

TWELVELOAVES

CHAPTER FIVE

Genesis - Creation – Man – Adam – Cross - Reconciliation

After some consideration, I find it necessary to write about the creation of one man in Adam and about the reconciliation, in a bit more depth and detail. Hoping to give more light to the reader on the deeper meanings of the Word of God, revealing the things not seen, the mysteries, which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

As I have emphatically mentioned several times in previous chapters, the scripture cannot in any way be taken just literally or as physical and natural and be read externally, without acknowledgement of their inner and spiritual depths. Always pointing out that the word of God is spiritual and only spiritually can it be discerned and only spiritually can it be understood and be worked out and that only concerns the man in the wilderness, the called out.

It would be impossible to work out the scriptures physically as such, where many have tried to do so over the years and they are still trying. They have tried historically, geographically, mathematically, they have tried archaeologically and even scientifically, but to no avail, which proves the very point.

They have even written books about the numbers and also about the names of the scriptures, but how is it they have missed the 2+3 measures? How could the key numbers and names be worked out if one does not know or understand what they really represent and also signify, without the opening and illumination of the mind? Which comes through the revelation of the spirit, and can only be revealed to the man in the wilderness, the one, receiving the laws through the righteous judgements of God, which has been completely ignored.

The one who has denied all things for to receive the Excellency of His knowledge Paul, the apostle to all the nations, makes it ever so clear. While Jesus the great teacher "Rabbi – O Kyrios" testifies from the very beginning: if one is not born from water, he cannot see the kingdom and also, if one is not born of the spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom.

Obviously this has been the stumbling block for all, without realising 'perceiving' that only the Spirit can give access to enter inside the word and that the letter, word for word, the "natural" it is the veil in the way of understanding.

Therefore, unless we penetrate, fragment and open up the letter, it will never be possible to reach it's depth and also height, or breadth and length, which comes through the teaching of the spirit of God and in no other way. Some mention about the depth, height, breadth and length, but only "literally", because Paul speaks about it, but still, they don't understand the true meaning and true significance.

It is written; that the entire scriptures are sealed, hidden, why then, is everyone still looking at them, as physical and natural? It is like saying that Jesus is a liar, the one who said it, and also, liars the ones who wrote it. This is why the Jesus of the scriptures tends to be different to the Jesus of the world.

Revelation 5:1-5. And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

(The word of God, who is Jesus and who is the right hand of God, the Book of life, the living Word, words which are spirit and life)

And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? (To lose is to solve, to untie)

And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

Question: Who is the man under the earth and who is the man in heaven?

And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

And one of the elders saith unto me, weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose (to open up) the seven seals thereof.

(Question: Why seven seals and who are the elders and why is Jesus called a lion?)

Paul, continuing to testify; (2 Corinthians 3:6) it is the Lord who has made us able ministers, not of the letter, (reading the scriptures parrot fashion) but of the spirit, meaning, giving revelation, unveiling the hidden, giving exegesis, penetrating the letter, expounding, giving reason and understanding.

2 Corinthians 3:14-16. But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

(Through the teaching of the spirit, through the revelation of Christ by the opening of the mind, revelation of the prophetic word, referring to Moses and the Prophets)

But even unto this day, when Moses (The Law) is read, the veil is upon their heart.

Almost everyone believes that the Law is only the Ten Commandments and when this scripture is read, everyone assumes that, it only applies to the Jews physically.

Yes, it does apply to the Jew, but to the inward Jew, because there is no Jew nor Hellen in Christ, but one new man.

Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

Turning one's heart to the Lord is a long and hard process, through the denial of one's self and of the world to begin with, and only through repentance and by receiving the law, eating from the tree of knowledge, which has been abolished almost by all.

Saying: that we are under grace now and we don't need the law, while Paul makes it ever so clear: (Note: Paul walked many years after the resurrection of Jesus)

Romans 3:31 Do we then make void (abolish) the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. (Recommend, put forward, raise the law)

Romans 3:20. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight For by the law is the knowledge of sin.

Carrying out physical deeds, ordinances, by dipping one in water, might as well throw one in the fire, because one must be baptised in fire also. Man is trying to recommend and to justify himself to God, by physical deeds.

Wherefore one has to receive the knowledge of the law, for the mystery of iniquity to be revealed. Obviously referring to the raising of the serpent in the wilderness by the power of the law. The law comes to manifest sin in the flesh and to make the offender sin even more, for the grace of God to be made manifest.

Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound, within one man.

It is written: Matthew 10:16. Therefore be wise as serpents, and pure as the doves.

(Questions: why does Jesus refer to the serpents as wise, which serpents? Why was Paul, bitten by a serpent, while gathering wood to light up a fire, and why no harm came to him, what does it mean? Yet again I must repeat,

That the entire scriptures were written metaphorically, this is why they cannot be taken just literally).

Romans 3:19. Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Through the law guilt is manifested, which has never ceased, the law has never been abolished, but only be fulfilled by Christ in us, today.

In Romans 7:1 Paul testifies that he is speaking to them who have knowledge of the law and not just to anyone.

Romans 7:7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly no! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, "You shalt not covet."

Paul testifies: for I was living without the law once, (lawlessness) but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died Romans 7:9. Why and which law and commandment is he talking about? Paul grew up by the letter and tradition of the law! Paul did not die physically did he? Why does he then claim that he is dead?

Romans 7:18. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

Why then did Paul, a Pharisee not know this before and why was he persecuting the church?

I am asking these questions, hoping to open some people's eyes to the truth.

You shall not touch "touch not" – or eat "taste not" or take "handle not" pointing to the tree of knowledge, where man hasn't understood its true significance. Assuming that if he eats from the tree, it would be sinful, which Paul is telling us that these are commandments and doctrines of man that have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship and humility.

In voluntary manmade religion, vainly puffed up by his fleshy mind, intruding into those things, which he hath not seen nor understood. Referring to the mystery of iniquity, which was made manifest from the very beginning in the Garden, which no one up to this very day has comprehended in any way. Read Col. 2:16-23.

Hebrews 5:14. The perfect "of full age, maturity and stature" have their senses (touch, taste, smell, see and hear) exercised to discern both good and evil. Wherefore in reality it is good to eat from the tree, so one's eyes could be opened and senses exercised, the fruit was nice and desirable to the eyes.

1 John 1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life.

The Lord said to Adam; who told you "opened your eyes" that you are naked? It is like saying; who has revealed to you that you are sinning? Because Adam felt guilty in the eyes of God, he was hiding amongst the trees, sin was made manifest there and then from the very beginning, which was a shadow of things to come.

Trees obviously represent men or multitude of people, which is a metaphor and signifying all the knowledge in the world. The blind man's eyes, when opened, he saw men as trees. (There were many trees in the Garden) Mark 8:24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. (Jesus fulfilling Moses and the prophets pointing back to the trees in the garden through signs, trees produce seed and fruit after their own kind, Abraham father of multitudes).

The eyes of Adam were opened. Question: How could one see men, as trees, what does it actually mean? No one up to now in any way, (referring to the teaching of the Holy Spirit) has understood what the two trees in the midst of the garden really represent and also signify.

\(Do trees clap their hands?\)

That eating from the tree of knowledge of good and bad represents the receiving of the knowledge of the law. So we come to the understanding that the law of God was given from the very beginning, because only through the knowledge of the law could one discern between good and bad, right and wrong.

And this is what the tree of knowledge signifies and also represents and not a physical and natural tree as such, but a metaphor. Christ is the tree of life, He is the bread of life, the light to the world, the morning star, the root of David, the living waters, the sun of righteousness, the lion of Judah, the Word of God and so forth, which are metaphorically spoken.

There are numerous examples of such right through the word.

Behold, Adam has become as one of us knowing good and bad. Question: How could Adam know good and bad, without the knowledge of the law?

Also, Adam was cursed, which speaks for itself, because only the law curses and stones man to death.

The Budded Staf

Romans 5:13. For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, (Law) even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.(Question: the figure of whom to come)?

(From Genesis to Deuteronomy, (which means, the Law is given second time) is the five books of the Law of Moses, where Joshua – Jesus comes, manifests, the righteous, who takes over, to lead and to guide one into the Promised Land. Meaning that through the teaching of Moses Christ comes)

(So, what was written was a shadow of things to come)

And when it says that death reigned from Adam to Moses, it does not imply to yesterday, but to today. Meaning, from the beginning of the creation, from Adam, "bear the image of the first Adam" by receiving the law, (Moses) which kills the flesh, Christ comes, the fulfilment, who takes over. And the rock following Moses in the wilderness was Christ! Joshua "Jesus" takes over from Moses, it is the knowledge of the law, which drives one unto Jesus, as it is written: no man comes unto me, unless the Father draws him, pulls him through the water, through the law.

2 Corinthians 4:3 But if our good news "gospel" is veiled, it is veiled from those who are on the way to destruction:

Most people by taking the above scripture literally, they think and believe that it only applies to the past and to the Jews and no one else; that's not so! The Veil, still up to this very day is over the minds and hearts of most people, because they haven't understood the meaning of "Christ crucified neither of the creation nor of the reconciliation".

