co-planted with Him truly means. What Jesus did assumingly physically within the scriptures, we do it spiritually within our conscience and mind, driven by God, taught by God. The Living and powerful word of God enters into our heart and mind; the word which is Jesus.

Jesus, as the Living word of God, tells Satan that it is all written and that He knows the written and that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that is spoken by the mouth of God, the breath of God.

Jesus is tested three times; He is tested on all the three levels of the spiritual magnitude of the word.

Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. Luke 4:5

Satan falsely promises Jesus that all the kingdoms of the world, denoting the temptation of the deceitfulness of riches, the ambition for power, reputation and glory, which are the weakness of the natural man, and who pointlessly desires to own the whole world, despite the fact that by doing so, he will have no time to save, but to lose his soul.

Jesus answered: it is written: worship the Lord your God and serve him only. Luke 4:8

Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here.

For it is written: He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you. Luke 4:9-10

The spiritual temple, as it is revealed in the book of Revelation is God Himself, so Satan tells Jesus if He is the son of God, as a test of identity and faith.

Paul expounds on this issue, saying:

For I know whom I have believed and am persuaded (without a doubt) that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day. 2Tim. 1:12

Jesus, portraying the earthy man was tempted and tested if He could deny God, symbolically expressed as falling from the temple, since the true Temple is God Himself. Wherefore, at the end, Jesus by overcoming all temptations and all His doubts, tells Satan that you shall not tempt your God. Jesus at that moment reveals that He is God, and in the form of a man, tells Satan that, you shall not tempt your God.

Jesus illustrates that the so-called devil is an instrument of God, an instrument of knowledge to serve God’s purposes, to teach the sons of God the dire consequences of evil and the very purpose of it, in order to sift and to purify their inner conscience. It is the laws of God, the accuser, which pierces the soul, spurs the inner conscience for reproof and for correction.

The phenomenon of conviction and guilt can be seen in young children, when they do something wrong; and reprimanded "pierced" by the parent, they express guilt, they blush and remain silent.

The childish guilt, because of reverence to the parent, after adolescence begins to fade away, due to the corrupt and inhumane system that rules this world, sears their conscience, especially when one is brought up in poverty.

Abused and degraded by poverty, it turns into self-aggression and into violence and even to alcoholism and drug addiction and finally to self-destruction, considered as an outcast by the self-righteous society.

And you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.

It is irrational and dysfunctional for intelligent men to believe that there is a real Satan out there, the medieval fairy tale and misunderstanding of the scriptures; while God testifies that, He is the one who makes peace and creates evil and that there is no one else besides Him.

Jesus the rock of offence; and blessed is the man who does not get scandalized in Him.

Although Jesus confirms that He is the one who holds the keys of Hades and of death; and also, the keys to life, dysfunctional minded men have invented a devilish hell, perhaps their own hell. According to the written: man, shall be judged by the words of his mouth.

The Logos reveals, not only that Satan is an instrument, a servant of God (worship the Lord your God and serve him only), but also that Jesus Christ is the anointed Son God, He is the seed and the word of God; the word who is God, and everyone who is born of God does not sin, because he bears no evil within himself.

Jesus being the seed of God, He had no evil; and to be approached by Satan to be tested, proves that Jesus stands as the example of any man in Adam who has obtained the spiritual knowledge of the word.

This is why, Satan emphatically asks Jesus that if He is the Son of God to do this and to do that.

Jesus as the example of the earthy man, been perfected through knowledge and wisdom has all his senses exercised, able to discern good and evil and capable to refuse evil. Knowing and understanding good and evil, fulfills the will of God.

Jesus stands and presents Himself as the teacher, to be co-planted with Him. Be mimickers of Jesus Christ.

The word is implanted into the heart of man, the man who walks with Jesus inside the book of life, experiencing and learning. How else can a man be taught by God? God through Jesus, opens the seven seals of the Book, mind elevated, stretched able to understand the four-dimensional levels of the word's infinite magnitude.

Wherefore, what was written, are examples to illustrate how the two seeds which every man inherits from nature, wrestle one another, once the spiritual seed is conceived.

I come to cause division.

To the victor, it shall be given to eat of the tree of life...

Man, since the very beginning, because he has taken the scriptures literally, he has always been looking externally and not internally into his own heart and mind, into his inner conscience, and as always, instead of blaming himself, he likes to blame someone else for all his errors and irrational behaviours.

All scripture is God breathed, meaning that it is spiritual and only spiritually can be absorbed.

It has to be absorbed internally. The kingdom of God within. This means, all that which were written have to enter into your heart and mind, you have to walk inside the book of life, register your name and print your footsteps.

For instance: God likens and presents man, as a lamb, as a sheep, as a goat, as an ox, even as a dog, a pig, a wolf and as a serpent, with reference to man's animal nature and the reason why, God always demands the sacrifice of the firstborn. He demands man's carnal side. Lose one's carnal life, one's animal nature, for to gain the spiritual life promised by God.

Also, God likens and presents man, as a country, as a city, as the whole earth and man's heart as a garden.

Firstly, and symbolically, the carnal man is likened to the city of Jericho, surrounded with fortified walls, referring to man's stubbornness and the conceit of his heart, which have to be demolished by the power of the laws of God, humbled, burnt into dust and ashes, tested by fire. Denoting purification. The carnal man is also presented as a harlot, who fornicates with all the vanities of this world, the world of corruption, all the lies and deceptions, the deceitfulness of riches, all the irrational and dysfunctional religious doctrines and idolatries which were forced upon people since childhood.

Secondly: after the demolition of his fortified walls, being humbled, crucified, tested by fire, being purified, he is given to eat the bread from heaven, of the hidden manna; the spiritual seed enters his heart, renewal of the mind, he becomes a House of bread, he becomes Bethlehem and gives birth to Jesus "being built according to the Excellency of His knowledge", then Christ is formed. The demolition and burning of Jericho signifies the crucifixion of the flesh, co-planted with Jesus, born under the law in the likeness of the sinful flesh, to condemn sin.

And as we have borne the image of the first, we shall also bear the image of the last. Jesus as the first Adam and Christ as the last Adam, which was prophetic and applies to all those who come under the law, those who know the law.

Jesus, made it clear that it is hard, one has to wrestle in order to gain the Kingdom. Adding that narrow is the gate and much sorrowful is the way that leads onto eternal life, and few are they who find it; and only to the victor it shall be given to eat of the tree of life.

While one's old man is perishing, his new man is renewed, he increases in spiritual knowledge, until he becomes Jerusalem, the place of peace, the new man with the living soul, a new creation according to Christ.

Thirdly: as a living soul now, renewed and purified, fully furnished and prepared, he eagerly waits for the New Jerusalem to descend from heaven, his true Father's mansion, which is his spiritual body, promised and prepared by God through Christ to be dressed with immortality and incorruptibility, becoming worthy to hear the words of the Lord:

Then the King will say to those on His right hand, come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: Matthew 25:34

Jesus the Christ, is the one who sits at the right hand of the Father (He is the right hand of the Father) therefore, those on His right hand, are those who are redeemed by Jesus Christ.

Jesus, the only name given by God, to be the Saviour of the world, the Saviour for any man who has ears and wants to hear and calls upon His name.

God likens man to a goat and to a sheep. The goat is a wild animal, runs and climbs ragged mountains tops and will eat almost anything, contrary to the sheep which is quiet and a peaceful animal. The goat, is man's wild animal nature, his outward man; and when tamed by the laws of God, he becomes peaceful and serene as a sheep, referring to his humane side, his inward and spiritual man, the true man in Adam, as Adam.

It is essential to understand that the division process and the recognition between the two characters of any man, only begins when you the true believer conceive the spiritual seed, when you accept God's instructions and you are eager to do His will.

The scriptures only apply personally to one man, to you the true believer who seek God's Kingdom.

Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. Rev. 22:14

Verily I say unto you, whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter it. Mark 10:15

As a child, refers to the new born man, the man child, born above, born from water and born from the Spirit. Three stages of death and rebirth (Architriclinos) three stages of regeneration, as three baptisms. He who accepts God's instructions and does His will he receives the three symbolic baptisms, he reaches the three heavens of spiritual knowledge, his mind has been elevated and renewed.

Taught by God the Father: first baptism. Taught by the Son: second baptism. Taught by the Holy Spirit: third baptism.

It is only one baptism, since God is one, but it is received in three stages of learning. Illustrating that baptism is symbolic and refers to the spiritual knowledge and understanding of the laws, the word and will of God; and not simply being dipped in water.

Passing through three Tabernacles, is symbolically expressed, as pitching one's tent, pitching one's tent three times, one by the teaching of Moses, the law, one for Elijah-the Prophets, the prophetic word and one by the teaching and fulfillment by Jesus.

Where two and three are gathered in my name, I am in the midst of them. Where Moses, the Prophets and Jesus are gathered (ingathering their teaching, their knowledge) Christ is in the midst of the them. When a man gathers the two and three measures, the spiritual knowledge at the mouth of the three witnesses, Christ is in the midst of them. Until Christ is formed.

Moses, as the law and the Prophets, as the prophetic word, what was written and what was spoken, must enter into the heart-mind-soul of man to wash and to cleanse, denoting renewal of the mind and purification of the heart, for to prepare the way for Jesus to come until Christ is formed.

Moses and the Prophets prepare the way for the seed of God to be conceived and give birth to Jesus, until Christ is formed. Moses and the Prophets they are until John's Baptism, then Jesus takes over, the Kingdom is preached through the Gospel of Christ, the "Evangelio", the good news of redemption.

Jesus testifies: that no man comes to me unless he is drawn by my Father.

The law is of the Father, the prophetic word is of the Spirit and the salvation of the soul and the fulfillment are of the Son and stand as three levels of spiritual knowledge and understanding, expressed as three baptisms. One of the Father one of the Son and one of the Holy Spirit.

The reason why the true believer and disciple is named the Architriclinos, master of three beds, referring to three baptisms into death, but by grace, therefore, he overcomes the sting of death.

Lift up your bed and walk, lift up your bed and follow me... the cross is likened to a death bed.

The law is the key factor which substantiates the existence of God, since without a law giver there will be no law. The law is to defend the innocent "the righteous" and at the same time to convict and to chastise the guilty, the unrighteous, in one man.

It is written that the laws of God were given through the mediation of angels. An angel not only represents a spiritual message from above, but also, refers to the man "the messenger" who conveys, mediates the law. God gave His laws to man and in writing, in order to confirm His existence.

The scriptures speak about religions of angels. If the angels in heaven exercised different religions, then, the kingdom of heaven must be in a right mess, even worse of what it is on earth.

We might as well disregard all the written, but, the word clearly refers to human messengers, as angels. Those with the puffed up fleshy, debased mind, who like to divide and to rule humanity, based upon all kinds of irrational ideologies.

God proves that the religions of angels are not approved by Him.

If we look at the world today, the religions are countless and each and every one bears different doctrines, based upon man's ideologies, while most religions are divided concerning beliefs and traditions, proving that they are all manmade.

One government, applies the same laws for all.

The biggest religion which is divided into thousands of sects and cults is Christianity, they who profess that there is only one God, but not that God is one and the same for all. Each and every sect and cult have found a different way to interpret the written, who since the beginning have taken the scriptures literally, which means they lack spiritual knowledge.

Christianity for thousands of years now, has been blaming the Devil, as if God does not exist; which proves the strength of their faith. They are always threatening people that they will end up in hell and be burnt by fire, which is completely the opposite of Jesus' doctrine who teaches to love your neighbour and even your enemy. Since they all have taken the scriptures literally, and each and every sect believes in a different Jesus.

Therefore, you the true believer, the true Christian or any other, stand up as a light shining in darkness for others to see and admire your humbleness your tolerance and good behaviour, and that, it is not hypocritical; that they might see a flare of the divine nature in you and be drawn to you, be drawn to God.

Let us make man in our image and likeness, referred to the primate and the human “the twain” who already inhabited the planet. Let us make him. Let us make him into a man of God and in image of the two Adams, the two who declared and still are declaring: Let us make man in our image and likeness. The Alpha Adam begins the creation and the Omega Adam, completes the creation of the man who has accepted the high calling. The Alpha Adam as the earthy man and the Omega Adam as the heavenly man, through the increase in spiritual knowledge and wisdom, from knowledge to knowledge, from height to height, from faith to faith and from glory to glory. Sown in dishonour for to be raised in honour and glory.

This is the mystery of the wisdom of God which was hidden, even before the foundation of the cosmos, and it is right now being made manifest.

Since primitive times, right through the medieval times all the way to the twenty-first century, up to today, all our history books are written with blood, which proves what man was; and still, what man is. Proving that man’s animal nature will be his downfall.

According to certain scientists, man was formed by the raw elements of the universe due to an accidental explosion; abracadabra just out of the blue, as the saying goes; and not by the intelligence of a creator. The question is: where did the evil seed come from; and how was it formed out of raw elements? Fortunate that we are not metallic, like robots as yet.

For I delight in the laws of God with my inward man...

Unless the serpent “the evil seed” is raised by the teaching of Moses “the law”, the son of man, will never be raised. The son of man is the disciple’s inward man. Jesus nominates Himself as the Son of man, because, He is the spiritual seed of God from Adam; who has to be born within the heart-soul of man, therefore, He becomes the son of man. Jesus, the indwelling word.

But surely, Jesus is the Son of God and not the son of man, then why does He call Himself, the son of man? Many will say, because He was born of a woman as a man, but Jesus proclaims that the son of man descended from heaven.

What then if you should see the Son of Man ascend where He was before? John 6:62

No one has ascended to heaven, but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven. John 3:13

These are the little details, the iotas of the scriptures that they go very much unnoticed.

Jesus intentionally declares that He is the son of man in order to substantiate the fact that He is the seed which descends from Adam, because He is the one who portrays Adam, which literally means man. And as we have put on the image of the earthy man Adam, we shall also put on the image of the heavenly man Adam.

Jesus testifies:

My brother, sister and mother is the man who listens to my word and does the will of my Father.

The intricate issue which troubled Nicodemus, the teacher of the law.

Jesus answered and said to him: most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born above, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus said to Him: How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? John 3:3-4

The mother’s womb refers to the pure heart which conceives the Spiritual seed, when overshadowed by the Spirit of God.

In the above quotes, Jesus does not say that one has to be born again as in an instant of time, but first, one has to be born above, separating and revealing that one has to be born spiritually and not physically, denoting the birth of the spiritual man, the Ecclesia.

John’s 3:3-4 declaration, without doubt was given as food for thought, since no man, especially a man of maturity, a teacher of the law could be so naïve, as to ask Jesus such an illogical and childish question. This means that it was done purposely in order to reveal that the conception and rebirth is spiritual, as it is also spiritual, the birth of Jesus.

Wherefore, to assume and to believe that Jesus was born physically from a virgin woman, it is completely illogical.

First of all, there is no way that a virgin woman will give birth without being touched by man, unless she was given artificial insemination, which yet again requires the sperm of a man.

Christianity will believe just about anything and consider it a miracle, which is the trade mark of all the manmade religions worldwide.

This means that Christianity's so-called faith is based upon nonfactual miracles, Judaic myths, as they are expressed in the Hellenic writings, also, as cunningly devised fables not based upon spiritual discernment, knowledge and understanding, but on based upon delusional ideologies.