We must and we have to renounce the hidden things of dishonesty, no longer walking in craftiness, no longer handling the Word of God deceitfully, by making up all kinds of imaginary stories, by men of no knowledge. But by manifestation of the truth, which comes through the teaching of the Spirit of God, the Spirit of truth.

The Prophets and the Apostles, (representing the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of prophecy, a prophet and an apostle is someone, who has been sent by God) make it ever so clear that the gospel, which refers to the entire scriptures, is veiled and unless the veil is removed, no one shall ever receive or come to the truth.

Veil is an anagram, of Evil – Live - Levi and Vile, when the Evil, which keeps man blind, referring to the flesh, Vile – abomination, when removed, one can see the glory of the Lord. One is becoming a Levi, the Royal priesthood, to Live in the newness of the spirit by walking through the Veil and into the Holiest, the veil torn.

On Jesus' death the veil is torn, (on the death of the flesh) from top to bottom, the veil of His flesh, which signifies that heaven opens up, the mind opens up, to see the real Christ at the right hand of God the Father.

Like Stephan did, while the law stoned him, meaning that he was under the severe judgements of the law and killing his flesh.

This is why; it is so important for the disciple to be able to turn the stones into bread with Knowledge and wisdom, as Jesus did, while filled with the Holy Spirit and being tested by the devil.

Jesus speaking in parables, in enigmas and in metaphors, as mirror images, from the earthly to the heavenly, which have spiritual counterparts and parallels.

Some even believe and also preach that the Spiritual does not cancel out the physical, without realising that the letter is but a reference, metaphorically written, therefore by breaking down, solving the metaphors, "the seals" opening them up, only then can the Word be explained.

Question: Why should the scriptures be sealed, or veiled, why should the Lord seal His word?

But the Lord has kept it from the wise of the world and showed it to babes.

Beginnings, Genesis, Creation

Going back to Adam, the beginnings, Genesis, where hundreds of millions out there unaware of the "metaphorical fact", think and believe that he was the first man ever to walk the planet Earth.

Without the slightest notion of understanding, who is implied and why he was named Adam in the first place.

The Lord could have called him by any other name, but not so, God named him Adam and for a very good reason, as we are going to find out through the understanding of the inner depths, the hidden meanings, the insights of the so many metaphors.

The name Adam means "MAN" Jesus called Himself the "SON OF MAN"

The name Adam has the meaning "MAN" and why should Jesus call Himself the son of man?

Subsequently up to now, everyone has been unaware and ignorant to the fact that Jesus was referring; that He was the Son "the seed" of Adam, through Seth's genealogy, the righteous seed, the spiritual side of Adam, because Cain represents his carnal side.

Jesus taking on the body of sin as an example for us, so to condemn sin in the flesh and to nail it on the cross, the righteous suffers for the unrighteous, within one man. Jesus' commandment; if one does not lift up his cross and come after me, He is not worthy of me, he cannot be my disciple, which has been abolished by today's teachings and by today's manmade doctrines.

When the term, "believe in Jesus" is implied; it means to believe in the Word of God "the Logos", which was with God from the very beginning and God was the Logos and not looking to the figure of a physical man as such. When the scriptures refer to the beginning, they point to Adam and the creation.

Jesus descending, walking through the entire scriptures preparing the Way, as the Teacher, the Lesson and the Example for us, Jesus being the Word of God, the way the truth and the life, taking the form, as a man, to teach us. The Word becoming flesh and Tabernacled among us, evidently referring to the indwelling word, which one must receive and also learn, the word by the hearing, the hearing by faith, pointing to the Spirit of the Word.

Jesus, walking "descending" all the way from the Garden of Eden, which is a heavenly place and unto Bethlehem and the cross, 4000 years, or 4000 measures, which are two Sabbaths journey. The town of Bethlehem, metaphorically given as a key, due to the meaning of her name, which in reality represents a man who receives all the knowledge of the heavenly bread, of the manna, which, descends from heaven. Jesus testifying:

I am the bread from heaven.

Twelve loaves were placed to the North side of the Holy place of the Tabernacle in the wilderness, in two rows of six, the showbread. One loaf becoming 12 loaves and 12 loaves becoming 120 loaves in the Temple; and each loaf was made up of two tenths of an Epha, so, 120 by two-tenths, equals 240 tenths, which equals 24, pointing to the 24 Books of the Old Testament.

See two figures below, of the Temple and the Menorah

The Temple was built without any sound of any iron tool - already dressed stone from the quarry everything prepared "cut" to put together and covered with cedar wood - no stone to be seen - You also, like living stones, are being built into a Spiritual House to be a Holy Priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ 1 Peter 2:5. The stones represent the bread, the Bread from Heaven - A House of Bread and the wood from Lebanon rep. the purification of mind and heart - Lebanon meaning "WHITE" signifying purity and righteousness.

IF YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD TELL THE STONES TO BE MADE BREAD

The Holiest of the Temple is doubled the size of the Tabernacle's - the volume of the Tabernacle's Holiest is 1000 and of the Temple's 8000 - When we take away 1000 from 8000 = 7000 = the remnant who did not kneel to Baal 7000 died in Revelation 11:13 and 7000 were left living = representing flesh and spirit - the death of the flesh and life to the spirit = death to the carnal man and life to the spiritual man - outward and inner man - a reflection of both.

2 Peter 1:19. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that arise in your hearts

The receiving and teaching of the bread from Genesis all the way to John's baptism, a man becoming "A HOUSE OF BREAD", where Jesus, the righteous seed can be born, meaning, to be formed. (Moses and the prophets were until John; meaning until the water baptism, "born from water" then the spirit comes, because only through their teaching Christ comes, Christ manifests (forms) born in us.

Jesus can only be born, formed in Bethlehem, where everyone is looking at the birth of Jesus externally, without understanding its true meaning, as to why He had to be born there and looking at the town of Bethlehem only physically. As a physical and natural event, only looking at Jesus, as a man and not as the spiritual and heavenly seed, the bread, which comes from above. Wherefore, metaphorically, the Promised Land as a whole represents one man, the mind and heart.

Therefore, one man receiving the 240 tenths, which begins from the Garden, from Genesis, all the way to John, representing the water baptism, or born from water, one man receiving all the knowledge of the laws of God and of the building of the Tabernacle in the wilderness.

(Also, on Jesus' birth, Herod the king, ordered that all male infants up to two years old should be slain, why up to two years old, what does it represent and also signify? Also, who were the wise men from the East, what do they represent and signify)?

One has to humble one's self through the fruits of repentance

Why is everyone out there reading the scriptures, only externally? If though they do know that there are greater depths within, why can't they admit that they have been wrong in their perceptions, especially the so-called teachers, what are they teaching?

Why is Jesus' commandment to us, to lift up our cross and to follow Him, if everything was done and finished with; and why do we have to carry a cross, what for? Also, why must we become partakers of His sufferings and of His death?

Because according to their teachings, man has nothing to do, but just sing and dance and pray (prey) for the material and worldly things.

Why must one, lose his life, for to find his life, what does it actually means? How about the denial of all things, have they denied anything, has anyone?

The truth of the matter is; they cannot preach something that they do not do themselves.

Why was Paul, years after the death and resurrection of Jesus, crying out loud, preaching Christ Crucified, and why was he a Tentmaker, if the Tabernacle in the wilderness, the Tent of assembly and of testimony was cancelled? Because according to most, it has been abolished, which proves that the veil still, up to this very day is over their hearts and minds, if though seeing they cannot see, and hearing, they cannot understand.

No one has come close to understanding, why the scriptures mention that Paul was a tentmaker, they all take it literally, not going deep into the word and that Paul from Tarsus of Cilicia, which has to do with goat skins. (Cilicia famous for its goatskins) As you can see all the scriptures and all things must be put together to extract the real meanings.

Paul a Pharisee and a scholar at that, was physically a tentmaker? It does not add up, someone who spoke three languages fluently.

Hebrew, Hellenic and Roman, which were the three inscriptions on Jesus' cross, without the realisation by anyone that, those three languages are keys unto greater understanding.

The Hebrew language, is the language of mystery, which has no vowels, the Hellenic language, is the language of wisdom, thus, the so many Hellenic Philosophers and scholars; and the Roman language, is the language of the law, even today the Law is written in the Roman or Latin language.

So, how do we then, put all these things together and what do they signify? Well! We place them in their right order, which are read like this, the mystery and the wisdom of the laws of God, which one must receive in one's heart and mind.

The three inscriptions placed on top of Jesus' head, crucified on a hill called Golgotha, which means, SKULL, signifying the renewal of the mind.

Also, a skull is part of a skeleton, "dry bones" where one has to go back to the valley of the dry bones, which represent the creation of one man, from death to life. So, there are greater depths within the letter for us to unearth, to dig deep to find the hidden treasures.

THE MYSTERY AND THE WISDOM OF THE LAWS OF GOD

Paul, a Jew (Hebrew) and a Roman, is revealing the scriptures in the Hellenic, which in fact also, represents, the Jew and the Hellenic becoming one "by twinning" in Roman. Paul's ship on his way to Rome, carrying the flag of the twin brothers, "Dioskouri" Rome founded by the twin brothers, "Remus and Romulus".

This is why the knowledge of the Lord is everywhere and in everything.

Also, Jesus being the son of a carpenter, as I have already mentioned that "wood" in the scriptures signifies the flesh, meaning, He whose Father works on the flesh, which has thrown the Jews and the Pharisees out. They were waiting for the Messiah to come as a King and not as the son of a carpenter, even to this day.

The Tabernacle in the wilderness made of wood, the wood (tree) of knowledge of good and evil. This is what I am pointing out that the entire scriptures were written metaphorically and also prophetically.

It is evident that man's pride and ego, which are his worst enemy, shall never allow them, the so-called teachers, to come to the truth. The word of God, always hardens the heart of the Pharaoh king "the great house", one's own heart and mind, one's own king and master.

They have gone too far, they cannot humble themselves, they cannot admit that they have been wrong all along, by taking the entire scriptures literally and on manmade assumptions and calculations.

Even the "Talmud" the Rabbinical teachings and called the Oral law, has terribly failed to see and to recognise the Messiah walking through the entire scriptures, so, how can the Talmud be called the oral law? While the Oral law, is the teaching of all the Prophets, the word Prophet means, "the Speaker", words, which were spoken, "orally" referring to the prophetic word, or the word of prophecy, which is the testimony of Jesus.

Adam was 930, this number was given as a key, when we divide $900:-30=30$, Jesus 'the son of man' begun at 30 and this is to link Jesus with Adam and that He, Jesus is the very same person "seed" and the beginning and the end of the creation of the man 'Adam' of God and not the creation of the human race, this is why He proclaims that He is the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last.

The number 900 points to the 18 jars, 12 of Elijah and 6 of Jesus, which we multiply by 50, $18 \times 50 = 900$, 50 fragments of bread as portions of light. Also, as measures of water; and the number 30 is but a key yet again, pointing to the cross and to the age of Jesus, through the understanding that the (Ark) waters were risen 15 cubits above the mountains, which meant that they must also descend 15 cubits.

So $15+15=30$, 15 cubits up and 15 cubits down; also, 30 cubits is the length of the Tabernacle in the wilderness, as we can see there are many key factors to take into consideration and to put things together.

Therefore, the number of rooms increase from 450 to 600, which we multiply by 1000, the volume of each room - and equals 600,000 - all the spiritual seed that walked out of Egypt. The age of Noah was also 600, when the flood of the knowledge of God, the outpouring, signifying a man who is receiving the spiritual revelation of the laws, the 5 barley loaves, which come with the 7 loaves, the hidden meanings of Moses and of the Prophets and the light of the gospels, which Jesus fulfils prophetically, in the feeding of the 5000 and 4000 in the wilderness, which He still fulfils today. Same as the number 400, which first we read that Israel was in slavery for 400 years and secondly we read that they were in slavery for 430 years. The number 30 given as a key, when $400 : -30 = 13 + 1/3$ rd pointing to Holy place of the Tabernacle in the wilderness, the 2000 measures, which it has been abolished almost by all.

Genesis 15:13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years. (400)

Exodus 12:40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. (430)

Many people consider this, as a contradiction, but in depth it is not so, because the number 30 is only added and given as a key, as a cryptic for us to be able to work out the scriptures.

So, in reality Israel were only 400 years in slavery and not 430, because it coincides with Abraham paying the price of 400 shekels for the burial place of Machpelah, meaning double portion. Paul mentions that the law was given 430 years after Abraham, which yet again is but a key. (The law revealed opened up, because everything was hidden, a shadow of things to come)

(Obviously there is so much to be explained here, which I will not go into just now)

Continuing, the first Adam shall be the last Adam and the Last Adam shall be the First Adam, signifying "twinning", as it is written, whether it is translated in singular or in plural.

That one single seed increasing as the sand on the seashore and as the stars in the sky, which was carried through Noah and Abraham and Isaac, the seed of the promise.

(The seed obviously represents the word of God and not a number of people)

Let's imagine for a moment that the sky is a huge blackboard and the stars are letters, "the seed", which we have to read and learn, because the Lord has created the world, the "cosmos" the universe to teach us His Word.

The Sun, Moon and the Earth

THE SUN AS THE MENORAH - THE MOON AS THE BREAD - AND THE EARTH AS A MAN' S HEART
THE EARTH IS AN ANAGRAM OF HEART
Genesis 1:16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: He made the stars also.
Rev. 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:
Genesis is the creation of the man of God in Adam, which mean "MAN"
Jesus called Himself the son of man referring that He is the seed "son" of Adam through Seth. In the beginning God said; LET HIM BE LIGHT AND HE WAS LIGHT, referring to Adam
THE MOON AS A SIGN REP. MOSES - THE LAW AND THE BREAD
THE MOON APPEARS IN 3 STAGES - MOON CREST AS ONE LOAF
HALF MOON = AS TWO LOAVES - AND FULL MOON AS 3 LOAVES
ALL 3 LOAVES BECOME ONE - 2 LOAVES OF LEAVEN ARE OFFERED AT PENTECOST AND ONE LOAF WITH LEAVEN AT TABERNACLES
THE LORD CREATED ALL THINGS ACCORDING TO HIS WORD

THE SUN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS TO SHINE IN YOUR HEARTS
4 PLANETS NEAR THE SUN AND 5 FURTHER AWAY
REPR. THE 5 AND 4 PILLARS OF THE TABERNACLE
NINE PLANETS IN OUR SOLAR SYSTEM
 From the very Beginning the Lord was creating the Tabernacle, which is a reflection as in Heaven so on Earth
THE TABERNACLE IN THE SKY THE SUN REPRESENTING THE HOLY OF HOLIES
THE SUN AS A SIGN - REP. CHRIST
SUN

the two thirds rep. the 2 measures which rep. the Law Moses + the prophets
THE SUN "SON" THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD
MOON - THE LIGHT SHINNING IN DARKNESS

Romans 9:8 That is, they, which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

The scripture above separates and also confirms two genealogies, which in depth point to one man in two, fleshy and spiritual, unrighteous and righteous. Jesus testifies; I am come to set a division, (Luke 12:51) to separate a man, the flesh from the spirit, his bad side from his good side and to make him understand the difference between the two.

Where both good and bad can only be made manifest through the receiving of the laws of God, which manifest sin in the flesh, the mystery of iniquity revealed, God's teaching, God's way and also will. Paul testifies about all these in Romans chapter 7: Why is everyone missing it?

Eating from the tree of knowledge of good and bad and also of wisdom, which brings death to the fleshy and carnal side of man, his bad side. Sin towards God can only be understood by receiving all the teaching of the entire scriptures, where the law can only be fulfilled in Christ Jesus.

(Sin towards God is not what man thinks it is, don't touch, don't taste, don't handle, which are man's doctrines, by taking the scriptures literally, and thinking that it is sinful, as the Spirit reveals and makes it ever so clear).

Galatians 3:16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ.

There is no way that Jesus the man from Bethlehem "physically" could have been the Alpha and the Omega or the First and the Last nor the Beginning and the End, in that short period of time.

Emphatically stating that He came to fulfil and not to abolish the Law or the Prophets, meaning that He came to 'make them known', Fully known, revealing, establishing, fulfilling God's will and teaching, which is a continues process at all times, for the man who receives the spirit of truth.

Why should He fulfil Moses and the prophets, what is the purpose of it all? Whereby today's man has abolished the Beginnings and just recites over them as a historical record and looking at the creation of Adam as the natural creation, "as a one time off" event and a thing of the past.

Jesus testifying that He came to fulfil Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms, which witness and speak all about Him, because it is He, who walks all the way right through the entire scriptures, imparting God's knowledge.

Unless the Spirit 'and the Lord is the Spirit' as Paul confirms, opens up the scriptures and "by removing the veil, opening the seven seals of the book" no one would ever understand the inner depths, "the Spirit of the Word", Words which are Spirit and also Life.

When the helper comes, the spirit of truth, He shall teach you all things, He shall teach you the truth and the truth shall make you free, as it is written. John 8:32 and 15:26

(I would like to find one man on this Earth, whom the spirit has taught him all things, especially of those who are claiming that they are filled with the spirit, the question is; which spirit?

The Spirit of truth shall teach the one and the same truth to each and every student, like a teacher in the classroom and not different versions of truths, as many Truths; but as one truth; thus, causing confusion and also division.