The scriptures are not about miracles, but about instructions concealing spiritual knowledge. Jesus illustrates prophetic signs giving meaning to that, which was written earlier; and not performing miracles.

The logical conclusion:

If Jesus came on earth physically in person, with the aim to perform miracles, He would have travelled the entire world, healing every person on the planet even raised the dead and not just few people strictly in the Land of Israel. But there is no logic in raising a dead person and who is destined to die again.

Jesus comes for the first time to take away the sinful nature of man, He who had no sin, and manifests as in the likeness of the sinful flesh, in the form of a man; and that is within man, in order to condemn and to destroy sin in the flesh.

The reason why one becomes co-planted with Him in His sufferings, in His crucifixion and death. Jesus suffers death with each and every true disciple, which the scriptures give good account, adding: with Christ, I was crucified, which is a fact and not delusional.

God puts man under judgement, perplexity of the mind, sorrow, lamentation of the soul, things happen in real life, such as; conviction of the inner conscience, overwhelming feeling of fear and also actual events followed by signs, guiding and reassuring the disciple that he is on the right pathway. The street called straight.

One becomes crucified by the accusations of the law, being pierced and chastised, washed and cleansed by the word of truth, the indwelling word, sharper than a two-edged sword, while the mind is elevated. Confirmed by the written: the old man perishing and the new man is renewed, achieved by knowledge and spiritual understanding.

Renewal of the mind and purification of the heart are not delusional, but a reality.

This is why, the Lord, says:

Awake you who asleep, arise from the dead and Christ will give light. (Eph.5:14)

The above quote has been totally misinterpreted and misunderstood, because one receives and must receive the light of Christ, while one is alive, and since Jesus testifies that He comes to give sight to the blind, to open the ears of the deaf and to raise the dead.

Man, is asleep, dead-barren towards the spiritual knowledge of the word and not dead and buried in the depths of the earth.

Jesus said: I have yet many things to tell you, and pointing to the future, adding: because if I tell you now you are not capable to bear, to absorb and to contain them, and besides, one has to become a living soul first, while one is alive and not after is dead and buried.

Then, what is the point and the necessity to receive the word of life, to be washed and be cleansed by the word of truth? Denoting renewal of the mind and purification of the heart.

What is the point and purpose of the laws of God then?

Why is it a must for Jesus to fulfill the law and the Prophets?

It has to be understood that, all scripture has to be correlated; and not just take a quote from here and there and reach all kinds of illogical and dysfunctional conclusions.

After Jesus' death, three women went to His tomb to sprinkle His body with sweet aromas, meaning that the sacrifice of one's self, lose one's life for to find one's life, is a sweet aroma, welcomed and acceptable to God, while the three women signify the three levels of God's spiritual knowledge.

Revealing that it is through reaching and learning the third heaven spiritual knowledge that salvation of the soul is achieved, denoting the undressing of the old man. Jesus' body vanishes from the tomb, signifying that the flesh no longer exists. Jesus comes in the likeness of the sinful flesh, in order to condemn sin in the flesh. Jesus in a man, co-planted with man.

So, Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him. Hebrews 9:28

Jesus is sacrificed once within every true disciple and He will appear for the second time as the Christ, until Christ is formed in you, in His full stature and spiritual age.

According to the written: in the blink of an eye, those who remain alive shall be transformed, the phenomenon which Jesus illustrates on the high Mountain, the spiritual metamorphosis, while Jesus was alive.

The transformation refers to all those who have the living hope of the resurrection, and as living souls they shall become alive in the Spirit, but metamorphosis cannot happen, unless the everlasting Gospel is rightly preached and the mysteries of the Kingdom of God are being revealed and people become mimickers of Christ. Conformed in the image of the firstborn of God.

The old man perishes and the new is renewed and only through knowledge and wisdom, the God given knowledge and the God given wisdom, through the Spirit of wisdom and revelation.

People, clearly have to understand the spiritual magnitude of the word, becoming able to discern the letter from the spirit of the word, learn and accept the will of God. Understand the creation process and why they must become living souls.

The scriptures have been misinterpreted and everyone was made to believe that man was already created into a living soul and in the image and likeness of God, which is clearly not true, the biggest deception made by the counterfeit Christianity. To be a true Christian and to be labelled a Christian both are light years apart.

One has to learn the very purpose of one's temporary existence, the purpose for the creation of Adam; and why every man has to bear his image, also, the adoption process, which must be fully understood and put into practice.

Make believe does not create living souls or by becoming a church pew potato, while watching theatrical rituals and listening to eloquent speeches which tickle only the ears.

The true Jesus commands every man to lay his foundations upon His rock doctrine to prosper, to store riches in heaven, where all things are eternal.

Man, has to accept God's instructions, it is a necessity for the sake of his own soul, man owes it to himself; and put one's hope for the eternal life into practice, at least at some time in one's life. It is one's animal nature which refuses the gift of eternity, since only the fool is the one who says in His heart that there is no God.

When God said let the earth give birth to the living creature, was pointing to man, whom he separates from the rest of the other species, such as cattle and sheep and so forth. This means that God was establishing His laws for man.

We know for a fact (God inspired fact) that the natural creation took millions of years to be completed, through many evolutionary stages and that is, according to our measure of timing and not according to God's measure of timing, since God is outside time and space. That is why, one day of the Lord equals one thousand years of our time. It must be stressed that the one thousand years strictly refers to the symbolic six-day spiritual creation and not the natural, as six thousand years from Adam to Christ. From the Alpha Adam onto the Omega Adam.

Majority of people confused the natural creation with the spiritual; and they want to marry the natural with the spiritual, as one, but it is not possible, because one has to separate the natural from the Spiritual. One has to know and understand which is which.

God uses the natural, but only as examples, such as, the Egyptian Pharaohs, King Herod, King Cyrus king of Persia and Darius, Nebuchadnezzar, Roman Caesars, such as Julius Augustus, even Alexander the Great, naming him, as the ram of the Greeks. Pontius Pilate and so many others who actually lived at a certain time in our history, and who in depth were all idolaters, with reference to the flesh.

The question: was there a man called Goliath? Not really, because Goliath represents the devil and the Philistines the seed of devil.

Was there a man called Sampson?

Since the main biblical characters, as it has been already revealed, were portrayed by Jesus. Sampson's name literally means "like the Sun" and who is like the Sun? only Jesus Christ.

Sampson is the one whose immeasurable strength destroyed the temple of the Philistines, who represent the fleshy seed, killing three thousand Philistines, which all are key factors, which equal the number of the devout Jews from all the nations, saved on the day of Pentecost.

God uses their names and status as key factors, He also uses the names of geographical places, even specific measures and weights and so forth.

It is written that God does things twice and three times in order for man to absorb His divine word.

Three thousand Israelites were slaughtered in the wilderness, when the law was received. Three thousand devout Jews from all the nations, were saved on the day of Pentecost.

We observe the same phenomenon for the second time, but in a different form and situation, which prophetically designates the same thing.

Another example:

The Land which the Lord promised the Israelites, the land of milk and honey, it was conquered not only by the Babylonians, but also by the Romans and so forth, which seems very strange indeed, why God, should allow such calamities, and eventually to evict the Israelites from their land which He has promised to them. It does not make any sense.

Even more strange is the fact that despite the claim of the Israelites that they were the chosen people of God, Jesus comes and accuses them that they are the sons of Satan and not the sons of Abraham. As also, all the appalling events of the last century which followed and occurred during the second world war.

The truth is: taking the scriptures literally and believe in miracles causes confusion and disbelief.

The evidence that Jesus did not performed miracles, it is proven by the fact that, if someone who had the power to calm a stormy Sea and to raise the dead, no man would have ever dared to lay a finger on Him.

One good example, if we take the scriptures literally: the Israelites saw the hand of God at work so many times, while they were in slavery to the Egyptians. They saw the ten plagues with their own eyes, they saw the parting of the Sea of Reeds, they saw pillars of fire and the manna falling from the sky, Mount Sinai trembling, 3000 and 23000 died in the wilderness, also, the parting and drying up of the River Jordan and so many other so-called miracles.

They also saw all the wonders which the Prophets performed right in front of their own eyes, they saw Elijah bringing fire down from the sky; and still, not only they remained unfaithful, but also ungrateful. However, if God did all those so-called miracles and were witnessed by all the Israelites, then, why did they remain disobedient, without any respect or fear towards God?

Also, God frees the Israelites from the slavery to the Egyptians, and then He scatters them into the wilderness and all those who were in slavery, they all died in the wilderness and never saw the Promised Land. Which makes no sense whatsoever, and makes God to be a bad General.

Proving beyond doubt that most of the earthly stories were allegorical and not actual events.

According to the letter, God commanded the Israelites to go and kill all the nations who lived in the Promised Land. If such a thing happened physically, it annuls God's word and promises; and that God so loved the world that He offered His Son?

The scriptures do not mention what happened to the giants which the Israelites saw.

When it is understood that the Promised Land it is only within one's soul-heart, a reflection of the heavenly, the Kingdom of God within, only then man will begin to see the scriptures from a different focus, from its true and spiritual perspective.

It is written within the Hellenic writings that even unto this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies over their eyes. But they had Moses as their leader, as their guide and as their teacher together with Aaron, then how come they never understood Moses?

The same with the disciples of Jesus; He was so long with them and still they were naïve, and Jesus told them, to wait in Jerusalem for the Holy Spirit to come; and when the Spirit comes, He shall teach them all things. But why, He did not teach them all things Himself? But only when He was risen, and He met the two disciples who were on their way to Emmaus, sixty stadia from Jerusalem, He broke the bread and their eyes became open to all the spiritual understanding of the scriptures, concerning Himself, concerning His mission. It was the risen Christ who elevated and open their mind to understand. The resurrected Jesus becomes the Christ, becomes anointed.

The question once again, why did Jesus' disciples remain ignorant, while Jesus was with them and He was their teacher?

Jesus was with His disciples for so long teaching them and saw His miracles and still, they did not grasp, and Jesus told them to wait for the Holy Spirit to teach them?

Proving that the word of God is prophetic and that His disciples of that time, there and then, were pointing to future generations. His Biblical disciples were examples for the future, His disciples to come, because now the Lord is the Spirit, He is the risen Christ.

All these phenomena, were prophetic, shadow of things to come pointing to faith and the crucifixion of the flesh, meaning that without becoming co-planted with Christ, without the death of the flesh, the flesh will always remain barren and rebellious.

This means that all the so-called miracles did not happen physically, they were only symbolic signs, illustrating what is in the mortal flesh and what man has to go through in order for his mind to open, to be enlightened to all spiritual knowledge and understanding. It is only through the testimony of Jesus Christ that the enmity is put to death, denoting the crucifixion of the flesh and only by His grace and truth.

Yet again, the tower of Babel was also, a shadow of things to come, and was pointing to us today, to the all confused religious beliefs who think that they have reached God, which is only imaginary. God has confused all their religious doctrines, which are puffed up by their fleshy minds, called religions of angels.

The biggest religious deceptions are: first, the so-called reincarnation and second, that men are created into different classes, high ranks and lower ranks, which are the works of the fleshy man and most definitely not from God. Since it is written that God is not a respecter of persons. God's command is to have compassion for the lowly, because there will always be the lowly, due to the corrupt system of this world, expressed as Babylon the Harlot.

The sixth epistle to the Ecclesia of Philadelphia, denotes brotherly love, and points to the twain, when the two become one; when the two are reconciled into one body by the cross, thereby, putting to death the enmity. The old man perishes for the new man to manifest.

The word of God, as a two-edged sword at work, kills the flesh and at the same time gives life to the soul.

As it has been revealed, Jesus' birth is Spiritual and the so-called miracles were prophetic signs and continue to be Spiritual and prophetic. A marvel can happen personally and to the man who truly seeks God. Jesus fulfils this, by saying; your faith has made you whole, which speaks for itself.

Why should the Lord raise a dead man who is destined to die again and interfere with man's decaying flesh and rotting bones? Those mentioned that they are in the graves are those who have died in Christ and they are already living souls, those who have already descended into Hades, the symbolic grave, those who came under the righteous judgements of the law and were waiting to be freed from the law. Arise you who are dead, dead in sin and receive the light of Christ, receive the unquenchable light.

Risen from the dead, refers to the mortal soul when it becomes a living soul, and as a living soul will be taken away from the valley of the shadow of death and the House of clay.

The God given infinite life to the mortal soul, while man is still alive, after all, it is the salvation of man's soul.

Jesus illustrates the Phenomenon through the metamorphosis, which is incomprehensible for man to capture the idea of such process; and to grasp how God, can transform a natural man into an unquenchable light and in the blink of an eye.

It is written that no flesh and blood shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

According to the promise of God through Jesus; this mortal shall be dressed immortality and this corrupt shall be dressed incorruptibility, which means that, it has to be accepted by trust, trust in God's word, in order to become a reality. Jesus' words: he who believes in me...

One has to invest in God for his soul, one has to store riches in heaven, which cannot be settled neither with money nor with jewels. One's riches in heaven is a spiritual body, a spiritual habitation prepared by God for the living soul.

Many people before they die, leave their fortunes to their filthy rich religious establishments, as bribery, imagining that God is going to forgive their sins and enter the Kingdom, instead of leaving their fortunes to the very poor, who they will appreciate it and give thanks to God.

The price that one pays is the offering of one's own self to God, at a chosen time of dedication, which is never too late. One has to offer his firstborn; that is, his mortal flesh as a living sacrifice and as peace offering. Acceptable by God; as a sweet fragrance, a sweet aroma.

We follow Jesus' instructions and His example "Jesus the Great Teacher" and through knowledge and wisdom, when of spiritual age and maturity, we put on Christ.

With words, we can build cities and tall skyscrapers, it is easier said than done. Doing it though, in real life, is a different matter altogether.

Jesus' commandment and advice: you search the scriptures believing that in them you will find eternal life and to me you do not come, and the scriptures are they which testify of me.

What Jesus is saying, is that without Him, without His guidance, without the elevation of the mind, no man ever, will be able to work out and understand the literal of the scriptures, all the parabolic disguises and allegories, specific numbers, names and places. No man ever on his own strength will be able to interpret the literal, the earthly stories in order to extract that which is hidden, the mysteries of the Kingdom and the kept secrets, spoken since the foundation of the cosmos.

Two thousand years of religious Christianity, clearly proves the point.

Jesus continues to testify, saying that no man comes to me, unless he is drawn to me by my Father.

This means that the invitation of God the Father, is sent through Jesus.

In the meantime, Jesus declares: I and the Father are one. Jesus puts Himself first, I, and the Father, and not, the Father and I. This is the biggest revelation, substantiating that, Jesus is the Lord God who empties Himself, not emptied Himself, because today if you will hear His voice, today, is the beginning of your salvation. Today, God empties Himself in the face of Jesus to teach you, the seeker of His Kingdom and His righteousness. Bearing in mind that God is One.

The reason why it is written: And they shall all be taught by God, to be taught by Jesus is to be taught by the Father.

Jesus yet again, substantiates this, saying: My Father works until now and I work.

Jesus substantiates the fact that He and the Father are one:

Jesus said to him: have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me, has seen the Father; so how can you say, show us the Father?