Wherefore, each and every disciple has to follow the same route, the same pattern of teaching and also enter through the same narrow door and walk the same hard and sorrowful way, as it is written. (Strive to enter through the narrow door)

John 10:1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the courtyard (αυλην =courtyard-Hellenic) referring to the courtyard of the Tabernacle by the altar of sacrifice, sin offering, burnt offering) of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

There are too many false teachers and false prophets out there, who are blind and claiming that they can see and who prophesy according to their own inventive and imaginary perceptions, which have nothing to do with the prophetic word of God whatsoever. Some of them, they have even given the Lord a number, Jesus has a number? There are a lot of Pharisees and scribes out there today, more than ever before.

John 9:41. Jesus said, if you were blind, you will not be guilty of sin; but now that you claim you can see, your guilt remains.

Jesus testifying

Luke 24:27+44 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, (from Adam to Bethlehem and the cross, death and resurrection) and while he opened to us the scriptures?

(Opened the seals of the book, removed the veil, revealed the hidden, the mysteries).

The question is; how did Jesus open up the scriptures, did He carry the entire scrolls with Him and how could He memorise the entire scriptures, if He wasn't the one, who has staged everything from the very beginning, from the first Adam?

The two on their way to Emmaus

This event (metaphorically) happened after Jesus was risen on the first day of the week or the eighth day, Jesus met the two disciples on their way to Emmaus, whom they did not recognise and that Emmaus was 60 stadia in distance from Jerusalem.

(What we must also take notice; is that Jesus after the resurrection, He was still walking in the flesh, bodily and not as a spirit. As He confirms, that a spirit has no bones, as He had and also carrying the scars, pointing to Adam becoming alive, as Paul testifies, when the commandment came I died and I don't live no more, but Christ lives in me. Paul died carnally, but became alive spiritually, as a living soul, which is the teaching for us, Paul pointing to the creation).

Where one disciple is named and the other one isn't, which obviously metaphorically is referring to one man, the outward and inward man. Luke 24:13.

Where we have to see Jesus teaching a man "disciple" from above, as a lesson to us.

The one disciple, which was named as "Cleopas" meaning "of a Renowned Father" (Renowned men) and representing the outward man, receiving the adoption by the scourging and chastisement of the laws of God, "turn away from your wicked ways, and turn to the Lord, referring to repentance".

By the reconciliation of the cross, "Christ crucified" and the other one, which isn't named, representing the inward man, as being invisible.

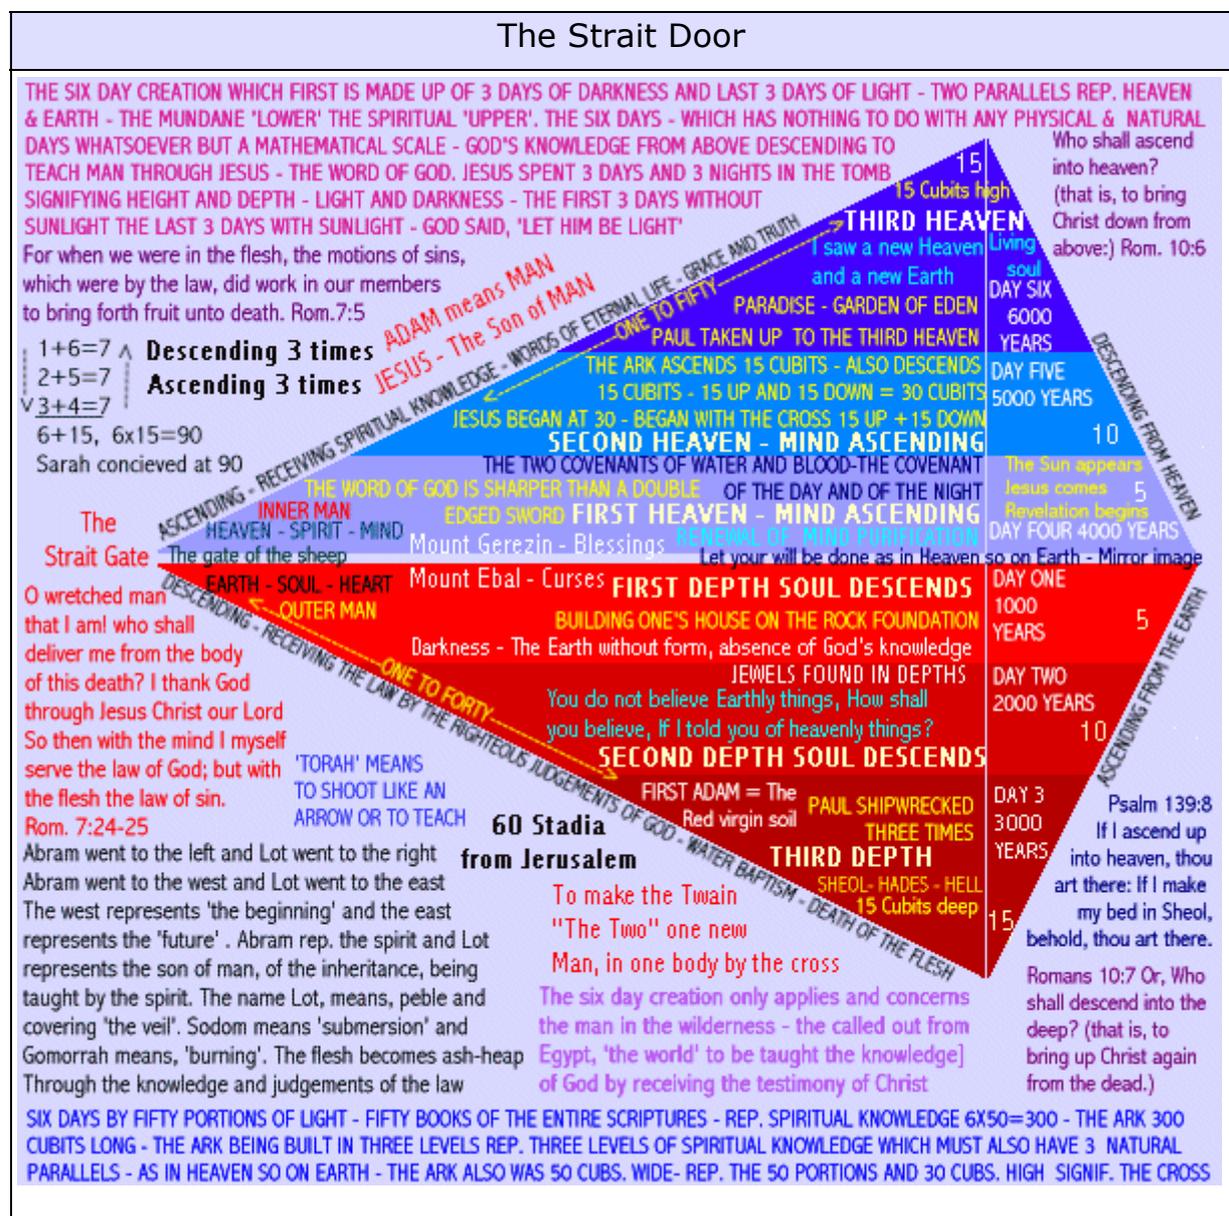

Like Lazarus and the rich man, but in reverse, because here we can see the two men, Lazarus in heaven and the rich man in Hades, denoting height and depth in the mind of one man, the mind elevated while under the severe judgements of God, through the law. The rich man had 5 brothers, referring to the Pentateuch.

The rich man not named, in "Hades-Sheol" representing our carnal man in the depths and Lazarus in the bosom of Abraham, representing our spiritual man, the righteous seed in heaven, born from above, a reflection of the earthly and heavenly man, seeing at the same time. (If your father is Abraham you shall do his works).

Signifying the seed of the promise in heaven: and the rich man in Hades, "depths – darkness, in Sheol" under the judgements of God, under the curse of the law and Lazarus in heaven, resurrected, risen, mind elevated illuminated. The spiritual and inward man in heaven, and the outward man in Hades, one man in two parts seeing simultaneously, the death of the carnal and the resurrection of the spiritual.

The outward man, referring to the unrighteous seed, whose remembrance shall be wiped out, no name, and the inward man, the righteous seed, given a new name, Lazarus, meaning, "The one whom God helps" (Also, pointing to Jesus three nights and three days in the tomb).

See figure below of the Strait Door

This is also why it is written; that no flesh and blood shall inherit the Kingdom, nor a rich man can enter, easier though for a camel, referring to the man in the wilderness, John the Baptist, wearing camel's hair, the camel being the ship of the desert.

Inviting people to enter the river, the waters of judgement and death, to receive the laws of God through judgement by walking in the wilderness, preparing the way of the Lord, because it is the only way of the Lord.

A pattern of teaching, which we have to follow and it does not mean that we have to go to the Jordan River and be dipped in water or any river or some faraway desert physically. Where many in the past tried to do exactly that, by taking the scriptures literally thinking that by putting their physical body under hardship and pain, shall become sanctified.

Something that is also happening today in eastern religions, one could give his body to be burned and wouldn't make any difference, because one still remains brain dead. No renewal of the mind, which Christian fundamentals have been doing for many years, secluding themselves from the rest of the world in some faraway so-called monastery, thinking that they shall become sanctified.