John 14:9

As I have mentioned in other articles, Philip, which literally means the lover of horses, symbolically points to the man who is under the judgements of the law, the man who delights in the laws of God. And who, while under judgement is praying and seeks to see God. God only manifests in the face of Jesus. In the beginning, was the word and the word was with God; and God was the word. Jesus, the word of God becomes flesh and dwells among us, among the outward and inward man, to divide the two.

Does Jesus physically become flesh today? Does He appear physically, as a man today? Obviously not! He appears spiritually and He is conceived spiritually, since He is the word of God.

The logical conclusion: If Jesus appeared physically yesterday, and walked as a man, He has to appear physically today also. This means that the manifestation of Jesus, His birth, His death and resurrection, was always spiritual. If Jesus came to earth as a man, He would have gone all over the world to preach the Kingdom of God and not just to Israel.

It has to be clearly understood that Israel, symbolically represents the man who seeks God and His Kingdom, the man who wrestles with God for the Kingdom and becomes the victor. It is God who names Jacob "the supplanter, the overcomer" as Israel.

Jesus intentionally takes Simon-Peter, John and Jacob-James, on the sixth day, according to Matthew and Mark, but according to Luke, Jesus takes the three about the eighth day on the high Mountain. Jesus takes the three disciples, which have to be seen as one man, whom the Lord elevates his mind, symbolically expressed as taking him on a high Mountain and in the presence of Moses, Elijah and Jesus, the three measures and three witnesses.

Jesus uses the names of Simon-Peter and John, as key factors in order to illustrate what is the reward of God to the overcomer and who is Jacob-Israel called James in English.

(The sixth and the eighth day, Moses and Elijah, who appeared talking to Jesus, are also cryptic clues to the hidden, concerning the overcomer. Read chapter: Metamorphosis.)

God in the face of Jesus works for six days referring to the symbolic six-day creation; God rests on the seventh day, when He completes His works with the man who bears the image of Adam, and who fulfills His will. Adam is named the son of God, because he became a living soul on the sixth day of the spiritual creation and adoption process.

Jesus in the face of Adam and as the prophetic example of the earthy man, is named son of God, because as a living soul, he went through the adoption process, therefore, Adam stands as the first adopted son of God, while Jesus is the begotten of the Father, the only one of its kind. This is why, the commandment is to be conformed in the image of the firstborn, Jesus clearly reveals that He is the one who portrays Adam.

These are the mysteries of the word of God; and in order to expose the mysteries, the word has to be viewed, and has to be discerned from different levels of its spiritual magnitude.

Through the creation and the adoption process, the disciple becomes a living soul in order to be "given the authority" to be declared, son of the Living of God, a co-heir of Christ and an heir of the Kingdom. On the seventh day, the true disciple enters the great day of the Lord, enters the rest of the Lord. These are the basic instructions of Jesus towards the man who has ears and wants to hear, the man who puts his trust on the great promises of God.

Jesus testifies: I am the gate of the sheep. I am the way, the truth and the life.

The plain fact which all the religious should take heed and do not look for other saviours and different gates to enter the Kingdom, because the gate of the sheep, is Jesus Christ and no one else.

Worshipping Jesus' Biblical mother will not teach you anything, and neither she will give you access to the Kingdom, figuratively speaking of-course, since the religious have taken the entire scriptures literally, worshipping the creation and not the creator.

I have already made it clear what is the role of the Biblical Mary.

The Biblical Mary, the woman, she does not put her life down for you; she does not get crucified for you or with you, she cannot be your teacher, and she is not the word of God, Jesus is.

The Biblical Mary is your own self, your own flesh and your own heart.

Warning: that once you have taken the decision of the death sentence, to lose one's life for to find one's life, by the denial of one's self, the denial of one's carnal man, referring to the undressing of the old man, denoting the death of the flesh, better count the cost and make sure that one has, what it takes to finish his tower, referring to the stairway to heaven. In other words, Jesus is saying, do not build the tower of Babel, because you will end up in confusion and you will never finish it and reach God. You will never bridge the fixed chasm, the great divide between the natural and the spiritual.

The very purpose of the story of the tower of Babel, the tower of confusion, which was never finished, and no one reached the heavens. One, can start building his own tower to reach God through the spiritual knowledge "language-cloven tongues of fire", the clear understanding of the divine word and not by confusion, as through many tongues-languages, of different beliefs and old traditions, different manmade ideologies.

To bear the image of the first Adam one has to begin from the Garden, the third heaven, from the tree of knowledge, denoting elevation of the mind "born above". The fact, which Jesus strongly emphasizes, unless one is born above, cannot see the Kingdom of God.

Wherefore, for one to see the Kingdom, one must have one's mind elevated onto the third heaven and the Paradise of God, to touch and to eat from the tree of enlightenment, which is all the spiritual knowledge enclosed in the Book of life.

In continuation one has to be born from water. The biblical term born from water, also reveals that all life on our planet evolved from water. Water, gave the birth to all natural life.

God uses water as a metaphor to His laws, and as a parallel to the spiritual. Fulfilling Jesus' words; I tell you earthly things, but as parallels to the spiritual.

Wherefore, to be born from water is to be purified through the understanding and purpose of the laws of God, scolded and chastised by the law.

According to the written: (2Peter 3:6) the old world was destroyed by water, referring to the old man and the death of the flesh. All flesh perished, but all flesh shall see the salvation of the Lord.

But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water. 2Peter 3:5

As the Planet Earth was formed by water, God uses the natural as parallels to the spiritual.

Two thirds, as two measures of the Earth's mass area is saturated in water, and only one third of it, is solid ground. Is it a coincidence? Obviously not, if one could read the signs.

God likens the earthy man as the Planet Earth itself, which over the centuries, was formed and shaped by water, frozen and liquid, God uses the water metaphorically to signify His laws.

God separates the waters above, from the waters below, with refence to the two sides of His laws, the spiritual from the earthy. The waters from below, are to kill the flesh and the waters from above are, to give life to the soul. The word, the laws of God, as a two-edged sword.

This means that it is by the obedience to the law, man can be formed and shaped, expressed as born from water. Expressed as the water baptism by grace. Although the flesh is crucified by the law, one's soul is saved by grace.

Jesus as the example of the earthy man, is born of a woman, born inside the heart of man, as in the likeness of the sinful flesh and under the law, to learn obedience. This is what it means, God takes the form of a man, the man in Adam, and as Adam. God in the face of Jesus comes and dwells among the two seeds within one man, in order to cause division, and to separate the goat from the sheep, which is another symbolic way to describe it.

In the beginning the earth was barren, and for the earth to be barren and without form, is due to lack of water. Life without water, cannot exist. Water as the laws of God and the Sun as the spiritual light which gives meaning to the purpose of the laws, Both, water and light give life to all things.

Jesus told the Samaritan woman, the water that I will give you, you shall never thirst again; Jesus also declares that living waters shall flow from your bellies, referring to the Spirit.

Paul, as the example of the true disciple, testifies: I lived once without the law, but when the law "the commandment" came, sin revived and I died. Paul was not physically dead when he said this. Yet again refers to the death of the flesh by the law. The law was given to manifest sin in the flesh, the sinful nature in order to manifest and to raise the evil seed, expressed as the seed of the Devil.

The strange thing is; Nowhere it is written that the Devil got married and had an offspring, and who was his wife? Revealing that the divine word is metaphorical and that the seed of Satan, points to man's animal nature.

It is the deluge of God's spiritual knowledge that kills the flesh, all flesh perishes. Man, is flesh...

And the Lord said: My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be (120) one hundred and twenty years. Gen. 6:3

The above quote was a prophetic declaration and was pointing to us today, the time that knowledge has increased.

The number 120, is a key factor and refers to the water baptism 3x40: as three deaths.

Wherefore, 120 on the upper room, symbolizes the disciple's head and mind elevated onto the three levels 3x40 of the spiritual understanding of the laws of God, expressed as the deluge of the knowledge of the laws of God preparing the way for the Spirit to come. 3x40 the law and 3x50 the Spirit. Three levels of the law and three levels of the Spirit. Three levels which give meaning and purpose to the law, the law being holy and spiritual and only spiritually can be discerned.

120 loaves of bread were placed inside the Holy-Place of the Temple arranged on ten tables.

The number ten refers to the laws of God, while the Temple of God is man and not a stone building; therefore, 120 refers to the knowledge of the law and to the age of Moses.

The Tabernacle's 12 loaves multiplied by the ten laws become 120 loaves in the Temple, denoting increase in knowledge in one's heart and mind, as 120 tenths, portions of manna.

Specified Biblical numbers are also key factors.

3000 died when the law came; and 3000 were saved when the Spirit came. This is to reveal the two sides of the law; the law Holy and Spiritual and also, a two-edged sword.

Born from the Spirit:

After the allegorical baptism in water, denoting the death of the flesh, the Spirit of God takes over. Moses and the Prophets are until John's baptism. After the death of the flesh, the law is cut off, John is beheaded, then the Logos is preached. Christ from above teaches the disciple and the disciple preaches the Logos to Himself; and every disciple presses in, he presses, forces all the knowledge in his heart for the Kingdom to enter into him and him to enter the Kingdom of God. After all, only to the victor it shall be given to eat of the tree of life.

The Spirit descends "Pentecost", when one reaches the fiftieth day, when one receives and understands all the spiritual instructions, (120 tenths in the upper room, the knowledge of the 12 loaves, 5 and 7, 50 tenths and 70 tenths in one's head and mind) the fulfillment of the New covenant. Pentecost, refers to the Spirit of the word. The number 50, as the fiftieth day, is also the principle key number of the Hellenic writings, denoting the three Spiritual levels of the word as 3x50. First to the Jew and also to the Hellene.

When Jesus was pierced with a spear "fiery dart" water and blood gushed out of the side of His body, denoting the completion, the fulfillment of the two covenants. Jesus fulfilled His side, the part of His mission. Jesus as the example, His flesh died, but not His living soul.

Wherefore, after the death of the flesh, one enters the New covenant, then the Spirit comes, one receives the Spirit and fire baptism, for total purification.

To receive to Himself, a glorious Ecclesia without spot or wrinkle, holy and without blemish.

The written testifies:

The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

The above quote clearly reveals that the born of the Spirit is as invisible as the wind, which means that there is nothing noticeable and distinctive to identify the man born from the spirit, it's a spiritual happening, a spiritual experience which only the man who receives it understands.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. John 3:6
No one has ascended to heaven, but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man. John 3:13

The above declaration also reveals the elevation of the mind, Jesus in a man "ascends to heaven" to the third heaven; and also, descends.

Jesus has to manifest in the flesh, He has to manifest in man, to ascend and to descend, with reference to the elevation of the mind.

Angels, spiritual messages ascend and descend on the son of man, the man who bears the image of Adam.

The reason why it is written:

By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God. 1John 4:2

God is the tiller of the land and also the sower of the spiritual seed.

The sower sows the word. Mark 4:14

And the seed that falls on the good ground ἀγαθὴν-pure earth, springs up and yields a crop one hundredfold.

The word ἀγαθὴν-pure earth, apart from signifying the pure in heart, also refers to the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God. All the blessings, beatitudes, apply to one man.

The Hellenic word Agathos-masculine, refers to the man who has no malice, no evil in his veins, no evil in his heart. It is easy to understand that God does not refer to the dust that we walk on, as agathee-feminine soil, therefore, God refers to the heart of man.

When Jesus had said these things, He cried: he who has ears to hear, let him hear! Luke 8:8

Every reader has to bear in mind, when he reads the scriptures, Jesus speaks to him in an allegorical language, using earthly stories as parallels to the spiritual.

The cryptic one hundredfold points to Abraham, because to Abraham were given the great promises and that through him the seed of the promise was to be born. Abraham was 100 years old when Isaac was born, who was called the seed of the promise; and the seed of the Promise pointed to Jesus. Denoting that Jesus prophetically invisibly as the Spirit walks right through the entire scriptures. And the rock that followed them was Christ, Jesus as the earthy man and Christ as the spiritual walk right through the entire scriptures.

One hundredfold on earth and one hundredfold in heaven, store riches in heaven. Whatever you sow, you shall reap. What you sow on earth, concerning your salvation, you shall reap in heaven.

Jesus tells the Jews that, if you were the sons of Abraham, his works you will do.

What everyone has to understand and accept is that “Jesus, the Son of Man” comes down from heaven as the spiritual seed of God; and the man who truly seeks God, he freely opens the door of his heart, expressed as “the pure earth” and allows Jesus to enter, thus conceiving the spiritual seed.

This means that Jesus is born in him, and therefore, Jesus becomes the Son of Man, because, He is born inside the heart and mind of the one man in Adam, therefore, he bears witness that Jesus Christ manifests in the flesh. Every spirit refers to the spirit of the mind.

1 John 4:2 uses the full name, Jesus Christ, to illustrate the fact that Jesus is born, for Christ to be formed. Jesus Christ as one, because God is one.

Jesus on earth and Christ in heaven, and the tree of knowledge, is the bridge between the Earthy and the Heavenly. One has to become co-planted with Jesus on the tree of knowledge in order to cross the bridge and reach the heavens, where the tree of knowledge becomes the tree of life.

God promises that He will write His laws in your heart and in your mind, you who truly seek God, only then, you shall become His people and He, shall become your God.

Jesus as the law giver and the word of God, prints “engraves” the word inside the heart and mind of man, until He creates roots; and in time through many birth pangs, pointing to the judgements of the law, scourging and chastisement, one travails and gives birth to Jesus, until Christ is formed.

The main objective of the word is to educate us, until Christ is formed in us, and in His image and likeness. In the image of Jesus’ death; and in the likeness of Christ’s resurrection. Jesus is sown in dishonour for to be raised in glory as the Christ. The Saviour becomes Anointed.

Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ. 1Cor. 11:1

Clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart. 2Cor. 3:3

Now, the questions:

How anyone today can imitate Christ? And how does one become an epistle of Christ?

Firstly: to imitate Christ, one must put on the image of the first Adam for Jesus to be born in him, In order for Christ to be formed, who is the last Adam. When the flesh is crucified, when one becomes a partaker “co-planted” in Jesus’ sufferings and death, carrying Jesus stigma of death, which is a spiritual process that God puts one through, until Christ is risen in him and becomes a partaker of the divine nature.

Secondly: in order to become an epistle of Christ, one has to have the Living Logos written in his heart, by putting on the flesh of Jesus. Expressed as eating the flesh of Jesus and drinking His blood. The flesh refers to the law and the blood refers to the Spirit. Also, the flesh and blood are symbolically expressed as water and wine. Jesus changes the water into wine.

Firstly, Jesus changes the stones into bread, secondly, He changes the bread into water and thirdly, He changes the water into wine.

Paul testifies:

But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. Gal.1:15-17.

It is God who reveals Jesus, through His Living word of truth, since God is the word; and it is God who implants His word into the heart of the disciple. The word which becomes flesh within the one man in Adam.

Jesus as a son and as the example had to learn obedience even unto death. The mortal flesh is crucified with Him “with Christ I was crucified” referring to the past, after Jesus becomes the Christ revealing that Jesus Christ is one.

This is why the Psalmist as an example, and who is portrayed by Jesus, cries out to God asking him to deliver his soul from Hades, as from the depths of the earth.