Some even claiming that they have found the Ark of the Covenant, which is another illusion and delusion and is all done in mysticism and behind closed doors. Whatever their claim is, it is all-manmade, without understanding that the Ark represents the mind and heart of the disciple and not an object of worship. Is like saying that the Spirit of God is kept in a box, which is a complete mockery.

Man always trying to justify himself in the eyes of God by physical deeds and ordinances and always looking for relics and physical objects to worship and to idolise. It is about time that man woke up to the fact that God is a spirit and only in spirit and truth can He be worshiped and not in manmade objects.

Why stop at the water, might as well be crucified physically, because we have to carry our own cross and as I've mentioned earlier and also be thrown into the fire, because if one is going to follow the scriptures literally, might as well go all the way, and do carry out everything to the full, physically. This is why, for to reveal the truth all the tares "lies" must be uprooted and separated from the wheat "truth", man accepting by understanding God's covenant and will, by testimony of Christ Jesus.

Baptism by water representing the receiving of God's laws, in one's mind and heart, signifying a headbath, washing and cleansing by the word of truth, love of truth, renewal of the mind, which could only happen through grace. This is what the name John stands for, and grace does not come by make believe.

Question: Why was John eating locust and honey, what does it really signify?

Paul testifies; I have been crucified with Christ, how was Paul crucified with Christ?

He also testifies; 1 Corinthians 13:3 if though I give my body to be burned, and have not love (love of the truth of the word of God) still will not befit me.

Also note that true love is the end of the law, as it is written, we can all see the manmade love through all the events, which are happening in the world right now, where human life has no value any longer.

How can a man, any man, follow the scriptures physically and literally? No one on this planet can keep up with the Ten Commandments, because if he breaks one, he breaks the whole lot. Jesus confirms; whoever listens to my word and carries out my commandments...

Now then, how does one come under grace and truth? By obeying all of the Lord's commandments, denying one's self (lose one's life) and the world, meaning to abstain from all man's doctrines, through the fruits of repentance, which come through knowledge, wisdom and understanding and by lifting one's cross.

Pointing to the two trees "wood" in the Garden from the beginning, the creation, Adam being cursed – bear the image of the first Adam and following Jesus' instructions and teaching all the way. Becoming a partaker of Him, in all knowledge and wisdom, stature and maturity, fullness of age, for to receive the mind of Christ.

2 Timothy 3:16-17 As Paul guides Timothy, that the Holy scriptures, are capable to give him wisdom (awake in His mind-awake his conscious) in the knowledge and understanding of God's will, through following the example of Jesus Christ. (Timothy; he who honours God, referring to the man in the wilderness, he who follows all the instructions of God from the very beginning, receiving John's baptism from the beginning).

Lifting up one's cross, it means to become cursed, (carrying the curse of the law) curses to the carnal man, for to receive the blessings, the promises and the inheritance to the inward man, one man in two "TWIN". Pointing to the reconciliation, which in real terms means to make friends, establishing a truce, making the two seeds into one new man, and bringing, establishing peace, removing the enmity.

Paul confirms; if though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. 2 Corinthians 4:16 (One man in two; and two as one)

Another question: How can any one separate his outward man from his inner man?

Also, how and when does the outward man manifest?

Over the years, all the way up to now, not many have asked these questions, is all make believe, through not understanding the teaching and message of the scriptures. Many might even say that I am arrogant and selfish by saying this, but am I to please man or God?

Paul testifies; the knowledge that I have, I did not receive it by man, but through the revelation of Jesus Christ, which he suffered persecution for it and he still does up to this very day. I heard several people insinuating that Paul was insane, mad and a psychopath and under illusions, by looking at Paul as a man and not as a teaching from above. Jesus the example for all, because He spoke of the truth.

Jesus also confirms; if they hated me, they will hate you... And if one lives according to Jesus Christ, shall be hated by all...

The six days of the creation

Here we have to go back to the first three days of the creation, which were without the sunlight, representing three hidden days, and the other three days of the creation, not hidden, full of light, Sunlit.

The sun and the moon and the stars were created on the fourth day, illumination, and brightness, lights shining in darkness, God forming the light in darkness. Jesus three nights and three days in the tomb, and risen at the end of the third day and He was evening (darkness) and He was morning (dawn - brightness - light).

Here we can see the six days of the creation of one man, the man (Son) of God, Adam the first Son of God, Luke 3:38.

So, we have six days of the creation, where six loaves had to be offered by the disciple from Passover all the way to Tabernacles, pointing that a disciple has to give to the Lord "Testimony". The number six is but a key, whether is in days, months or years.

John being 6 months older than Jesus, pointing to the 6 loaves, until the son of man reaches the full stature of the Son of God.

Beginning with the water Baptism through grace, John's Baptism from the very beginning, preparing the way of the Lord, to be formed "born" in a man.

2 Peter 1:19. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

Lazarus the other man. (Who had two sisters and representing the two measures in depth and also the carnal and the spiritual man. One sister overwhelmed with the cares of this world; and the other chose her portion to sit at Jesus' feet, to learn, to be taught of Him, referring to the listener of the spirit).

Who was risen on the fourth day, when the sun of righteousness appears, the coming of the Messiah, Christ appears the Spirit of the word of God, the bread illuminated, mind elevated.

So, the two on the way to Emmaus, is but one man in two parts, and Emmaus, meaning "Hot or warm Bath" referring to a "HEADBATH". The renewal of the mind by the word of truth, the heart burning, mind and heart together, being taught by the spirit, the veil being torn, Jesus risen.

The 60 stadia yet again given as a key, referring to one man walking through the Tabernacle three times, the 20 boards in length of the Tabernacle three times, $3 \times 20 = 60$, to reach the place of peace, Jerusalem, to enter God's rest.

Which yet again has nothing to do with three Tabernacles as such, but one Tabernacle, which we have to walk through, three times, referring to the three stages of the creation.

Through the teaching of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, also, through the teaching of Moses, the Prophets and Christ, the fulfilment of all, like as three baptisms, where in depth is only one baptism.

As it is confirmed, "Be baptised in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", three Baptisms into one, Baptism in three stages, fragmentary.

The scriptures are like an interwoven garment, when we pull one strand "one fragment" a large part of the garment is pulled also.

This is how the entire scriptures were written and this is how they can be explained, one fragment pulls another and so forth and each fragment takes us a step forward and upwards.

The MAN – ADAM "ate" from the tree of knowledge

The "man" Adam who ate from the tree of knowledge of good and bad and given to him by the woman, referring to the flesh and at the same time the wisdom, Eve as a woman and as the wisdom, "the mother of all the living".

Where the commandment was, if you touch or eat from the tree, you shall surely die, and that Jesus' death on the cross was that very same commandment, carried through to be executed and to be fulfilled and proven at the precise time. (Paul's confirmation, when the commandment came; "you shall not covet" brought death to me).

Jesus fulfilling Moses and the Prophets, what was written by Moses and spoken by the Prophets.

Carried through all the way from the Garden, all the way to Bethlehem, "His birth, the birth of the righteous" to His baptism "judgement" in the Jordan by John "by grace" and His crucifixion "death of the flesh – sown in dishonour" and finally His resurrection, "raised in glory – in Honour". The first and the last Adam together

The first Adam sown in dishonour and the Last Adam raised in honour and glory, we sow in dishonour and we reap in glory, the seed must die to bring forth fruit.

The carnal man becoming the scapegoat and the spiritual man, the one who gets sacrificed, the righteous suffers for the unrighteous, this is why one must be declared righteous by God to enter the wilderness, in the faith and in all obedience of the Son of God.

Peter 3:18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

This is why Barrabas was set free, "the son of the father", the scapegoat, Barrabas is only given as a key, which represents the manifestation of the seed of the serpent.

John 8:44. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

(Another question: Why is Christianity so afraid of the devil? Beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord and not the devil).

Jesus the "son of man" born from an unnatural conception

Jesus born from the virgin, without physical conception, but being an unnatural conception, through the Spirit of God, proving that Jesus is the man from heaven, in the first place.

The one who emptied Himself from being equal with God, taking the form of a servant and of a man, which begun from the Garden.

So, Jesus the man from earth and at the same time, the man from heaven, the word of God descends to teach us the way. Jesus was born from a woman, born under the law as a mortal man with the destiny to suffer curses and death and buried in the depths of the earth.

Jesus was born from the Spirit of truth and He does not die, because He is born of God, the righteous man is immortal.

John 3:13. And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, (Garden of Eden) even the Son of man (seed of Adam) which is in heaven. (Note: that the seed of Adam through Seth is the righteous seed).

Here we have to read between the lines; that only the Last Adam can ascend up to heaven, He, who was the first Adam, who has descended from heaven, which is a teaching for us.

Born from the virgin – Born from a pure heart

Born from the virgin woman, signifies to be born through a pure heart and referring to any man.