The mortal flesh, the mortal soul in affliction, in poverty of the spirit while under the judgements of the law.

Woe to the man who falls into the hands of the Living God.

By which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2Peter 1:4

That which is born from the flesh is flesh; and that which is born from the Spirit is Spirit.

It has to be understood that, Adam was not born from a woman; but he was formed by the breath of God, born from the Spirit. Although Adam is portrayed by Jesus, Adam stands as the example for every earthy man, who is formed by the living and powerful word of God, and as every man who seeks God and obeys His commandments.

We have to see the creation of Adam in the present, and not in the past, the symbolic six-day creation, happening and working in man today; how else could one bear his image?

As it has been repeatedly mentioned, the word of God is prophetic, and four dimensional and has to be viewed from different angles.

Jesus the Christ:

Luke's genealogy 3:38 substantiates; that the first Adam was the first Son of God, and who is Jesus, while Matthew's genealogy account points to the last Adam and who is the Christ.

First, the earthy Adam is formed and when full of age and spiritual maturity, the heavenly Adam is formed in the true disciple. Jesus is born for the Christ to be formed. Jesus portrays the first Adam and Christ the last Adam. Jesus as the beginning of the spiritual creation becomes the way, the truth and the life, for Christ to be formed.

The first Adam has to be formed today, in the man who takes upon himself the image of the first Adam, until the last Adam is formed. The word of God is prophetic and everything written were for our leaning today. Therefore, do not look at the creation of Adam as an event of the past, but as an actual event of the here and now.

Wherefore, every true disciple must bear the image of the first Adam, first, for to bear the image of the last Adam after. Jesus Christ testifies, and this is in order to fulfill the written, saying that He is the Alpha and also the Omega, thus fulfilling both, the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings.

At this point, it is a must for the reader to understand that the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings must come together as one, must be correlated.

For this reason, it is written: first to the Jew and also to the Hellene. The biblical Jew symbolically represents the circumcised heart and the Hellene represents the elevated mind.

Simon-Peter was teaching the Jew and Paul was teaching the Hellene. The Jew and the Hellene as one man.

The word of God was given first to the Jew and also to the Hellene.

Paul and Peter also as one man. Peter, as the circumcised Jew and Paul, as the elevated mind, bearing three identities, Hebrew, Hellene and Roman. The three inscriptions on Jesus' cross, cryptically denoting that the mystery of the laws of God only through wisdom can be understood.

Another important key factor of the scriptures which must also be clearly understood, looking at the scriptures spiritually and not physically; is that the steep hill called Golgotha, is the third heaven while the cross, are the two branches of the tree of Knowledge, which means that Jesus suspends between the two branches and between the two seeds of good and evil which are in the Garden Paradise.

Jesus becomes the curse for our sake; fulfilling the written: cursed is the man who hangs on the tree, hangs on the tree of knowledge. It is through knowledge and wisdom that all things become clear and understood.

Jesus makes it tangible by suspending between two thieves, the one repents and the other does not; He substantiates this issue, by saying to the man who repents that, today you are with me in Paradise. It has to be understood that the two seeds are with one man and that the two thieves are one man, as the outward and inward man.

Everyone has been looking at the crucifixion from a literal point of view and not from its spiritual perspective.

What happens, what is illustrated and unveiled within the New Testament is the fulfillment of the Old Testament.

It is within the New Testament that Jesus testifies that He is the Alpha, that is, the Alpha Adam, and the beginning of the spiritual creation, as He also testifies that He is the Omega Adam.

Jesus continues to testify that He is the one who was alive and became dead and now He lives forever.

He was alive, as the Living God, which He proves by saying: I and the Father are one. He became dead by emptying Himself from His former glory, as God, when He put on the form of the mortal flesh, in the likeness of the sinful flesh, in order to condemn sin "the evil" in the flesh and to crucify the flesh, crucify the evil. God in the face of Jesus takes the burden upon Himself to become the example for everyone who shall lift up his own cross and follow Jesus' footsteps.

Co-planted with Him, in His sufferings and in His death in order to become co-planted with Him also in His resurrection, to fulfill His word that now, I live forevermore.

Yet again, substantiating the fact through Paul, saying, I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.

God in the face of Jesus becomes the example of the earthy man in order to teach us.

The scriptures have to be studied and be viewed from their spiritual perspective and not from the literal point of view in order to extract their spiritual concept.

Everyone knows that to become co-planted with Jesus in His sufferings and in His death, it is physically impossible, therefore, the crucifixion is allegorical and spiritual and not a natural act.

God created us for His own purposes, and He chose the foolishness of the cross according to His will and wisdom, which is completely the opposite to the wisdom that of the man of the animal nature.

This is why, the things of the Spirit of God are foolishness to the natural man, of the animal nature. The animal nature does not want to know, he rejects the things of the Spirit of God, becomes an apostate, rebels against God.

The reason why the mortal flesh has to be crucified, expressed as the man of lawlessness and as the outward man, as the man who is hanged besides Jesus and who does not repent.

One has to accept the laws of God, has to accept the spiritual seed to be implanted into his heart in order to cause the division between the animal nature and the human nature. Denoting that only the humane side of man is capable to put on the divine nature.

I delight in the laws of God with my inward man, with my human side, with my heart and mind, the spirit of my mind.

First to the Jew and also to the Hellene. As it has been already mentioned, the Biblical Jew portrays the circumcised heart and the Biblical Hellene the spirit of the mind; and both the Jew and the Hellene represent one man.

God uses both the natural Hebrew-Israel-Jew and the natural Hellene as parallels to the Spiritual. The Jew under the law and the Hellene, the spirit of the mind, free from the law.

It is no coincidence that the Hellene "Hellas" was the cradle of western civilization and the birth of democracy. The renaissance of the great philosophers, mathematicians, architects, sculptors, astronomers, scientists, writers, musicians and so forth, and who were God inspired individuals.

Greece "Hellas" experienced the first renaissance of that age and given by God, God inspired. It is the spirit of God who roused and enlightened the mind of the certain few, inspirationally to receive knowledge and wisdom to influence and to inspire the whole world with the same Knowledge. Socrates wisdom made known by his disciple Plato, it will live forever, also Aristotle the father of science the pioneer "forerunner" of that age and the Pythagorean theorem, on mathematics and music.

After the Hellenic civilization came the Romans, who were inspired by the Hellenes, in many ways, but the Romans instead they abolished democracy and became dictators, a war machine spreading terror wherever they went. The world begun to enter a dark period, slavery, torture and imprisonment of the soul, which continued right through the medieval times, called the dark ages. Humanity suffered, hunger, torture, savagery and slaughter, because the animal nature ruled the world.

After the mad Roman emperors, Rome was taken over by the Roman popes who also considered themselves as gods. Just as their predecessors, they spread terror all over Europe, through inquisitions and persecutions, torture and death, but this time in the name of Jesus, whose commandment was and still is; to love one's neighbour even one's enemy, since they have taken the scriptures literally.

While the world was captive in the dark cave, suddenly, the second renaissance happened, the world once again began to see light, the dark clouds of the past begun to shift, a new era began, through the inspiration of the few gifted individuals, and who contested the corrupt system, especially the counterfeit religious hierarchy.

Such as, Galileo who is called by some, the father of science of that era, a strong clear minded individual who was God inspired and stood up for God and His creation, and who paid the price with his own life, by the fleshy minded and irrational religious bigots of that time.

Majority of scientists today although they speak highly of Galileo, Isaac Newton, Faraday, Einstein and many others, they have never followed their good example and who not only believed in God, but they were also convinced of His existence from all that He created.

Today their legacy and their inspiration is not appreciated which were given by God, as most of them had confessed. Today's certain scientists have promoted themselves into celebrity status, totally forgetting the testimony of their predecessors. They have become completely atheists, and they are always trying to prove that there is no God.

Not now, not ever, but never they will be able to prove the existence or nonexistence of God, since God is personal to the man who truly seeks Him.

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting. Romans 1:28-31

This also applies to the certain few puffed up fleshy, dysfunctional minded religious hierarchs, who falsely use God and the literal of His word as their shield to cover up their immoral deeds.

Socrates referred to God as the Lord and the Father of light, speaking about the journey upwards, as the ascend of the soul into the reasonable world, looking at the carnal world of sight as the prison house. Adding that in the world of Knowledge, the idea of good appears last of all, and is seeing only with an effort; and, when seen, is also inferred to be the universal author of all things beautiful and right, parent of light and of the Lord of light in this visible world, and the immediate source of reason and truth in the intellectual.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. James 1:17
For it is God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2Cor. 4:6

Voltaire was another visionary, who made the following comments concerning God and faith:
Is it to believe that this is evident? No, it is perfectly evident to my mind that there exists a necessary, eternal, supreme and intelligent being. Confessing that this is not error of judgement. Voltaire dedicated most of his life to expose the brutalities and absurdities of religious authoritarianism, and Biblical inerrancy.

Jesus through the Apostle Paul, symbolically proved the point, Paul travelled to Athens and to the oracle of Areios Pagos, and stood upon a rock, symbolizing the rock foundation doctrine of Christ, denoting that He was preaching Christ to the Hellene, as the unknown God, and that Christ was to follow. And the rock that followed them was Christ.

Paul, as the small seed was preaching Christ, the Spirit of God through Paul puts things together. First to the Jew and also to the Hellene. The same Rock that followed the Israelite who became the Jew, also followed the Hellene. God reveals things prophetically.

Jesus, was also asked by the Jews, if He went over to the Greeks to become so knowledgeable. First to the Biblical Jew and also to the Biblical Hellene. The invisible Jew as the circumcised heart, born from water and the invisible Hellene, as the spirit of the mind, born above, born of the Spirit.

The four-dimensional word:

The word of God has to be viewed from different angles, from different levels of understanding, through various symbolic perspectives. The word of God is four dimensional and its magnitude is infinite, as God is infinite.

If the salvation of the soul happens miraculously, by make believe, then, why is it necessary for man to go through the creation and adoption process, while bearing his own cross and in all obedience to the laws of God and to all the divine instructions of the Book of life? Why must every man bear his own cross?

Our natural and temporary existence, without the hope of eternal life, is such a bore and finally pointless, since all mankind is destined to die. Even if we continue the human species and for thousands of years to come, what it will be our goal and final destination?

Who is the man that looks forward to grow old and wither like a flower and his life to end in the tomb? Utterly disregarding the ultimate choice that the word of God puts forward to all mankind, giving food for thought that, if there is no resurrection of the dead, let us eat and drink because tomorrow we die, working for one's own belly, which is exactly the natural destiny of every man, hopeless and despondent without God.

People today only think of themselves, but what about all those who died in the past, especially the millions which have been unnecessary slaughtered during the last two world wars, and who have never enjoyed the beauty of this planet even the Sun light? It is not enough just to remember them, without any lessons learnt.

The same process will be followed by tomorrow's generation, considering our present generation as thing of the past, a generation gone with the wind. What are the lessons of the present corrupt system that today's generation will leave as a legacy for tomorrow's generation?

For thousands of years now, the same pattern of things, corruption and mortality, generation after generation, and nothing new under the Sun. Today's generation want to reach the stars, then what? Man, still will be hunted by corruption and mortality, even when far away from Earth. No matter what technology has to offer, shall never substitute the gift of God of eternal life, man shall never be freed from corruption and mortality, since man's technology is only artificial.

For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: 1Peter 2:20-21

Only the light the scriptures give reason concerning our human condition, and existence, saying: who shall deliver us from this body of death, and from this doom? The scriptures also give the answer: thank God through Jesus Christ the Lord.

This declaration stands a solid promise by the creator of all things referring to the natural and pointing to man. The spiritual is already infinite.

Let us make man:

Points to the man of the animal nature, the primate who was formed through the natural evolution, and the term: in our image and likeness, remains the prophetic declaration unto this very day. This is the mystery and the kept secrets from the foundation of the world, being revealed today, specifically to our generation.

Counterfeit religions base their so-called beliefs on irrational ideologies, not on fact, but on fiction.

Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore, be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. Matthew 10:16

The declaration which the religious utterly rejected and did exactly the opposite. Over the years, they were the ones who tortured and slaughtered more people than all the killer wars put together.

Jesus refers to the religiomaniacs, reliophreniacs and religiophyliacs, as ravenous wolves and as venomous serpents. While Jesus commands His disciples to be wise as serpents and harmless as doves, and bear no malice and love even their enemies...

Jesus declares that the serpent is wise. Obviously, He is not talking about a natural crawling snake, but talking about the opposite of good, talking about evil, because only through evil "wrong doings" lessons are learnt for wisdom to be born.

This is why the talking serpent was coiled around the tree of knowledge, because the evil seed is a branch of knowledge.

Good and evil are two opposing forces, two opposing seeds, the one positive and the other negative and every man suspends between the two.

One can either controls it or becomes overwhelmed by it. There have been so many examples: when suddenly a man takes up a gun and for no apparent and provocative reason, overwhelmed and controlled by evil, he starts shooting at innocent bystanders. Medically, such a crime is expressed as diminished responsibility. The question which is always asked: what makes a man to act in such an inhumane way, and what pushes him to do such a horrendous act?

The good exalts the light, hungers for knowledge and wisdom and generates life and love, while the evil does exactly the opposite. Evil, when obeyed is as the Medusa which turns everything into stone and into dust and ashes.

Wherefore, the essential purpose of both, good and evil, is to give us the aptitude of discernment, for wisdom to be born.

The Biblical literature is God inspired "spiritual" and is for teaching, for reproof and for correction, until fully furnished with knowledge and wisdom. Therefore, fully prepared for the Passover, to crossover the fixed chasm, the great divide between the flesh and the spirit. Between the mundane world and the spiritual, the earthy from the heavenly.

From the valley of the shadow of death and from the house of clay and onto the mansions of the unquenchable light, the mansions of the heavenly and everlasting Kingdom.

The divine word is to teach and to enlighten man that through Christ Jesus, he can defy the laws of nature; the necessity for every man to be created into a living and eternal soul.

Invest in eternal life, invest in Jesus Christ.

Wisdom is achieved after the evil element "force" is exposed, by understanding evil and what is capable of. The only way to choose the good is to perceive and fully understand evil, biblically expressed, as the depths of Satan.

After the spiritual seed is conceived, the battle of division begins between the two seeds, expressed as two "things" two forces within one's members. One law governs the outward and another law governs the inward man, since both have been raised by the knowledge of the laws of God which are symbolically named as the two measures and as the two thirds of water, with reference to the two sides of the laws of God.

The natural man suspends between these two forces, as two masters. Jesus clarifies the fact, adding that man cannot have two masters.

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Romans 7:23

But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. Romans 7:17

Paul by saying it is no longer I who do it, he speaks with his inward man.

The question is: what is the other, the opposite law in one's members? Wherefore, the members in one man, are his two sides, his animal nature and his human nature which is only the one side of man that can put on the divine nature.

The above quotes clearly reveal the two sides of man, within his members, this is why the laws of God have also to sides, as a "two-edged" sword. One side is to kill the flesh and the other side is to give life to the soul. The flesh is the vessel of dishonour and wrath.

To call upon the name of the Living God, denotes that one accepts the existence of God, awoken to righteousness and asks God to guide him, to come under His righteous judgements in order to be justified and be called righteous. Denoting humbleness, which is the purpose of the law. The fact which is confirmed in the Psalms, in the Prophets and also in the Hellenic writings.