The one who shall follow all of God's instructions, the one who shall receive the water baptism according to the purification of the Jews, (the purification of mind and heart), the covenant keepers or the keepers of God's covenants.

As you can see the word of God is metaphorically written.

Purification of the mind and heart; purified conscience, washed and cleansed with pure water, referring to the laws of God, the law being Holy and Spiritual.

There is no way that a man, any man, can be born above, without receiving the laws of God. (Born from water). If one is born of water shall understand the first sign that Jesus fulfils at the wedding of Kana of Galilee.

Receiving the laws of God, which manifest sin in the flesh through righteous judgements and not the physical ordinance, of dipping someone in natural water, which cannot change anyone whatsoever, but get one soaking wet and only drenched externally. Physical ordinances, which lead to nought and to nowhere ever and never, a vicious and pointless circle, we have the proof of 2000 years.

Becoming chaste and pure "virgin; purity of heart and mind" freed from all evil conscience, by learning good and evil (eating from the tree of knowledge) and by being able to discern between the two, meaning to overcome evil by good.

Dust represents the laws of God

Adam was created from the dust, which refers that Adam was created by the laws of God, this is what the dust really represents, which was pointing to the broken fragments of the tablets, which were written by the hand of God, which Moses smashed into smithereens and into dust. And is not Jesus who needs salvation but us, through His teaching.

He opens the way for us to follow in His example; this is why we must become partakers of His sufferings and of His death, to become partakers of His resurrection through the spirit to share His inheritance and riches, unto life eternal.

"The prophetic word" pointing to things to come

Apparently, proving and substantiating that a man can only be created by the laws of God and in no other way. The broken fragments, which represent the prophetic word, the Word "the Logos", which was with God from the very beginning, and He became flesh and tabernacled amongst us, to teach us the way, the flesh (bread) of Jesus broken into many fragments.

Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. John 6:53.

John 1:14 And the Word was made flesh...

Yet again, man has taken these scriptures literally and carries on doing physical ordinances, one could eat all the loaves from the bakery and drink all the wine of the brewery and still get him nowhere. One has to eat the bread and drink the wine through his understanding, because it represents knowledge.

Unless you eat the flesh of the son of man, all the teaching from the very beginning all the way from the Garden...

As I have already mentioned, the way the Lord teaches us is like this; He takes the past and the future and brings it to the present. Where we are at this very moment in time, the one who is, who was, and who is to come, present, past and future, the spirit of God working on three dimensions or levels at the same time.

Therefore, what we read now in the present is the past and the future, where, the one does not annul the other, because all three become one, the past goes to the future, the future to the past and both past and future come to the present.

The Spirit goes West and the flesh goes East, as Abraham and Lot, Abraham representing the Spirit and Lot the son of man, where at some point they will meet, the two becoming one, as Esau and Jacob.

The West represents the beginning (past) and the East the future, where both meet in the present, in the middle; this is why the two trees were in the midst of the Garden, which become one. Gen. 2:9 and Rev. 22:2

Therefore the creation of Adam is not a thing of the past and has nothing to do with the natural creation. (Adam was made into flesh from the dust)

I have already explained what Bethlehem means and represents, the word of God descending and accumulating "increasing in a man, in a House of bread".

Born above through regeneration by the renewal of the mind

The womb of the mother is referring to the Holy Spirit and not the womb of our natural mothers, "to be born above" John 3:3

Job 33:4 The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

(And not to be born again the mistranslation from the Hellenic into English, which everyone should look into this error of translation and also examine. Because this is one of the biggest discrepancies of misinterpretation, which has deceived many people into believing that they could be born again, as such, which is delusional, without receiving the laws and the spirit (eating Jesus' flesh and drinking His blood) and only by a mere confession at that.

Nicodemus the conqueror of the world, "the overcomer"

Without realising that Nicodemus the man that Jesus was talking to referring and also pointing to "the conqueror of the world – the overcomer – the supplanter, the victor"

(Note: Nicodemus was a Pharisee, representing the man under the law, a man being taught Moses and the Prophets to reach Christ; and no man can leapfrog from nowhere and reach Christ).

One has to bear the image and likeness of the first Adam, to bear the image and likeness of the Last Adam; no man can leapfrog from the first Adam to the Last, without the teaching and instruction of the entire scriptures.

Wherefore Paul testifies: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded, the Hellenic word πεπεισμαι, pepeesme, which means and denotes double surety, doubly persuaded and without the slightest notion of doubt whatsoever. Also,

2 Corinthians 4:13 We having the same spirit of faith, (the spirit of the word) according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; (through knowledge wisdom and understanding, filled with the spirit of faith, full of the knowledge of God) we also believe, and therefore speak.

From the beginning and of the utmost importance for us to understand, is that one has to become the first Adam, bearing his image in the first place, walking through the entire scriptures as he has. The word of God is the living (ALIVE) word full of power (ENERGY – FORCE - MOTION) Hebrews 4:12

Nicodemus, referring to the overcomer of the world, a disciple who was following the Lord's teaching and visiting "reaching" Jesus in the middle of the night, in darkness, at the twelfth hour, till the day dawns, as Peter testifies, 2 Peter 1:19).

Question: Why should a Pharisee, a Jew and a teacher of the Jews, be given simply and purely a Hellenic name, as Nicodemus?

Jesus the light shining in darkness, (the morning star – the Phosphorus to shine in your hearts through the re-assurance of the prophetic word. (Translating from the Hellenic, as it should be)(Phosphorous – carrier of light - knowledge)

The light shining on the bread, teaching Nicodemus, (which is allegorical and metaphorical) the true meaning of the water and spirit baptism.

Jesus fulfilling Moses and the prophets, whereby, only the overcomer of the world could reach Him. Christ the Teacher, through the prophetic word – Keep the word of the prophecy.

Rev.19: 10. I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. Also Rev. 22:7 and 22:18).

To be born above; John 3:3 - signifies to be born in the bosom of the Father and from the womb of the mother, referring to the Spirit, from the beginning in Adam,

'LET HIM BE LIGHT'. Read Job 33:4 and 32:8

Also, to be born above, refers to one's head, the renewal of the mind, by the word of truth, the washing and cleansing, Ephesians 5:26-27. That he might sanctify and cleanse it (ekklesia – the man called out) with the washing of water (LAWS) by the word. (SPIRIT)

(Referring to the prophetic Word – Prophets - the testimony of Jesus, by the hearing the word of faith – spoken – orally – the teaching of the spirit, Prophet in Hebrew means "SPEAKER". Prophet is a Hellenic word (Prophimee) meaning to speak in advance. 'Pro' before, Prophecy is the gift of expounding scripture, of speaking and teaching,

That he might present it ('it' singular – in the Hellenic refers to; as 'her' female) to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. (Chaste and pure – as a virgin)

The church, the overcomer "Nicodemus" the man under the law, whereby the law must be received by the disciple, so to manifest sin in the flesh which is not a thing of the past, but for today and now.

The Word of God teaches "Reconciliation"

What then, would be the purpose for reconciliation, which everyone is made to believe that has already happened?

That we might be reconciled, for to enter into the Promised Land, referring and pointing to the future, things to come.

2 Corinthians 5:19. To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and has committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

(Note the word reconciliation denotes; To make friends, alliance, establishing truce, removing the enmity. Wherefore the world in depth refers to the heart and mind of the disciple, the called out. Reconciliation within in a person, between the carnal –outward man – the seed of the serpent and spiritual – inner man – the seed of the woman)

From the very beginning the Lord put enmity between the two seeds

Genesis 3:15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

Over the years and up until now, because everyone's needle got stuck on the letter, by taking the scriptures literally, they've never grasped or absorbed that, what they are reading is the word of prophecy. As Paul confirms that, which was written aforetime; meaning from the beginning, was for our learning today, which were shadows of things to come. Even that, which Paul said in his time, were also shadows of things to come, pointing to us today.

I say today, because today and for the first time ever the Lord is revealing the mysteries, the hidden, the true meanings, the insights of His word to us.

The above scripture is telling us that the seed of the woman shall bruise the head of the seed of the serpent, which represents the renewal of the mind, by the word of truth and the seed of the serpent shall bruise the heel of the seed of the woman. Representing and signifying the rebellion by the continuous temptations, the fiery darts of the serpent, the sting of the serpent's venomous bite against the son of man.

As we can all see; the scriptures are metaphorical and also prophetic, which is about time that everyone begun to look deeper "internally" into the word of God and stop looking it as physical and natural, "externally" because the entire scriptures are spiritual.

Everyone has to bear his own cross

Matthew 10:38. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

Matthew 16:24. Then, said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me

The question now: How do we know if we are in Him? And how does one follow Jesus; and from where does one begin? Also, do we have to carry a cross physically?

1 John 2:6. whoever claim to live in Him must walk as Jesus did.

Galatians 5:24. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and lust.

Therefore, if it has happened, why then, is the need for us to have to carry our own cross, lift up our cross and follow Jesus and also the denial?

(Which He makes ever so clear)?