Judge me, O Lord, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity within me. Psalm 7:8

For the Lord is our Judge, the Lord is our Lawgiver, the Lord is our King; He will save us; Isaiah 33:22

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. Matthew 6:33

The very purpose of Jesus' spiritual manifestation:

To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke 1:79

Those who sit in darkness and in the valley of the shadow of death and the house of clay, refer to the entire world, who is in darkness not having the light of the knowledge of God, unaware of the purpose for their existence.

Only the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ, the spiritual magnitude of the word, reveals, not only the existence of God and His will, but also, the very purpose for man's existence.

Therefore, when man discovers and fully understands the very purpose for his existence, only then, the shape of this world will begin to change.

We the mortals, in reality we are hopeless, while being hunted by mortality. Mortality, the hunter, neither sleeps nor delays.

After the battle, victory is achieved, then comes peace.

To the victor, it shall be given...the victory over death, breaking, defying the laws of nature by being dressed immortality and incorruptibility.

God foretold and prepared the seed which He promised, through His word of truth, the spiritual seed, the word which is next to you "pleeseon" and in your mouth, the word which was with God and God was and is the word.

The love-grace offering of eternal life, God has ordained even before the foundation of the cosmos and revealed it through His three witnesses. Moses, the Prophets and Jesus, the one who is, who was; and as the Christ the one who is coming.

The Saviour of the soul is anointed by the Father, and also anointed within man. Jesus becomes the Christ and all His true disciples become anointed with Him and are given the authority to be called children "sons" of God.

God implants the spiritual seed inspirationally (hear and learn from the Father) from above into the mind and heart of the man who truly seeks His Kingdom.

It is written that, faith comes through hearing, hearing the word of truth, but up to now, who knew the word of truth, in order to teach it, and for people to hear it?

It is the Father, who has arranged and ordained all things.

If I was to describe in modern terminology, how God works and sends His divine messages to the open minded, I would say that God works telepathically. One receives the message, the revelation like a radio signal. One minute, one struggles to interpret and to understand the hidden behind a Biblical story, and the next minute, as in a flash, instantly, the mind opens and what was previously a riddle and hard to absorb, suddenly it becomes clear.

According to the Hellenic writings, God elevates “snatches”, stretches and opens the mind in order to understand the hidden of His word.

It is even harder to imagine, how does one’s prayers reach God?

The mystery of God is that He works when man is not aware of it, but becomes aware of it afterwards, when one looks back, after one’s mind has been elevated.

I no longer live but Christ lives in me.

However, on a higher level of understanding the true disciple becomes the mother, the brother and the sister of Jesus.

For whoever shall do the will of God, he, is My brother and sister and mother. Mark 3:35

Jesus confirms that the man who shall do the will of God becomes Jesus’ brother, sister and His mother. Brother, refers to the male and sister to the female, where both male and female give birth to the spiritual seed, therefore they become Jesus’ mother.

Jesus by saying brother and sister, refers to man and woman. Revealing that Jesus never degraded the female gender, as of a lower rank.

The name Eve, literally means the mother of the living. The mother of the living, the living soul of Adam and in continuation the living soul of the man of God, pointing to every man who bears the image of Adam, as Adam.

This is why Eve the woman was formed from within Adam, revealing that she is Adam’s living soul. Eve was formed only when God put Adam to sleep, prophetically denoting Adam’s death, the death of the flesh after he eats the fruit of the tree. Jesus clearly portrays Adam, He dies first and then He is born, within man, because the Heavenly Garden with the two trees is implanted inside man’s heart.

While the old man is perishing, the new man is renewed. The perishing and the renewal are a continuous process, until one is fully furnished and fully prepared.

Yet again, this is illustrated and confirmed by Simon-Peter, who portrays the listener, the seed of the spirit and as the inward man, asks Jesus, how many times must I forgive my brother Lord?

Peter was not referring to his blood brother Andrew or to any of his pals, whom out of respect he called brother, but to his own outward man. Jesus substantiates the fact, by saying not seven times, but seventy times seven, you must forgive your brother, until the two become one, until the sanctuary is fully cleansed and the enmity is put to death, purified without spot or blemish, with reference to the Ecclesia.

Simon-Peter, as the example, was called out of the world to follow Jesus’ instructions, Simon-Peter, as the fisherman who gathers “nets in” all the spiritual knowledge of God.

It has to be understood that in order to substantiate one issue, one aspect of the word, many passages and many other factors have to be united and repeated. The scriptures are like a spiral staircase, where one goes around and round, ascending and descending.

The spiritual creation process on an analogous way resembles the formula DNA of the evolutionary ladder, and as the spiritual building blocks of life, the stairway to the heavens.

As one climbs the spiritual ladder, continually increases in knowledge and in wisdom, until all the chambers (mind and heart) are filled with the spiritual knowledge and perfect understanding of the word which increases one’s faith. Building one’s house on the rock foundation doctrine of Christ.

I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You. Job. 42:5

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God...

Faith comes through hearing, but to bear witness to it, one has to see it with one's own eyes, one has to see it and feel it within one's own self. To see is to be enlightened.

God gives man the opportunity and the freedom to choose between life and death, but much more, He offers life over death. It is of personal choice and of free will. God, has never imposed His laws on man, the reason why He lets the world to get on with whatever the world is doing. He never interferes in the world's affairs, only if He is asked.

He already foretold what the carnal man's nature would be. Man, created his own laws, as a reflection to the laws of God.

The animal nature "the outward man" cannot abide in the laws of God, the reason why the outward man has to be crucified, through the renewal of the mind and by the purification of the heart.

The word of God is the gift of love to all mankind, full of instructions to learn of Him by the obedience to His will, in order to overcome the biggest obstacle, which is every earthy man's worst enemy, the inevitable sting of death. God promised that He will take away the sting of death, confirmed by His word of truth, simply by saying:

God decided and foretells the outcome; and therefore, stands as a solid promise.

The natural man needs to be completely conformed and transformed in order to be able to enter into the spiritual dimension, God's spiritual domain "the kingdom of the heavens" in plural, according to the Hellenic text. The Kingdom of the heavens refers to the three spiritual levels of His word.

God does not live in a garden and neither are all they who shall be called His sons; the heirs of His Kingdom which is spiritual and unimaginable.

This He testifies:

What no eye has seen and no ear has heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. 1Cor. 2:9

Salvation of the soul should have been the major concern of all men to devote time and to invest not just for the sake of their flesh, which profits nothing "working only for their own belly", but also to invest, as top priority, for the sake of their soul, invest in God, through Jesus Christ.

People invest in property estates, expressed as climbing the property ladder. They borrow money to purchase a house, which they spend nearly half of their lifetime to pay back, but no one wants to invest for his soul in order to obtain the spiritual house promised by God through Jesus; and start climbing the spiritual ladder also, which does not involve money, but only dedication, which is a great virtue.

Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and give to God what belongs to God.

But Peter said to him: your money, perish with you, because you thought that the gift of God could be purchased with money! Acts 8:20

The above quote was totally denied by the previous so-called Catholic faith who sold certificates of forgiveness, imagining that they had the gift of God and could sell it for money and who built such an elaborate building in tribute to the Apostle Peter, shame, pity and irony that they have never listen to his words.

Peter the abstract biblical character, the example of the true disciple of Jesus who had never set foot in Rome, but only according to Christianity's' mythology. The truth is the truth and must no longer be hidden.

The denial of one's carnal self, begins with the division of the twain, as the outward and as the inward man.

The cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. Mark 4:19

Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! Mark 10:24.
And again, Jesus gives food for thought.

The spiritual seed, is received inspirationally, God breathed:

Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

(Please note: the word out of their hearts, revealing that the word enters the heart, Jesus enters the heart.)

But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away.

Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good (ἀγαθῆ=pure) heart, keep it and bear fruit with patience. Luke 8:11-15

The above declarations are an ingenious masterpiece of the divine literature, denoting the different stages a man has to go through, while in the world, until he denies and leaves behind him the world's beliefs and old traditions, for his heart to be purified in order to receive the spiritual seed. Bearing in mind that, all scripture applies to one man, personally.

The man who truly puts his hope and his trust in God and His Christ, does not let the cares of this corrupt and temporary life to deviate him from reality, not ignoring God's will and truth, despite all hardships.

Everyman must face up to the reality of his temporary existence and human condition and not allow the ephemeral petty things to plunge him into darkness, by the indulgence of the flesh; and lose God's gift offering of eternal life.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Psalm 23:1-3

Over the years, these scriptures have been entering through one ear and coming out of the other. Today, more than ever before, the majority of people are being choked with the cares of this brief life, imposed upon them by the corrupt system which divides and rules this world.

Let no one cheat you of your reward; taking delight in false humility and worship religion of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, grows with the increase that is from God. Col. 2:18-19 (Hellenic text).

The above quote clearly reveals that the increase in spiritual knowledge comes from God, one is taught by God. The issue which is a fact and not fiction and has to be taken seriously.

Make believe cannot broaden any man's horizons "elevate and open the mind" and increase in spiritual knowledge.

Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Ephesians 5:6

Let no one despise your youth (new man in Christ), but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Timothy 4:12

Man's animal nature is not pure; it is mortal and therefore corrupt. This is proven by the corrupt system which governs the entire human race today and by the so-called "elite".

Such as the rich merchants and money changers and money changers who fornicate with Babylon the harlot, expressed as the big society instead of the rich and greedy society.

And on her forehead, a name was written: Mystery, Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the Earth. Rev. 17:5.

History does not lie; it was stained and written with the blood and the burning tears of the poor, and deep sighs of the defenseless, overwhelmed by fear and anguish, caused by the sheer arrogance of the so-called elite, who pass-on their vast wealth and ideologies onto their children's children.

It is about time that the so-called elite together with the religious hierarchs, bowed down in shame and in remorse. They are a disgrace to all humanity, because of their sheer arrogance which are the very causes for our cruel history and dismal past. Who relentlessly, still carry on with their evil deeds.

They are merchants of war; and the ones who have caused the spread of the recent pandemic of violence, the incurable virus of terrorism which right now, through pretense are trying to cure with the humble aspirin, since all the well-known antibiotics no longer work.

They are the ones responsible for all the uprising of radicalism, and of the militant fanatics who did not need a better excuse to start their violent spree. The elite are the culprits for the world's financial crisis and austerity which threatens the stability of peace in the entire world.

The truth is; no aspirin will ever remedy the pandemic of violence which is polluting our planet and destroying the fabric of our society and all in the name of greed and religion, who completely ignore all the instructions of God given through His word.

On one side, stand the atheists who go against God-Theos, which according to them God does not exist, the topic that makes no sense whatsoever, why do they call themselves atheists?

Between the religious radicals and atheist radicals, there is total confusion, a continuous battle of ideas caused by dysfunctional rhetoric, the question is: when will it all end?

There are many who begun their dispute against religion concerning their unorthodox and paradox ways, but at halfway, instead, they turned against God, which yet again, is dysfunctional.

God never imposed on any man to believe in Him, but neither did He ordained any religion, the fact which He confirms in His word. All one has to do, is to open the history window to confirm facts; all religions have always been militant, wolves in sheep's clothing, deceiving the vulnerable and mainly the cause for atheism.

The desire of the elite, the "privileged few" including the religious hierarchs, sometime in the near future, is to abandon Earth and travel into space. The bad news is that there is no greener grass anywhere else, than that of our beautiful and Living Planet, especially the sublime beauty of our oceans and of our rivers, waterfalls and evergreen valleys, our mysterious jungles, the aromatic pine forests and all the snowy mountain tops.

The thing is, after the destruction of our planet and of all mankind there will be no history written, since there will be no one around to write it and no one to read it.

In the meantime, we are still killing our planet and all in the name of greed and false prosperity which carries the pseudonym, called investment.

The concept that future generations, will travel in search for other habitable planets, is nothing more than a shallow dream, especially by all those who consider that our planet together with the entire universe are nearing their expiry date. If that was the case and there is no way out of the valley of death, why do they still reject the offer of God.

Then why, bother to travel and land on some spherical and barren rock, and only within our galaxy and not much further, which is also under the threat of destruction.

The birds need the air to fly and the fish need the water to swim; we humans just the same need both, the air "oxygen" and the water "hydrogen" to stay alive. The two most essential elements for the sustenance of all life, which we cannot export on other planets, and as we speak these two elements are being contaminated.

According to the scientific "big bang" theory, the entire universe came into existence somewhat accidentally. However, for us to come into existence and to find ourselves all alone inside this accidental vacuum bubble, the odds are hyper-astronomical. Many will say that, this is a disagreeable conjecture, because we do not know for sure that we are alone.

Assuming that there are other civilizations in far galaxies; they just like us, are the products of the same astral particles.

Therefore, the possibilities are, they must look exactly like us; they must bear the same features and they are not frog and lizard look alike or weird kinds of insects or even the scientific imaginary flying whales and gigantic bees.

If, they are more advanced than us, since they were made from the same raw materials as us, most definitely they will be war like and greedy for power, manipulative, caring only for reputation and glory, just like us.

Therefore, their top priority will be to conquer and enslave us. However, if they are not advanced, and they are not in the same league as us, we will be the ones to conquer and enslave them instead. The thing is, if they are not advanced, they will not be capable to come here, therefore, we can rest assured and don't lose any sleep.

They just like us, must be overwhelmed with fear and uncertainty, the irrational element of fear which had caused and still causes all the calamities in the world. Mixing fear and uncertainty, is the devil's cocktail for violence and conflict.

But sadly, they just like us earthly mortals, they are also doomed, because, they are mortals just like us, and just as distant from us, as we are from them, and since the cosmos is fast expanding, therefore, they are getting further and further. Therefore, we shall never visit them and they shall never visit us, we shall never get to know one another.

Mother nature, she has played the dirtiest trick on us; just to think that there are other people out there, who just like us have been destined and condemned to walk in the valley of the shadow of death, therefore, never to see us; and us never to see them, it is heart breaking and mind blowing.

They, just like us, are bound down by the same evil which has been tormenting us since the beginning of time and space. The same evil which emerged out of the astral particles and molecules, blended with various gasses, which eventually made us intelligent.

Scientists speak about black holes, although they have never seen a black hole, but in reality that invisible black hole is in our soul, which needs to be filled with the light of the knowledge of God, the light of the gospel of Christ. We have to see the entire universe in our heart and mind, the darkness, as the lack of knowledge of God in our animal nature and the light, all the bright stars, as the knowledge of God in our human side.

The asteroid belt as the stoning of the law, and all the stars, as the innumerable thoughts and ideas which evolve from within our heart and mind. Stars are born and die, as our thoughts are born and die. Our thoughts are infinite whether dark or light.

Your seed shall be innumerable as the stars in the sky; and countless, as the sand by the Sea shore.

The seed, the word of God, as infinite, as God is infinite.

God created the vast Universe for signs and for times...

The invisible evil force that dwells within the heart and mind of our animal nature, is part and parcel of our human condition, which continues to exist until it destroys us, unless we wake up from the deep sleep and defeat it, by the knowledge and wisdom of the good force.

The man who believes that evil was created by dust particles, he had better gather all the loose screws of his brains and all the nuts and bolts of "his mind" and have a proper rethink.

The knowledge of evil goes beyond most people's natural understanding. There is no evil, inside dust particles, evil becomes alive only when man puts evil "dysfunctional thoughts" into motion, and it is a part of intelligence. Evil only manifests when we manifest it through our thoughts, evil, can be defeated when we put good thoughts into use.

Good and Evil as two brothers are part and parcel of knowledge and of wisdom, as the good branch and as the bad branch; and when they are crossed "touch one another" give room to reason; reason is born. After all, what is the true meaning of the cross which is foolishness to the carnal man?

Most people think that the cross are two planks nailed together. Not realizing that the cross refers to the intercourse of good and evil and also the bridge, the crossing over the fixed chasm, the divide between the natural and the Spiritual, the temporary from the everlasting.

The Kingdom of God is: yes, yes and no, no. One either accepts it or rejects it.

As Shakespeare put it: to be or not to be, includes all positive and negative things in life, the question which needs a reasonable answer.

And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their pre-appointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, for we are also His genus. Act 17:26-28

We have good genes and bad genes, truth and lies, intelligence and stupidity, bitterness and sweetness; even the universe is ruled by positive and negative laws, gravity and antigravity laws, expansion and contraction.

Every man should ask two vital questions: first, who gave priority to intelligence (evolution of intelligence, by intelligence) which is a gift not only to man, but also to all the rest of the animal species and second: where does all the evil come from and why? Since up to now no fossil evidence of evil has been found and neither has its source, whilst everyman considers himself to be good. The DNA chromosomes, show no evil.

The Biblical light gives emphasis, to the evil and its source, the adversary of all virtues and all purposely for learning, for reproof and for correction; and both good and evil are essential, since they also become the equilibrium of discernment.

God called the light day and the darkness He called night and God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God refers to knowledge, as the light and the lack of knowledge, as the darkness.

Throughout the centuries many rational men spoke about enlightenment and how important and necessary it is to obtain it, in order to stretch the mind onto unlimited heights.

As soon as the Homo Sapiens Evolved, God left capsules of knowledge, which were spread, word by mouth, concerning God's existence and the existence of the two powerful forces of good and evil.

Plato's allegorical dark cave, it was not Plato's own invention, but what was said by God from the very beginning of time; and what was understood by the ancients who search for wisdom in order to understand the purpose of man's existence and what heights the human intellect could reach.

God refers to knowledge and wisdom as light and the lack of knowledge and wisdom as darkness. God symbolically uses within the Biblical earthly stories, Egypt as the land of darkness, and as the entire world with its worldly and corrupt system, filled with idolatry.

This is why God calls His son, His Son to be, to come out of Egypt, come out of the world of darkness, which is the meaning of the Hellenic word Ecclesia. While the Egyptian represents the carnal man of the animal nature who lives in idolatry and in darkness and keeps the good seed within himself in captivity.

God calls Israel “Jacob” the son to be, and who portrays the overcomer, the supplanter who prophetically was pointing to Jesus who is the spiritual seed, called to come out of Egypt, to come out of the world. Egypt symbolically represents the world, Jesus was forced to go to Egypt, not to be registered by the Romans through King Herod. This reveals that Jesus is free from the law; and to prove that Jesus is not of this world, as He testifies that, He is from above.

The reason Jesus did not go to the world, but stayed within the boundaries of the Promised Land.

From another level of understanding, the Biblical Egyptian and the Biblical Israelite have to be seen as one man, called out of the world, separated from the world's vanities, God puts division between the Egyptian and the Israelite. The Israelite as the man in the light; and the Egyptian as the man in the darkness.

Although the Egyptian was an idolater, as the reflection of the animal nature, still, he believed in the afterlife, but not parting with his earthly treasures, fulfilling the written: For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Therefore, taking all his earthy treasures with him to the grave, as a parallel to the inward and spiritual man “named by God as Israel” who stores his riches in heaven.

Jesus reverses the whole belief of the carnal man, saying; do not store riches on earth, but store riches in heaven, adding that, even if you were to gain the whole world and lose your soul at the end of the day, adds up to nothing. And there is nothing, there is no fixed price that a man can offer in exchange for his soul.

The spiritual magnitude of the portrayal of the Egyptian and the Israelite hasn't as yet been understood, since it has been taken only literally. The same with the Jew and the Hellene.

However, every Egyptian firstborn was put to death by the tenth plague, prophetically pointing to the judgements of the law, expressed as plagues. We notice that only after the death of the Egyptian firstborn, Pharaoh admitted that the God of Moses was the true God, but still, it did not deter Pharaoh in pursuing the Israelites. Although the Egyptian Pharaoh, portrays the mortal flesh and was plagued by the law and lost his firstborn, still, he had to pursue Israel who portray the spiritual seed. Prophetically, that was to reveal, that no man can be justified by the law alone, but by the law of faith in Christ, which was to come.

For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His Own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin, He condemned sin in the flesh. Romans 8:3 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. Romans 3:27

That the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. Rom 8:3-4

The Israelites, as the spiritual seed, while in slavery were forced to make mud, clay brigs mixed with straw, mixed with chaff, which cryptically signifies the chaff of the world, the rudiments of the world, all the deceptions, all the vanities and idolatries of the world. The chaff bears no arable seed.

The spiritual man builds his house only upon the rock foundation doctrine of Jesus Christ, and not on mud, clay brigs filled with the chaff of the world. However, at the end Pharaoh told Israel to find their own straw to make Pharaoh's clay brigs, denoting that there is more depth to the story of brig making.

You also, as living stones, “λίθοι ζῶντες=living rocks” are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 1Peter 2:5

Reciting the literal, is reciting an enigma, a riddle, and every riddle written, serves a purpose and has depth, and also has an answer, because the one who makes up the riddle, already knows the answer. Working out the biblical riddle though needs divine inspiration, from the one who wrote the riddle in the first place.

Wherefore, the Biblical Egypt has nothing to do with the actual country of Egypt. The Biblical Egypt signifies the system of the carnal world; the scriptures also, speak about the spiritual Egypt, the question is: where is the spiritual Egypt?

The natural Egyptian Pharaohs are still with us today and continue to prosper, whether by hook or by crook.

Next to the land of Egypt, is the low land, the humble land, the land of Canaan, which yet again symbolically reflects the spiritual Land of the promise and also the humble man's heart, which is kept in captivity by the worldly system.

Egypt was one of the great civilizations of the ancient times and its people believed in the after- life. The Pyramids were astronomical and astrological symbols, a reflection of the three stars of Orion; and the Pharaohs burial place. Who believed that they themselves were gods and after their natural demise, they will travel into the spiritual world. Assuming that the sky and the planets above were the spiritual heavens. Pharaoh, literally means “great house” and symbolizes man's head.

Some even say that the Pyramids were built by visitors from another planet, especially the great Sphinx, which literally means demon. Pity that the alien visitors left no written documents to the Egyptians, like God did with His word.

Also, very strange is that the Egyptians a much older civilization than Israel, left so many remnants behind, such as their palaces and their pyramids, their hieroglyphic writings, whereas Israel, a younger nation, left no remnants of their palaces and most of their ancient cities, two countries which are almost next to each other. Such as, the palace of King Saul, of King David and also of His son Solomon, who was ever so rich.

The question which must be asked:

Why did the Lord kill only the firstborn males of all the Egyptians, and not their firstborn females and why give more emphasis on the death of the firstborn of the Pharaoh, who previously did the same, by killing the firstborn males of the Israelites and not their firstborn females?

It would have been more conceivable, if the Egyptians killed the females and kept the males alive, since it is always the male slaves who carry out most of the hard work and not the females.

I have already written about the spiritual significance of the two, the Egyptian and the Israelite, but I considered it relevant to mention yet again, as food for thought in order to urge Bible readers to put forward the question to themselves, the question that Philip asked the Ethiopian eunuch.

Do I understand what I am reading?

However; According to certain historical records, Plato visited the land of Egypt and communicated with the Egyptian Priests who believed in the afterlife. The Greeks also, believed in the afterlife, but one had to descend into Hades first, before he ascended onto heaven. On the other hand, the Hebrews also believed in the afterlife, and also in Hades which in Hebrew is called Sheol.

We can notice a lot of similarities, concerning the beliefs of the Egyptians and the Greeks, especially the Greeks and the Hebrews.

Plato's fascination about the afterlife drove him to write the imaginary story of Atlantis, which up to now many people considered that Atlantis was a real city, which by some disastrous event disappeared never to be found. Plato's Atlantis, more than certain was an imaginary spiritual utopia and not a natural city. The Greeks believed that Mount Olympus was the dwelling place of their 12 gods, while the Hebrew writings say that Mount Zion is the house of God. When the two are compared, there is a certain similarity between them. The only difference between the two is that Mount Olympus is visible and tangible, while Mount Zion is invisible and Spiritual.

Modern man underestimates the intelligence and knowledge of the ancients. Archimedes about two thousand five hundred years ago, built a mechanical computer, an achievement beyond belief.

According to the Hellenic Mythology, Atlas was the titan God of endurance and of astronomy and held the heavens and the Planet Earth on his shoulders. Wherefore, it is more than certain that Plato named his imaginary utopian city, after the name of Atlas, which means that Atlantis never existed on Planet Earth.

Many physicists, archaeologists, historians and others, spent years investigating and excavating, hoping that the lost city of Atlantis, will somehow emerge, somewhere on our planet, possibly amongst the Greek islands, but nothing was ever found.

The point being made is that how things become exaggerated and out of proportion, from mouth to mouth over the centuries, just the same with the literal of the scriptures; and when they are mixed together with manmade fantasies and pagan beliefs, they become fairy tales. The biggest fantasy and pagan tradition of Christianity is the so-called Father Christmas. Everyone knows that such a person does not exist, but still, they carry on year after year brainwashing their children with same lie.

This proves that most of Christianity neither read nor understand the scriptures. They have never been taught and given the understanding why Jesus becomes the Christ?

The majority of Christianity jumps the wagon as they saying goes, prefer to leapfrog to the top of the ladder without climbing the ladder, maybe because sweating leads to dehydration; and the ones who read the scriptures they misinterpret them, because they take them literally. The same with Judaism and Islam, while Eastern religions have invented their own gods and goddesses.

It is very strange that the three magi who came from the East, visited and saw Jesus' birth; they never said a word, never spoke about Jesus to the eastern world, except in the Babylonian traditional belief it was foretold that a virgin will give birth to a son, but never understood what was the true symbolism of the virgin.

If someone comes and tells you that a virgin woman gave birth to a child, you will raise your eyebrows in amazement and disbelief. Firstly, because it is an impossibility, wondering how did it happen, without a male partner. Secondly, because a virgin woman does not know in advance whether she can bear children or not, therefore, she does not seek medical help and neither artificial insemination. Thirdly she has to get married and have a male partner, and when she finds out that she cannot bear children, then she seeks medical help.

On the other hand, perhaps evolution has played a trick, and young virgin women, begun to give birth without male partners, which will be the end of male domination, the return of the Amazons is nigh. Only common sense can separate fact from fiction.

When I was studying ancient Greek in college many moons ago, we read a story about a man who went to his mother and said to her: mother I want to get married. His mother looked at him and said to him, son, Ouketi Kairos, meaning that it is not yet your time for marriage. Years went by and the man went back to his mother and said to her, mother I want to get married; and his mother looked at him and said to him: son, Oupo Kairos, meaning that your time has passed, you left it too late.

The moral of the story? We should not postpone for tomorrow, what he can do today.

The same applies to all men concerning the spiritual understanding of the scriptures, do not ignore and abandon concerning the understanding and purpose of our temporary existence, and reject the gift of God which He offers today, because tomorrow it might be too late...

However: Jesus testifies that God uses the natural as symbolic means to teach us the spiritual, saying: I tell you earthly things and you do not believe, what if I tell you of heavenly things? Jesus clearly confirms that behind the earthly things, in hidden, lie spiritual knowledge.

People instead of saying, yes Lord, speak to us about the heavenly things, they do exactly the opposite, because the earlier generations took the word literally and chose to believe the earthly stories, completely ignoring the heavenly. The same ignorance still, carries on today.

Not many as yet have actually realized that God, although He offers the gift of eternity, He offers it only to the man who is willing to follow His divine instructions, to the one man who shall become worthy of it.

Lose your life for to find your life; and he who loses his life for my sake... sums it all up.

Every living creature on our planet, from the tiniest to the largest, has to work hard, and only to earn its earthy living. Man, though, the most intelligent has the privilege of both worlds?

Eternal life has to be earned; to the victor it shall be given, confirmed by Jesus' commandment.

He who does not bear his cross he is not my disciple. To bear the weight of one's own cross, it means that one is responsible for his own life, for his own salvation. Man, must honour his soul.

Jesus also testifies that His words are Spirit, therefore, spiritual and only the Spirit gives life, but the letter kills. For this, Jesus emphasizes: you search the scriptures believing that in them you will find eternal life and to me you do not come; since the scriptures testify and point to me.

Jesus, in a roundabout and ingenious way, He is telling us not to believe the earthly stories, but that which is hidden behind the earthly stories; expressed as the heavenly things?

I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things, kept secret from the foundation of the world.

This means that the hidden of the scriptures has to be worked out, but how? By the help of the Spirit of wisdom and revelation; and they shall all be taught by God. The prophetic commandment which stand as the promise of God, which no longer must be ignored.

The symbolisms of the biblical Jericho, Bethlehem and Jerusalem:

The true disciple in the days of his flesh, is likened and begins as Jericho, and after being chastised by the laws of God, his fortified walls are demolished and tested by fire, he continues until he becomes Bethlehem, because he has already conceived the spiritual seed and waits to give birth to Jesus. He waits for God to manifest within his flesh.

Jesus is the one who resurrects man's mortal soul into a living soul, because as the spiritual and life giving spirit is born within man's soul. Flesh of my flesh and bone of my bones.

To be born spiritually is to be born anew, become alive in the spirit of the mind.

It has to be understood that the creation process happens gradually, one step at a time.

The true disciple, only when full of age and spiritual maturity and as a living soul becomes Jerusalem and after many tests of faith, expressed as ten days of tribulation, yet again points to the judgements of the law.

One waits for the spiritual city, the New Jerusalem to descend. This is why the righteous shall live by faith, believing, trusting upon God's promises, testified by Jesus.

The understanding:

Demolish the walls of Jericho and build the walls of Jerusalem, the city with the twelve gates.

One cannot take this scripture literally, because it is physically impossible. No man can or wants to demolish the walls of the natural Jericho today, which has no fortified walls anyway. Also, no man today can build the walls of the natural Jerusalem, the walls of natural Jerusalem are already standing. This means it is only a prophetic and symbolic gesture, a sign, concealing spiritual meaning.

The scriptures must not be seen, as part of history, a historical record although it mentions historical figures or as a literature of the past written by mere men.

Today! One has to demolish the walls of his own Jericho in order to become Bethlehem and build the walls of his own Jerusalem. The heart and mind-soul of the one man who bears the image of Adam, which is the actual Promised Land, where the spiritual seed must enter.

The Promised Land, the Kingdom of God within.

Wherefore, Jericho, Bethlehem and Jerusalem represent one man, passing through three stages of spiritual learning, which biblically is expressed as passing through three tabernacles.