If that's the case and everything is done, then, we have nothing to do or need to know the scriptures whatsoever, just sit and wait until we die to find out, which is against all the teaching of the entire scriptures and the renewal of the mind.

This is the misunderstanding by the religions of today. They have become intercessors and responsible for another man's soul, while the other man remains brain dead, having no chance to reach Christ ever. They do teach a lot of rubbish, because they are just as brain-dead as the ones they are supposedly teaching, the blind leading the blind.

Christianity is fighting Christianity, everyone wants to convert everyone else in his way of thinking and not the Lord's way, this is why is so vital, a necessity for one to receive the spirit of the word, for to receive the mind of Christ.

How can the renewal of the mind take place at all, leading to the reconciliation, without any knowledge or understanding, which everyone has to undergo and experience?

Not many, if any, as yet, have really understood the reconciliation of the carnal man, which has never been explained in anyway since the beginning, while Paul makes it plainly clear, by stating:

1 Corinthians 15:49. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, (first Adam) we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. (Last Adam)

Romans 5:10. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

Colossians 1:21. And you, that once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now he has reconciled you

Paul is talking to the man in the wilderness, to the man who has already denied all things and who has accepted the sentence of death. The death of his carnal man by the renewal of the mind washed and cleansed. Purified by the word of truth, through knowledge, wisdom and understanding, elevating the spirit of the mind.

Reconciliation represents access to the tree of life, for to be reconciled is to become one with Christ, the two seeds becoming one by making peace, reconciliation by removing the enmity. Jesus testifies:

John 14:27. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Paul testifies; Ephesians 2:16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

\(See picture of 'The Three Crosses' in Chapter 3\)

Paul speaks very clearly about the reconciliation, "That He might reconcile", proving that it hasn't happened, but it will happen. When one offers himself as a living sacrifice unto God and it is only through the receiving of the word, the seed of God forming in one's heart and mind, which brings peace, and friendship with God.

Abraham was called the friend of God; because he was declared righteous by God, through his obedience, Jesus called the disciples, His friends.

John 15:14+15. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. I have called you friends...

Hebrews 5:7-9. Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

(To follow Him in all teaching and in all obedience, for to receive reconciliation and access to the tree of life)

Adam representing the soul, a man's identity, Adam becomes a living soul, through the opening of the mind, by the knowledge of the laws of God, eating from the tree of knowledge of good and bad.

The tree of life guarded by the flaming sword, representing the laws of God, one has to be tested by fire, the flaming sword turning in every direction, unless one goes through the righteous judgements of God, he cannot have access to the tree.

Jesus comes to put a sword, to set a division within one man, break him into pieces and then gather him back together, to mould, to shape and to form him, referring to the new creation.

Question: Why did Jesus have to learn (being taught) obedience and why should He suffer in His flesh? Why do the scriptures command us to become obedient just like Him, lifting up our cross to follow in His footsteps and be partakers of His sufferings and afflictions and also of His death?

Proving that He is the first Adam, the one being sown in dishonour, as an example to us, to follow all His instructions and ways, which carries the promise of God, signed and sealed, to grant us life eternal.

2 John 2:6. And this is love: that we might walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard (The listener of the Spirit) from the beginning in that in it you shall walk.

to Walk by faith, where faith comes by hearing the Word of God, the righteous shall live by faith, and the first man Adam became a living soul on the sixth day. "Awake to righteousness."

Why the Spirit of God tells the Church, the called out, in Smyrna;

Revelation 2:10. Fear none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

(Question: Why have tribulation for ten days)?

I wonder if anyone has understood these words because it is clear that only through trials and tribulations by the death of the flesh one can receive the promise of Eternal life, having access and eating from the tree of life.

(Question: Why does God use the Devil to test the faith and to chastise His Sons to the point of death)?

Luke 14:26 Jesus said that "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brother and sister - yes, even his own life, he can not be my disciple.

How come then that each and every so-called preacher out there teaches lies, and boasts of love? "We have love". Which love is that? Obviously, manmade love, lies and deception.

Those who preach prosperity and live in palaces, lovers of money, those who love the materialistic world, which are enemies of God, enemies of the cross, they are liars, working for their own bellies.

Many are the enemies of the cross, they don't want to sacrifice their own life, they don't want to be crucified and suffer the cross or the denial of the things of this world, they love the worldly riches, which is contrary to the teaching of Christ.

Can you bear the cup of Christ?

Galatians 6:14. May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Only by taking "lifting" our own Cross, we prove our love to our only Father in Heaven, as Jesus did and still carries on doing, when the Word is formed in us.

This is what it means to love your brother, to love Jesus our spiritual brother and to obey all of His commandments. Jesus, the firstborn amongst many brethren and we to be conformed in His image and also in His likeness.

Philip, whose name, means "lover of horses".

Horses signify the judgements of God, he who loves God's righteous judgements, as Paul the desire for the small seed.

The one who loves the Son, (his brother) the small seed; and the one who doesn't deny the disciplines of God the Father.

2 John 1:7. Many deceivers, who do not acknowledge that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, has gone out into the world. Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist (ANTI- LOGOS).

Jesus in the flesh, is the example of humbleness and poverty in a man, carrying the cross, crucified in shame (nakedness) suffering the curses of the law. All these happened invisibly; and to all those, who do carry out Jesus' works of faith, it becomes a reality, Jesus was crucified through weakness.

2 Co 13:4. For to be sure he was crucified out of weakness, but he lives by the power of God.

The first Adam, he who listens to the words of the Spirit,

1 Peter 4:1. Therefore since Christ suffered in his flesh arm yourselves also with the same mind, because who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin.

How come then, everyone is denying the curses of the cross and sufferings and only speaks about blessings? I am telling you the truth, because without curses there are no blessings, so think twice before you speak.

Everyone has to understand that the scriptures only apply to the man in the wilderness and no one else, like the first Adam, we have to touch and eat from the tree of knowledge to learn the wisdom of God.

One has to become the first Adam, the called out of the world and to build the tabernacle in the wilderness, which has never been cancelled out.

When the first Baptism happens, blood covers our sins, goatskins and the ram-skins dyed red.

The image of Jesus' flesh in humbleness, as an example for us to learn, when we accept the word of God into our hearts. First circumcision, we are under the grace of God because we have accepted the small seed and begin to understand and also seek the righteous judgements of God.

Wherefore, we are also covered by blood, because we offer ourselves as a living sacrifice unto God.

The beginning of righteousness and the beginning of wisdom is the fear of God

1 Peter 4-2. As a result He does not live the rest of his earthly life for the lust of the flesh, but rather for the will of God.

Only through Moses and the Prophets Christ comes

1 John 5:6. Jesus Christ is the one who came by water and by blood.

Christ only comes, (the righteous forms in a man) through the purification of the mind by the water Baptism (beginnings) of the 10 laws of God, as 10 plagues.

Moses and the prophets prepare the way of the Lord, the death of the flesh, and the circumcision of the heart, the blood of the sacrifice, the 7 blood covenants all the way from Adam to the death of Jesus' on the cross, His sacrifice, sin offering to God. (Blood for the forgiveness of sin).

The beginning of righteousness (LIFE) with the birth of Jesus, as the Christ (grace and truth, the eighth covenant, living in the newness of the Spirit) the begotten of the Father.

There are so much more depths to all these, but if Jesus is your teacher, He shall personally reveal to you many secrets. One has to see the death of Jesus just before His birth, from death to life and not from life to death.

Wherefore the conclusion is that only through Moses and the Prophets, Christ comes, as the righteousness of God is witnessed and only by the Law and the prophets.

Through their teaching and instructions and this is the very purpose of the Old Testament, which we cannot abolish, annulling in any way, it was written 'confirmation' to teach us.

Uniting, joining with the New Testament 'as one' to learn and to understand all things, the Hebrew and the Hellenic, in unity and in harmony.

To make it even clearer; the Old is all the twelve loaves and the New is the confirmation and fulfilment of all twelve loaves, five of the feeding of the 5000 and seven of the feeding of the 4000.

The one single seed from the very beginning fragmented into many seeds and then brought back together, as one single seed yet again, meaning that the seed was Jesus Christ from the very beginning.

Descending, given from above, a duration of 4000 years, from Adam to Jesus, through seventy-seven generations, whereby, there are two genealogies; one genealogy through Cain, referring to the fleshy side of Adam and one genealogy, through Seth, the spiritual side of Adam.

(Seth meaning, Compensation, (reward) referring to grace, where both genealogies begin from Seth, creation by grace, Cain carrying the mark of the beast, all the way to be crucified, which is hidden)

Right through Ishmael and Isaac, Esau and Jacob, Saul and David and so forth, Ishmael the carnal man and Isaac the spiritual, Esau the carnal man and Jacob the spiritual, the seed of Abraham, Saul the carnal man and David the spiritual.

Whereby, are but one man at all times, split, divided in two and then brought back together into one body.