Paul, substantiates this fact, when on his way to Rome to give testimony to Caesar, Julius Augustus, he reached the three taverns.

The name Julius Augustus is given as a key factor, a cryptic clue; because July is the seventh month and August is the eighth month, as 7 and 8, which refer to the seventh day, the day of the Lord, the day of rest, while the eighth day refers to the resurrection, the resurrection of Jesus as the Christ. Until Christ is formed. Also, the cryptic numbers 7 and 8 refer to the two covenants, the seven covenants of the Hebrew writings and the eighth and new covenant of the Hellenic writings. When all the seven covenants of the Old are fulfilled make up the eighth New covenant.

One has to put all things together, all the fragments of the heavenly bread together, into one basket. The basket obviously, refers to man's head and mind.

The book of Genesis (4:9-18) speaks about the chief baker who saw himself in a dream carrying three baskets on his head and inside the top basket were all kinds of baked goods, for the Pharaoh. The chief baker wanted to know the meaning of his dream, asking Joseph to interpret his dream.

The above earthy story, firstly, it points to the parable of the sower, secondly, to the three-dimensional magnitude of the three levels of the laws, of the word, expressed as three days, and thirdly, points to the death of the flesh by the judgements of the law and to Jesus who is the example of the sinful flesh, who is crucified, hanged on the tree. The chief baker was hang on the tree.

While the lifting of the Chief Bakers head "cutting off his head" refers to the renewal of the mind, Jesus is purposely crucified, hang on the tree, on the hill called Golgotha, meaning Skull and refers to the head.

Also, was the chief cupbearer "wine maker" who saw in his dream three branches of vine who produced clusters of grapes and he squeezed them and filled a cup of wine and gave it to the Pharaoh and his life was spared.

The Chief Baker and the Wine Maker scenario was prophetically pointing to the Hellenic writings, fulfilled by Jesus and after by Paul.

Jesus testifies that in the tome of the book it is written about me; and that the scriptures are they which testify of me. Adding that you search the scriptures to find eternal life in them and to me you do not come. Revealing that Jesus walks invisibly right through the tome of the book, and only by the elevation of the mind "through spiritual enlightenment" Jesus can be seen, only then one recognizes Jesus. Revealed by the two witness Moses and the Prophets.

Therefore, it is through the teaching and testimony of Jesus that the hidden of the word becomes visible. Biblically expressed as the things not seen.

Up to now, the three so-called monotheistic religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam, failed to recognize Jesus Christ within the Old Testament. Judaism, completely ignores the Hellenic writings, by failing to recognize Jesus. Christianity ignores the Hebrew writings, because they fail to recognize Jesus in them, while Islam is a confused mixture of the two, of Judaism and Christianity. Although it is written in the Quran, that God gave birth to a son, and whose name must be obeyed by all, still, they cannot recognize Jesus as the only Saviour.

Within the Hellenic writings, the three baskets become three tabernacles, also expressed as three taverns, a drinking place, for water and wine, cryptically illustrating that the bread turns into water and the water into wine.

Cursed is the man who hangs on the tree, prophetically pointing to Jesus. Jesus becomes a curse to save us, by being hanged on the tree. Illustrating that it is the tree of knowledge which brings death to the flesh, hanged on the two branches (crossed) of the tree of knowledge.

Jesus also, testifies that He is the vine and the branches are His disciples.

Joseph, while in the dudgeon, whose name literally means increase, narrates the story of the chief baker, with three baskets filled with bread and the chief wine maker with the three branches of vine which fill a cup of wine. Speaks about the increase of the spiritual knowledge of the bread and what it really signifies and pointing to the law, which kills the flesh. While the wine refers to the Spirit of the word, which gives life.

Jesus was tested three times; and three times, He had the answer. Jesus, as the example of the earthy man Adam was tested on every level of the spiritual understanding of the word, this is why He said, it is written.

Jesus testifies: this is the third time I come to you, and on the third day I shall restore, rebuild the Temple of God; on the third day, He was risen, on the third day Jesus goes to the wedding and so forth.

Jesus comes with three hidden loaves, Jesus is the third and faithful witness, but also the first, Before Abraham I am. I am the living one who became dead and now I live forever. I am the Alpha and the Omega. Jesus as the first Adam and Christ as the last Adam, wherefore, Jesus Christ is the Alpha and the Omega Adam, walking "descending" from the Garden and the third heaven all the way to Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Denoting His birth, death and resurrection within the one man who dares to bear the image of Adam.

To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?

It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour till it was all leavened.
Luke 13:20-21

The woman refers to the flesh, refers the man who wants to know the leaven of the heavenly bread, while the leaven, refers to the hidden and spiritual knowledge of the word; the spiritual knowledge of the three measures and of the three witnesses, Moses, the Prophets and Jesus, likened as three tabernacles or tents. The leaven is what makes the bread to rise.

The fact which Simon-Peter illustrates, while under the power of the Holy Spirit, when on the Mountain of Metamorphosis. Saying: Let us put up three tents, one for you Lord, one for Elijah and one for Moses. Simon-Peter the example of the true disciple portraying the listener and the seed of the Spirit.

The man attacked by thieves, while descending to Jericho and who was left half dead, denotes the torments of the law against the fleshy man, while he is chastised by the law, expressed as descending into Hades, but he was not abandoned, Jesus, as the good and companionate Samaritan, rescues him. Jesus saves him and anoints him with oil and wine.

The oil and the wine represent the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus gave him two denarii, fulfilling the written, three measures of barley for one denarius and a measure of wheat for a denarius and do not harm the oil and the wine.

Jesus points to the feeding of the 5000 and the 4000. The 5000 were fed with barley bread, denoting the bread of affliction "the law" and the 4000 were fed with wheat bread, referring to the hidden manna, the revelation and understanding of the law and of the prophetic word.

At the feeding of the 5000, 200 denarii were offered to buy barley bread; and when the three measures of barley are multiplied by the 200 denarii equals 600. 12 baskets were gathered with 50 fragments in each basket, 12x50=600 fragments of the barley bread. The 50 fragments point to the authentic number of books, of the Hebrew and the Hellenic writings; 24+26.

Also, the number 50 is the principle key number of the Hellenic writings with reference to the fiftieth day, Pentecost, when the spirit descends, while the principle key number of the Hebrew writings is 40. The number 40 points to the law and the number 50 points to the spirit.

All scripture must be correlated:

500 saw Him ascend and the same 500 shall see Him descend. 5000:10=500 and 4000:8=500.

The numbers 10 and 8 refer to the two covenants, of water and blood, the law and the spirit.

The key number 500 must be correlated with Noah, Noah was 500 when he bore three sons, referring to the three spiritual levels of the word of God. The Lord through Noah illustrates and also reveals the three spiritual levels of His word, and Noah at 600 (one hundred-fold) he received the outpouring, the flood of knowledge to withstand the judgements of the laws of God.

God prepares the way of the true disciple, before he comes under the judgements of the law. God warns Noah that the flood is coming.

From Noah onto Jesus is 51 generations multiplied by the three levels (3) or three measures, equals 153, the number of fish that Simon-Peter caught in the net, Simon-Peter netted in all the spiritual knowledge from Noah unto Jesus, who appeared to him and to the other six disciples, led by Thomas, the one called the "the twin" and for the third time, by the Sea of Galilee.

Noah was the tenth from Adam and the eighth into the Ark. Noah reached the spiritual age of 950 and point to the 600 fragments of the law gathered in twelve baskets at the feeding of the 5000 and the 350 fragments gathered in seven baskets at the feeding of the 4000.

Adam was 900 plus 30 and Noah was 900 plus 50. When 900 is divided by 30 equals 30. According to Luke's genealogy account, Jesus began at 30 and this is to unite Jesus with Adam; and 900 divided by 50 equals 18, and points to the 18 water jars used right through the entire scriptures. Also, 19x50=950 points to the 19 baskets 12+7 of the 5000 and of the 4000.

Six Jars filled from the spiritual knowledge of Moses, six Jars filled from the spiritual knowledge of the Prophets and six stone Jars filled from the spiritual knowledge and testimony of Jesus.

As it has been revealed, the jars also refer to man's head and mind. Man, as the clay vessel. The Lord Calls Planet Earth; the House of clay, clay people, clay vessels.

Jesus being the fulfillment of Moses and of the Prophets uses only six, but stone jars containing two to three measures, which includes Moses and the Prophets, as the two measures, while the third measure is Jesus Himself at the wedding at Cana.

At Jesus's commandment, the Six Stone Jars were filled by the servants (by Moses and the Prophets) with water, which the Lord Jesus changes into wine, fulfilling Moses and the Prophets. The waters must turn red, the Law is Holy and Spiritual, that is the law of the Spirit. The clay Jars become Stone Jars and point to the stone-rock foundation doctrine of Christ. (Read article wedding at Cana).

Jesus while on the cross said to the man who repented: Today you are with me in Paradise, denoting that the crucifixion of the flesh happens by the elevation of the mind onto the third heaven, meaning that it happens through spiritual knowledge and understanding. Likewise, it reveals that the crucifixion of Jesus and of every true disciple not only begins from the third heaven, the Paradise of God, but also ends there. God takes Adam from the world (out of Egypt) and places him inside the Garden.

And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. Rev. 11:8

Question: was Jesus really crucified in Sodom and Egypt? Of course, He was, Jesus is crucified within each and every man, every son who is in Egypt, the reason God calls him to come out of Egypt, which refers to the world. This is why, symbolically, Egypt represents the world and the corrupt system of the world, full of vanities and idolatries that keep the truth in captivity. Sodom means, burning referring to the burning of the flesh.

I called my son from Egypt; The above quote clearly reveals that we cannot take the scriptures just literally, without understanding their allegorical language, without understanding their spiritual magnitude. I called my son, refers to the man who accepts the high calling. I call my son in singular, because God is personal.

When God called Jacob to come out of Egypt, He was prophetically pointing to Jesus. This is why Jesus is the one who walks right through the entire scriptures, as the one who lives forever.

The case scenario of Sodom and Gomorrah, yet again correlates the entire scriptures, two descended to Sodom and Gomorrah, as the two spies who descended into Jericho. The only difference is that the two who descended to Jericho were hidden, but the two who descended to Sodom and Gomorrah were visible. Prophetically announcing that the word of God, shall not be hidden forever, but only for a time, with reference to Moses "the law" and the Prophets, the prophetic word, what was written and what was spoken aforetime.

Lot's wife, which represents his flesh, she looked back, because the flesh is always rebellious, designating that the burning desires of the flesh have to be totally destroyed, not a stain or a blemish; she turned into a pillar of salt, into dust and ashes, Lot was freed from his fleshy old man.

As I have mentioned, many people have tried and still, are trying to marry the natural with the spiritual, but they find no evidence of the natural.

Like the hierarchs of counterfeit Christianity, they accept the water baptism as a physical act, but not the crucifixion. But neither the Biblical water baptism is a physical act nor the crucifixion, and since the Lord commands everyone to lift up and to carry his own cross. Become co-planted with Him in His death. Even if one was to nail himself on a cross and offered his body to be burned, still, will not save his soul. Body mutilation is not recommended by God and neither does it commend us to God. The salvation of the soul is only achieved through spiritual knowledge and wisdom.

Now, the intricacy: According to the Hebrew writings the fortified city of Jericho was completely destroyed, burnt into dust and ashes, but according to the Hellenic writings, the city of Jericho was not destroyed, since Jesus passed through Jericho, the place where He met the man named Zacchaeus, which literally means "pure". Denoting that after the burning of the flesh comes purity.

But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the Lord. Joshua 6:24

Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying: Cursed before the Lord is the man who rises up and builds this city Jericho; with the loss of his first-born he shall lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he shall set up its gates. Joshua 6:26

Gathered into the Temple, referring to the understanding and the purpose of the law, gathered by the true disciple, who is the Temple of God.

The above two quotes speak very clearly, that with the loss of his first-born, he shall lay its foundation, refers to the death of the carnal outward man, by the crucifixion of the flesh, which is the foundation doctrine of Christ "preaching Christ crucified" and with the loss of his youngest son, refers to the sacrifice of the righteous inward new man, with whom he shall set up its gates, the gates of heaven.

It is by the sacrifice of the righteous man, that the unrighteous is saved, with reference to the twain. Jesus the righteous puts His life down for the unrighteous. Wherefore, in depth the righteous, is one's inward man, who forgives his brother not seven times, but seventy times seven, until total purification and holiness.

In order to become co-planted with Him, not only in His suffering but also in His death, Jesus has to be born in man, bearing the image of the first Adam, as the true disciple. This means that Jesus is crucified together with the true disciple and the true disciple is crucified with Jesus, the very reason, Jesus claims, he who does not eat His flesh (unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man) has no life in Him.

One becomes one flesh with Jesus. I shall replace your stone heart, with a fleshy heart.

The Hellenic writings substantiate the very fact: with Christ, I was crucified and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.

I thank God through Jesus Christ who offered Himself for me.

The word of God is infinite as God is infinite. From knowledge to greater knowledge, from height to greater heights and from glory to everlasting glory.

Jesus is the one who portrays Joshua and who curses the man who rises up and tries to rebuild the city of Jericho, by pointing to the carnal man who has already been judged by the laws of God and was burnt into dust and ashes. Denoting that, once you take the decision of the death sentence, you do not turn back, you do not look back. No man ploughs his field looking backwards.

Also, Jericho means the place of fragrance, referring to the man who offers himself as a living sacrifice, a sweet aroma unto the Lord...

Evidently, Rahab, the harlot, who portrays the carnal man, is saved by the promise of the two spies, who are none other than Moses and the Prophets, whom she "hid" kept in her upper room, kept in her head.

The word of God inspirationally enters the head and mind and searches the heart of man, through the spiritual teaching of Moses and of the Prophets, as two spies, as the two measures and as the two witnesses. The city of Jericho was surrounded by the Israelites, who symbolize the spiritual seed, sounding trumpets and for seven days. God was imparting His laws to the carnal man through judgements, because he stood the main obstacle to enter the Promised Land.

This reveals that, it is our natural man, our animal nature, who considers the things of the Spirit of God as foolishness that stops us, who blinds us, closing the eyes of our mind not to see and to face reality, the reality and purpose for our temporary existence, therefore, rejecting the precious gift offer of God. It becomes clear that the biblical city of Jericho is symbolic and has nothing to do with the actual city of Jericho, but only represents the carnal man, the man who comes under the judgements of the laws of God, to be rebuilt into a new man, into a new creation.

You also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

For in Scripture it says: See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame. 1Peter 2:5-6

Open you gates for the king of glory to enter; and who is the king of glory? The Lord of Hosts.

Open the gates of your heart, open the gates, the eyes of you mind and all the senses of your entire being.

Jesus is always knocking on the door of the heart, and the man who opens his heart to Him, Jesus will enter, and will break and share the spiritual bread with him.

The Biblical Sion:

Sion is a reflection of two parallels, one on earth the other in heaven: the earthly Jerusalem, as the man Temple of God on earth and the heavenly New Jerusalem as his Spiritual body in heaven.

Sion: literally has a double meaning "parched-barren place and Lofty".

Parched place is the Earthly and the Lofty is the heavenly, the man on Earth and the man in heaven; the Ecclesia below and above. Sion evidently, is another name for the New Jerusalem.

Sing praises to the Lord, who dwells in Sion! Declare His deeds among the people. Psalm 9:11

Out of Sion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth. Psalm 50:2

In Salem, also is His tabernacle, and His dwelling place in Sion. Psalm 76:2

He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. And I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of the heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name. Rev. 3:12

Then I, John, saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Rev. 21:2

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. Rev. 21:10-11 (John's quote clearly speaks prophetically about the elevation of the mind).

But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. Rev 21:22-23

(Temple: means sanctuary and refers to God who is our only sanctuary and our preservation)

God is the unquenchable light, symbolically expressed as the Sun of righteousness; and His light is the Excellency of the knowledge of Christ and the life of all that which exist.

The Moon, is the light that shines in darkness and appears in three stages and controls the water tides on earth, the moon stands as a spiritual sign and symbolizes the light of the knowledge of the Laws of God.

"Your laws Lord are a lamp to my feet".

The woman clothed with the Sun and the Moon under her feet, designating spiritual enlightenment by the elevation of the mind, while walking in the laws of God.

The Moon, as a spiritual sign, as the test of time, for years and times, symbolizes the three measures and three loaves of bread which become one loaf, when the moon is full.

This is why the Moon must turn red, the bread must turn into water and the water must turn into wine, denoting the fulfillment of both covenants, of the water and of the blood.

The first sign of Jesus: the wedding at Cana, where Jesus turned the waters red. Jesus begins His teaching from the end and goes back to the beginning denoting the marriage of Christ with the Ecclesia and pointing back to Adam and Eve, the Garden and the third heaven wedding.

His first sign, the wedding at Cana of Galilee and His first speech is the parable of the sower, the knowledge, which when conceived and understood builds up, creates the man of God.

All things spoken and written were for our admonition today, at least for those who have ears and want to hear.

Fact:

The natural city of Jerusalem although it has been named as the place of peace, on the contrary, it has always been a place of turmoil and of wars, which since the very beginning of time it has never seen peace. The reason why we cannot take the scriptures literally, and believe that the natural land of Canaan, today's Israel, is and was the land of milk and honey and not accepting that it is only allegorical and that the land of Canaan symbolizes the heart of the spiritual man.

Biblically named as Israel and as the Jew, the Jew which cannot be seen, the Jew of the circumcised heart and not by the mutilation of the body.

For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh; but he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men but from God. Romans 2:28-29

The Hellenic writings abolish the letter of the word and establishes the Spirit of the word. The old must become new, but only when one reaches the understanding of the two sides of the laws of God.

Please note: the above quote does not say the Jew, but a Jew, which means that a Jew can be any man and from any nationality, the fact which is confirmed on the day of Pentecost: where 3000 devout Jews from all the nations were saved.

The Jew of any nationality is the man who seeks the true God and offers himself to learn from Him; the man who eats the fragments of the twelve loaves, contained in nineteen baskets.

Even the name Muslim, refers to the man who offers himself to learn from God, whereas the true Christian is the man who puts on Christ, becomes as the Christ himself. Alas the three of them, Jew, Christian and Muslim, took the names and turned them into religions.

The truth that the three so-called Monotheistic religions are not serving God, is proven by the fact that the three of them base their beliefs on different doctrines, portraying a God of division, of confusion and of violence. History does not lie.

The Land of Canaan:

When the Canaanites were forced to "migrate" to the land of Egypt because of famine, despite the fact that the biblical Land of Canaan, is the land which flows milk and honey, which cannot suffer famine.

This proves that the natural land of Canaan has nothing to do with the biblical and spiritual Land of Canaan, since it did not produce milk or honey. No grass, no livestock and no milk; no flowers, no bees and no honey.

Today's land of Israel it has never been called by the outside world as the Hebrew land, but only by the scriptures. Religious Christianity call it the holy land.

Is the Island of Patmos a holy place or holy land? What about Ephesus, Laodicea, Corinth, Salonica, Philippi, Rome, Athens and so many other Biblical places, are they all holy places and holy lands?

Islam, considers Mecca and the dome as holy places, just the same with all the religions, each and every one have their own holy places and holy lands.

In the past people believed that an erupting volcano, expressed the wrath of their god, they believed that inside the volcano lived their god, therefore, it was holy, sacred.

What is the difference today, when the majority of Christianity believe that even tap water is holy? And that at Easter, god sends down His holy light as the call it; and lights up their candles. On the other hand, Eastern religions believe that river water is also holy.

People they can believe whatever they like, but as long as it is not outside reason and tolerance.

God is telling man to become holy, as He is Holy and not to worship the ground that he walks on.

Most of the manmade religions have kept their followers in darkness, and they do not allow them to advance and to go forward and catch up with the twenty-first century and to escape from the dark ages. The word of God is to enlighten and to advance a person in knowledge and in wisdom, and not to plunge him into total darkness; and to believe whatever superstition, while all the religious so-called canons are manmade superstitions.

Mount Sinai is not in Israel, it has never been found, it is an abstract biblical place, where God told Moses that he is standing on holy ground, therefore, where is the holy ground? One has to use his logic and ask; why does God allow so much turmoil in the place called holy land?

God calls the entire planet Earth, the House of Clay and the valley of the shadow of death.

It is about time that all the religious people left behind their medieval traditions and superstitions and take the word of God seriously and accept that the Biblical Literature is spiritual and only spiritually can be discerned.

The truth is the truth and cannot be swept under the carpet, and all because a so-called religious brainwashed man cannot reason with reality, whose mouth speaks different to that of his heart, while his thoughts are five steps and follow behind him.

My compassion, my wish and my prayer to God, is to save all humanity despite race and colour, religion and status, not one soul must be lost; and that all men, come to the unity of the same Spirit. No more conflict and no more discrimination, but tolerance and brotherly love, while God reveals that any house divided shall not stand.

In all sincerity, I hope that my manuscripts open the eyes of many to the spiritual levels and magnitude of the word of God, which took many years of hard work to receive and to understand. I hope that people come to understand through the word of God the very purpose for our existence and what is the will of God for us; and above all to know that God does exist and we are not alone and lost in space.

We are social creatures and the greatest reward and sublime feeling for all of us, is when we know that we are loved, respected and appreciated. Like a child when in his mother's arms; feels her soft touch and kind love, but much more than that, is knowing that the supreme being, the Lord God, who created us and all things, loves us and cares for our soul.

It is written that, not a hair of your head shall be lost. (unless it is the will of God) And by your patience possess "conquer" your souls. Luke 21:18-19

It is also written that, Jesus' disciples shall be hated by all, for Jesus' name sake. Jesus claims that He was hated by all, mainly referring to the religious hierarchs, the scribes and the Pharisees, who still carry on with their theatrical rituals and orchestrated sermons.

We do not see many people hating their religious hierarchs, since they claim that they are Jesus' servants, who love to be worshipped as gods. It is also written that the world loves only its own.

The question is: How can a person possess "conquer" his own soul, without obtaining the spiritual knowledge and understanding of the word of God?

To conquer one's soul (according to the Hellenic text) is to know Jesus, because only through Him one becomes aware that he has a soul, a valuable soul. Man, should save his soul and not lose it, because of ignorance.

It is written that the Gospel is preached, after John's baptism; and the only person who can preach the Gospel, is to one's own self, one forces one's own self to learn. Through the teaching of Moses and of the Prophets the two sides of the laws of God, one side kills the flesh and the other gives life to the soul, one reaches the baptism of John. This means that through the knowledge of the law, the schoolmaster, one is born above and born from water.

Jesus, only after He received John's Baptism, only then, God voiced from heaven, this is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased, referring to every son who does His will and in all obedience to His laws.

One completes, fulfills the requirements of the law, being scourged and chastised, then John is cut off, beheaded, denoting renewal of the mind.

Then, the Gospel of Christ takes over and by knowing, by having received the two measures of spiritual knowledge, born above and born from water, made known by the two witnesses Moses and the Prophets. One understands the Gospel of Christ, one understands the fulfillment of Jesus; and who is the third measure and the faithful witness, who fulfills Moses and the Prophets.

The fulfillment refers to the Spirit and fire baptism, born of the Spirit, one receives the three full measures. Two thirds of water which become three thirds of wine, the law and the Spirit, as one.

John's words: I baptize you in water, denoting "baptism into death by grace" but the one who is coming after me, He shall baptize you in Spirit and in fire. I must decrease for He to increase. Jesus takes over, and from there on Jesus becomes the teacher.

This is why in the fullness of time God sent forth His son (the Spirit) to be born of a woman and under the law. The fullness of time is when the disciple receives John's baptism, born from water, born by the laws of God, born above; and the woman is one's heart-soul which is under the law, until John's baptism. Moses and the Prophets were until John, Jesus takes over, the disciple no longer lives by the law of ordinances, but, by the law of faith in Christ.

What the law is unable to do, because of the weakness of man's flesh, since the aim of the law is to kill the flesh, but unable to resurrect man's soul, therefore, God sends forth His Son, in order to resurrect man's mortal soul into a living soul. revealing that Jesus dies within the flesh of man, but He is born, resurrected within the soul. The death of Jesus happens before His birth. Death and then life, and not life and then death.

We are only guarded by the law, until the faith in Christ comes. And it is through the law of faith in Christ that becomes possible for us to be saved, to save our soul.

As soon as, Jesus is Baptized by John, the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove sits on Jesus' head, God's will, is fulfilled, while the dove also represents purity.

Majority of people were made to believe that all these processes were natural events, not understanding that they are lessons which must happen within one's own self, co-planted with Him.

He can have compassion on those who are unaware and going astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. Hebrews 5:2

How is it possible for the Son of God to be a subject to weakness? Only because He is born in a man who is full of weakness. Jesus Co-planted with man.

Man, has to become aware of the Biblical lessons, and not go astray by every wind of doctrine according to all the manmade ideologies, and all that, which were written aforetime were written for our admonition, today.

Man's mortal flesh is weak and incapable to fulfill God's will, therefore, God empties His self and manifests as the Son of God to help man in his weakness. This is how God proves His love towards man, the crown of His natural creation.

Although man has rejected and continues to reject God, mainly through ignorance, God has never abandoned man.

It is through Jesus' grace and truth, made possible by Him, because of His obedience to the Father, His obedience unto death, willing to crucify the flesh, co-planted with man.

If we become co-planted with Him, logically, He becomes co-planted with us. Partakers of the same bitter cup, but also partakers of the same matured wine.

It is essential, to reach the understanding of God's will and works, God's objective for all mankind.

One has to see Jesus in himself, as one with Jesus who portrays the earthy man. Looking at things as in mirror enigmatically. Jesus in reality does not need salvation for Himself, His aim and mission is to save man. But while He becomes one with man, co-planted with man; and man, co-planted with Him, as one man; the man who has called upon the name of God.

Jesus offers cries and supplications to God to save Him from death, since He is one with man, in the same weakness of the flesh. Jesus in the likeness of the sinful flesh, but without sin, without the evil seed.

Man, has to reach Jesus' spiritual maturity and stature, in order to obtain the mind of Christ, until Christ is formed. Christ, the one who is coming.

All these things, all these experiences happen spiritually within the mind and heart of the true disciple. It is hard to put into words, one has to experience this spiritual process personally to know and to understand.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give him of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it. Rev. 2:17

Where it says that God sent forth His Son, everyone's imagination runs to the natural, everyone wants to see a natural Jesus, everyone wants to see a natural virgin, but Jesus is Spirit and all His words are spiritual.

This He confirms: Behold! I stand at the door knocking and who opens the door to me, I shall enter in to Him and sup and share the heavenly bread with him.

He who eats my flesh, how can a man physically eat the flesh of Jesus, unless he becomes one flesh with Him; and how can a man drink His blood, unless one becomes as one spirit with Him.

With Christ, I was crucified... and with Christ I shall be resurrected...

All things happen spiritually through knowledge and wisdom, according to the wisdom of God.

Questions: How does God write His laws in the heart and mind of man? Obviously, not with a pen and pencil, and not physically.

Today, how does one become co-planted with Jesus in His death physically, since the natural Jesus was born and was crucified over two thousand years ago, and today, how does one bear witness to Jesus' birth?

Make believe, it does not work, without the elevation of the mind, without spiritual enlightenment, without being taught by God, without knowing or understanding the will and works of God and what does the birth of Jesus really represents?

Also, how does one hear His voice? Does He speak and shout from the heavens?

My word is next to you and in your mouth, speak it, but Jesus is the word from the heavens; the word which must become flesh.

Not many people have understood, what is the true significance of the term, co-planted with Him.

One of the keys to enter the narrow door is to understand why must Jesus manifest in the flesh.

However, many religious people insist that it is their religion which teaches them so and so, especially the three monotheistic religions, but the true teacher is the word of God and not their religions, but on the contrary, their religions due to their lack of spiritual discernment of the word have deviated their followers from the actual truth, forcing them to live according to manmade ordinances and far away from the Spirit God and His Christ.

Completely being misguided from the spiritual pathway, the street called straight, ignoring that the gate of the sheep to enter the divine Kingdom is only one; according to His instructions.

Taking the scriptures literally, first, it degrades one's own self, one's integrity and intellect, by exercising ignorance and apathy; and second, it degrades the name of God, because He gave us all, the intelligence to think, able to work things out, but it seems that the majority of people neglect to do so. Most people prefer to have their ears tickled and believe in fairy tales and all because the truth is a double-edged sword.

Most people need to be spurred on to make them see sense. Most people show apathy towards the spiritual understanding of the divine word. Apathy concerning the salvation of their souls, apathy concerning their temporary existence. Man, whether he likes it or not, accepts the natural death as his final destination, thinking that he has no other choice, but, there is a choice by putting to the death his mortal flesh instead. A temporary death, while still alive, which at the end bears a precious reward.

And He said to them; You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God. Luke 16:15

The question is: Who are they, whom Jesus points out and who have been justifying themselves before men and for many centuries now? The answer is evident.

God who knows the hearts of all men gives warnings against the religious ignorance and hypocrisy, who are always trying to justify themselves, claiming that they are servants of God, hiding behind the name of God, as wolves in sheep's clothing.

The religious always played god, they could do anything, there was no law to touch them, which still continue up to this very day, unrepentant and unapologetic, for their evil deeds of the past, and still there is no law to touch them, for their evil deeds of the present.

It is written that, for the clean everything is clean, but for the defiled everything is defiled.

Christ the King will say to them: whatever you did, to one of my small brothers, you did it to me.

God forms the light out of darkness:

Behold! Adam has become as one of us knowing good and evil. To know good and evil, denotes that one is able to discern between the two.

Evil is an invisible force which upsets the balance of logic and rational thinking and demolishes common sense, but it can be controlled, it can be defeated and only by the serenity and the wisdom of the good.

Wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from this body of death?

Wretched men that we all are, who shall deliver us from this body of death? From this doom, from the valley of the shadow of death, continually being hunted by mortality?

Thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord who emptied and offered Himself as ransom for our sake in order to teach us that we might be saved, to save our precious soul...

I rejoice in Your Word as one who finds great treasure. Psalm 119:162

Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times, and the strength of salvation; The fear of the Lord is His treasure. Isaiah 33:6

Sincerely Twelveloaves...