The example of the two harlots with the young male child, denoting the bond woman and the free woman. Where Solomon, the King of peace, through his wisdom, was to separate, divide the child in two, which he did not carry out, because is but one man at all times, which also refers to the circumcision of the heart, the inward man.

Jesus comes to divide and to separate a man, separating the two seeds.

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division

Jesus comes to separate and to divide a man, to divide the flesh "soul" from the spirit, "spiritual man" outward and inward man, bone and marrow, Jesus comes to set a division and afterwards to reconcile both, the "Twain" into one body by the cross.

God hated Esau, but loved Jacob, just the same from the very beginning with Cain and Abel, God was not pleased with Cain, "the carnal fruit of Adam" his sacrifices and offerings were unacceptable, and why should God hate Esau?

We read that Cain slew Abel, whose name means "Breath" where in depth he is representing the spirit, the breath of God, whereby everyone was made to believe that actually and physically Cain has murdered his own brother. Without understanding that it refers to the quenching of the spirit, which Paul testifies;

"Do not quench the spirit" the prophetic word (Killing the prophets)

Where the two genealogies walk hand in hand, because they are one and the same man, at all times, flesh and spirit, heaven and earth, because they become interchangeable.

First to the flesh and then to the spirit, and afterwards, is first to the spirit and then to the flesh.

And what this means; is that the Lord is teaching the spirit to teach the flesh. (First to the Jew and then to the Hellen).

Like Adam and Eve, Adam was alone and lonely, he needed a helper, Eve as the helper, Eve as the spirit and the woman as the flesh, Eve the mother of all the living, three levels of understanding, what Eve really represents.

Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh, Eve taken from one of the sides "ribs" of Adam, after Adam fell into a deep sleep. We have to see Adam and Eve as one man; outward and inward; left side and right side. Male and female.

A deep sleep fell upon Adam, meaning that he fell into a deep trance, into ecstasy, he saw Eve in a vision, Eve his spiritual man, his spiritual side, don't forget, we are reading the prophetic word, things to come, because nothing physical as such was happening there and then.

Why should God, take one of Adam's ribs "sides" to create Eve? He could have created Eve, the same way He created Adam, out of dust, (as I have already mentioned, the dust represents the laws of God, not by the works of the law).

But not so, Eve was created through Adam, (by the works of faith) pointing to one man, bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh, Adam and Eve cemented together as one flesh.

Eve shall become the future Bride as the glorious resurrected body of Christ, the Church in Heaven, where there is neither male nor female, but a new Creation in Christ, the image and likeness of Jesus' resurrection.

But first, the man Adam from earth and the woman, (as one man) who is his old nature of the fleshy man under sin and under the law

The sinful impulses, which are manifested by the law, work in our members to bring forth fruits of death, when we eat from the fruit of the tree of Knowledge of good and bad.

The church on earth is the man who is receiving the wisdom of God by suffering the curses and death of his fleshy side. The shameful and naked body of Jesus crucified on the cross. Image of Jesus' death, doing what it is good by offering Himself as a living sacrifice unto God, exposing, manifesting and at the same time condemning sin in the flesh. Man becomes dust and ashes.

(The valley of the dry bones, Adam (son of man) was sleeping in the dust after all the judgements of God, Ezekiel was called the "son of man")

Psalm 22:15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaves to my jaws; and you have brought me into the dust of death.

Psalm 13:3. Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death.

Psalm 119:25. DALETH = Door My soul cleaves unto the dust: quicken me according to your word.

(Make me alive, give me life "spirit" through and according to your Word O LORD)

Ezekiel 37: 4-5. Prophecy to these bones, and say unto them, "Dry bones, hear the Word of the Lord"! After a rattling sound, the bones joined together, bone to bone. God said: I will make breath to enter unto you and you will come to life.

(The spirit of life - the Wisdom and the knowledge as the light)

The bones represent and signify souls, as 70 souls of Jacob's body descending into Egypt or 276 souls on Paul's ship, where the ship represents his own flesh, receiving and walking in the laws of God, floating on the waters.

This is why it is written, that no bone shall be broken on Jesus' body, body soul and Spirit blameless. The spirit of the righteous man is being made perfect.

(Not one soul was lost, all those you gave to me, and I have lost none)

The house of Israel or the house (Body) of bread (bread of life, Spirit), all the bones (soul) become illuminated by the increase in knowledge and Spiritual understanding, until one reaches the full stature of Christ.

"And the glory of God filled the Temple".

Man (the one in the wilderness) is the temple, filled with the spirit of God and no one can enter, meaning, no other doctrine or anything unclean can enter the house.

Jesus uses force to clean up the house of His Father, throwing out all the manmade sacrifices, doves, (selling the spirit - the oil)

Matthew 21:12-13. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves.

And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Everyone looks at these scriptures as a physical event, not understanding that they are talking about one man, Jesus (the truth) comes to clean and to purify the temple of God to be, in one man, by destroying the works of the flesh, of the Devil. Jesus testifying: I am the truth.

Just to clear this up, whatever happened physically, it would not take us very far, but the essence, the insight of the natural story, which is the spirit of the word, will.

Up to this very day many are still selling the oil, "doves" the spirit, by deluding many people that they have the spirit to sell, which is the biggest deception ever.

The spirit of truth cannot be bought nor sold, neither can be received by a mere so-called confession, nor with a prayer or fasting, we have the evidence of 2000 years.

One has to be chastised by God through His laws, because any son that He accepts, He scourges and chastises and anyone who does not accept the chastisements of God, he is a bastard and not a son.

Therefore, this is the meaning of "Christ crucified" and not singing and dancing and making mockery of the commandments of the Lord.

Why then, the so-called preachers with the big ministries are not teaching Christ crucified? Which makes them enemies of the cross. I would like them, to reveal to me and to the people out there, the mystery of iniquity.

Not in their wildest dreams would they ever be able to explain the word of truth.

(Question: Why do these so-called preachers, consider the deaf, the blind and the handicapped, as demon possessed; and why do they see things only in the physical? Without accepting that the scriptures can only be taught by the Holy Spirit, as it is written, therefore, the scriptures must be Spiritual.

Proving that they are under the illusion and delusion of the spirit of deception.

Ezekiel 36:26-27. I will give you a new heart and put a new Spirit: I will remove from you your heart of stone and give to you a heart of flesh. (Eat the flesh of Jesus)

And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

John 16:13. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

(Pointing to the prophetic word, the testimony of Jesus)

The male "MAN" child

Wherefore, to understand this much clearer; our spiritual man is the one in heaven, in front of the throne of God, the man born from God, the male "man child", which Paul calls the spirit of our mind, the heavenly church.

Our fleshy man walking from below to be taught by our spiritual brother, from above, because the man child is our spiritual brother, in the image and likeness of Christ. (Jesus, the firstborn amongst many brothers)

This is why it is written, how many times shall I forgive my brother Lord, seven times? No! Says the Lord, seventy times seven, pointing to the seventy-seven generations from Adam to Jesus, which is a cryptic.

Seventy souls descending into Egypt, walking seven days, which are all keys.

From the very beginning of the creation to the cross, this is why it was Simon-Peter who said it, referring to the listener of the spirit.

Where in fact Peter signifies the spiritual man; which is on another level of understanding, the one being built on the foundational rock, the teaching of Jesus Christ.

It was Peter, whom Jesus asked if he loved Him three times; it was Peter, who had denied the Lord three times; it was Peter, who said; let's build three tabernacles, on the Mount of transfiguration.

It was Peter, who had drawn the net with 153 fish; it was Peter, whom Jesus was talking to, at all times.

John the beloved of Jesus, in His bosom, referring to the grace of God, this is what the name John stands for, this is why it is written; that grace and truth were made by Jesus.

We have to see all the Apostles, as one man, the one being sent, referring to the Holy Spirit, because all 12 represent the spirit from above. Whilst together with the 12 one was the Devil "the spirit teaching us good and evil" as Jesus said "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees"

Ephesians 2:20. And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone.

Ephesians 3:5. Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit.

2 Peter 3:2. That you may be mindful (remembering) of the words, which were spoken before by the holy prophets and by the apostles the commandment to you by the Lord and Saviour:

Therefore the conclusion in all understanding, it is and it must be that, a man can only be created by the laws of God, through the purification of the mind from evil conscience "born from water".

For one to see and to understand and to apprehend the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; and through the washing and cleansing by the word of truth, to be "born of the spirit - the spirit of truth - the word of truth".

Also, for one to become able to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, which happens through reconciliation, as it is spoken as it is written. By offering one's self as a living sacrifice unto God, walking by the faith of the Son of God, which is counted unto him as righteousness.

Wherefore, the Law and the Prophets must be fulfilled by Christ today in us, in our time of life and it is not a thing of the past, because the entire scriptures is the prophetic Word, which was pointing to us at this very day.

This is why the knowledge of the Lord is given today, The revelation of Jesus and the opening of the seals of the Book, the Book of the Bible, the Book of life.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hears my voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me.

John 18:37. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice...

Today if you hear His voice ...
